Cliff House Stands.
 San Francisco, April 23.—A thorough inspection made by a representative of the Associated Press, who made the trip in an automobile, shows that comparatively little damage was done in the vicinity of the Cliff. The Cliff House not only stands, but the damage sustained by the earthquake shock to this historic building will not exceed, according to the statement of Manager Wilkins, $500. In fact, the escape of the Cliff House is one of the curious features of the disaster which has befallen San Francisco.
Trust Menaces the Cattlemen.
 Helena, Mont., April 23.—The North Montana Roundup Association, composed of cattlemen in Northern Montana, and representing $10,000,000 in individual holdings, at its annual session today issued a manifesto, in which the trusts, captains of industry and Wall street are severely criticized. After referring to the blight on the cattle industry, due, it is alleged, to the beef trust, the statement is made that if conditions are not better this season many owners will have to go into bankruptcy.
Says Dowie Cheated Him.
 Chicago, April 23.—James Burrock, of New Mexico, today made complaint to the Federal authorities that he had been defrauded by John Alexander Dowie out of a sum close to $20,000, and that the mails had been used in the operation.

TRUMPET CALLS.
 Ram's Horn Sounds a Warning Note to the Unredeemed.

FAITH in God does more than free from faults; it fills with fault-fighting force.
 It is wonderfully easier to go to church with a new coat than with an old one.
 Some men lose sight of what God thinks of them in their worry over what they think of God.
 Jesus is the way to heaven in the same manner as a river is the way to the sea.
 Destiny depends largely on the development of a sense of responsibility for others.
 Many who profess to love the pearl of price are only longing for the price of the pearl.
 If you are going to sit down at the feast of the Lamb you had better stand up for Him now.
 The most effective instruments for heavenly service are every-day tools we lend our Lord.
 Most of the bubbles which we break our necks are blown by the breath of our own ambition.
 It's not the man with keen eyes for faults who will fix this world; it's the one with large faith in folks.
 A man may know whether he has treasure in heaven by watching whether his heart goes there.
 There are too many people willing to give a cup of cold water if they can only get it down the back of your neck.
 The fact that a man is conscientious in robbing the poor will not change the things the King will say to him at that day.
 Many women seem to think that Jesus said they must worship the Father in pride and style instead of in spirit and truth.

A FRIEND IN NEED.
 When Baron Jutaro Komura came to America to meet, at Portsmouth, the representatives of the car, he knew that however many concessions he might obtain for Japan, he could not satisfy the popular clamor among his countrymen. Some one, says a writer in World's Work, was bound to be disappointed. But he was assured also that however ill it might go with him, one friend at least would be waiting for him in Tokyo.
 "I warned him of what lay before him," said the Marquis Ito to an American woman. "I remembered well my experience in Kyoto. I remembered the treaty of Kyoto. I made that peace after a successful war. All my terms had been agreed to. I was satisfied. I was successful. The treaty was signed, and I came to lay it at the emperor's feet. There was to be no more fighting over that business."
 "How do you think I felt when France and Germany stepped in and tore my treaty to pieces, reversed its conditions, and took from Japan that which she had honestly won?"
 "I shall never forget the pain of that moment. I remembered it keenly when Komura started for America."
 "My friend," I said to him, "you go with burrahs and rejoicing and banquets. If you are received in the same way on your return I will not come to meet you. The nation will do that. You will not need me. But if things are otherwise, if, when you return, there are no shouts and rejoicings, if no other single soul comes forward to welcome you, count on me, for then I shall come to meet you."
 In the days of the Tokyo rioting, when the Japanese populace, enraged at the terms of the treaty, was threatening his life, Ito's assurance must have been a continual solace to the weary Komura.
Proper Pride.
 "I don't like this talk about sending blackjacks to jail," said Roving Rufus to his comrade in arms.
 "Wah's the difference?"
 "You lack pride, that's what's the matter with you," retorted Rufus. "Do you suppose that when I go to jail I want to mix with that set?"—Philadelphia Ledger.
Deserved to Live.
 In a rural justice court in Georgia recently an old negro, whose testimony had been questioned, said in his own defense:
 "Judge, I'm a good man. I been a livin' roun' beah ten years. I ain't never been lynched; an de only horse I ever stole throwed me en broke my two legs!"—Chicago Daily News.
One on Grandma.
 "You shouldn't stay out late at night riding your wheel; people didn't stay out late in the good old days."
 "Didn't you ever hear of the midnight ride of Paul Revere, grandma?"
 —New York Press.
Mending His Fortunes.
 "Why do you suppose that damaged old widower got married again?"
 "Why, naturally, he wanted to get repaired."—Baltimore American.
 Even though a young man may consider a girl worth her weight in gold it's 10 to 1 that her father only awaits a chance to give her away.

 The Boston Typographical Union has voted $10,000 to lend San Francisco employing printers to re-establish their plants, in addition to relief voted for union members.
Irreparable Loss to Masons.
 San Francisco, April 24.—The Masons of California have suffered an irreparable loss by fire. The Masonic Temple on Post street was destroyed, and with it went more than 150 portraits of past grand officers. Five hundred hand-embroidered uniforms belonging to members of California Commandery, No. 1, went up in the flames. In addition to this the paraphernalia and records of 20 Masonic bodies that used the temple as a meeting place were destroyed, as well as the records of the grand lodge.
