THE FAMILY DOCTOR

To Extract a Splinter.—A splinter can be extracted without pain in this way: Nearly fill a wide-mouthed bottle with hot water, place the injured part over the mouth and press tightly. The suction will draw the flesh down, and in a minute or two the splinter will come out.

Spasmodic Croup.—Every mother should know how to treat this, as the attacks come on so suddenly. The child should at once be taken up and put into a hot bath. A teaspoonful of ipecacuanha wine—repeated if necessary—is often helpful; this is to make the child sick. Spasmodic croup is of nervous origin, and the general condition of the child must be improved. It is often associated with rickets.

Wash for the Hair.—For hair that is dry an oily wash should be used about once a week or oftener. It should be rubbed into the scalp with a piece of flannel, a superfluity of oil thus being avoided, as only sufficient is used to moisten, not drown, the roots of the hair; the application of the oil must be accompanied by friction with the flannel. It is a mistake to suppose that dry hair will be really benefited by oil being poured on to it and merely brushed through it. To do permanent good it is necessary that the fatty preparation should be rubbed into the skin of the head; a very small quantity will suffice to be of benefit.

The Value of Salt.—Half a teaspoonful of common table salt dissolved in a little cold water will instantly relieve heartburn or dyspepsia. If taken every morning before breakfast, increasing the quantity gradually to a teaspoonful of salt and a tumbler of water, it will in a few days cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia, if at the same time due attention is paid to the diet. There is no better remedy than the above for constipation. As a gargle for sore throats it is equal to chlorate of potash, and is entirely safe. In doses of one to four teaspoonfuls in half a pint of tepid water it acts promptly as an emetic, and in cases of poisoning is always at hand. It is an excellent remedy for bites and stings of insects. It is also a valuable astringent in hemorrhages, particularly for bleeding after the extraction of teeth. It has both healing and cleansing properties.

DRUMS AT FUNERALS.

William Trumbore Has Officiated at Obsequies of 893 Soldiers.

William Trumbore, of Easton, Pa., has won an enviable reputation as a drummer at the funerals of veterans of the Civil War. Up to date he has sounded "taps" at the funerals of 893 fellow comrades and twelve Sons of

WILLIAM TRUMBORE.

Veterans. When the Civil War broke out, Trumbore enlisted from Boonton, N. J., in the Fourth Regiment of Volunteers, First Brigade, and served under Gen. Phil Kearney, and later under Gen. A. J. Smith. In 1892 he was called out with the Thirty-eighth Pennsylvania Regiment in the emergency call for the suppression of the labor troubles in Central Pennsylvania. Trumbore was honorably discharged from the army as sergeant drum major. He belongs to Lafayette Post, No. 217, Grand Army of the Republic, Easton, and is one its most prominent members. He is 63 years old, and still hale and hearty.—Williamsport (Pa.) Grit.

Homeopathic Optimism.

We are becoming quite accustomed to look forward expectantly to the stirring philosophy in homeopathic doses which America exports to us. A sort of protechnical cheerfulness under any circumstances, and a doctrine of personal progress through life on the crest of the wave, are imparted with an optimistic insistence that cannot be denied. We may sometimes laugh at these flights, but many of us would find our spirits fall if we were deprived of their daily prescriptions.—London Ladies' Pictorial.

The Dignity of Wealth.

"They say that millionaires do not laugh enough."
"Well, how would you know they were millionaires if they laughed."

THE WASHINGTON--SEATTLE

FIFTEEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD STOP AT THE WASHINGTON.

- 1st—It is the best hotel on the Coast.
- 2d—It costs no more than poorer hotels, as shown by rates below.
- 3d—New hotel, new furniture.
- 4th—Excellent service.
- 5th—The Washington, while in the center of the city, is on an elevation of 200 feet, which lifts you above the noise, dust and smoke of the street hotels.
- 6th—The hotel is situated in the center of 4 1/2 acres of beautiful grounds, with thousands of roses and other fragrant flowers to beautify the surroundings.
- 7th—Eight hundred feet of wide verandas surround the hotel, giving to the guest opportunities for rest and promenade not found elsewhere.
- 8th—The view from these spacious verandas cannot be described. Mountains, lakes, the Sound and the city itself form one magnificent panorama not found anywhere else on earth.
- 9th—The hotel lobby, parlors, Turkish room, etc., are exquisite, and form a continuation of comfort and luxury not often found in hotels.
- 10th—A Dutch grill has recently been added, where service may be had at all hours.
- 11th—The dining room cannot be excelled. Breakfast and lunch are served a la carte, at most reasonable prices, and a table d'hotel dinner for $1.00 is pronounced by all to be above criticism.
- 12th—Rates—Extremely reasonable. European plan—Room, without bath, $1.00 per day and upward. Room, with bath, $2.00 per day and upward.

"Bus service to and from all trains and boats, 25 cents. Trunks, each way, 25 cents. Carriage fare (private), 50 cents. Special rates made to parties for one month or more.

13th—Being above the street and away from the noise, you will enjoy a night's rest better at the Washington than any other hotel in the city.

14th—Go to the Washington and if you are not satisfied that it surpasses all other hotels on the Pacific Coast for excellent service and reasonable prices, your bill will be nothing.

15th—Do not be deceived by believing that some other hotel in the city is as good as the Washington, for such is not the case. The Washington stands alone as the most charming and attractive hotel west of New York.

The following people have stopped at the Washington during the past year and have given unsolicited praise and declared that in many respects it excels any other hotel on the continent:

President Theodore Roosevelt, Wm. H. Moody, Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Odell, of New York; Baron Rothschild, Mr. Smith, of the DeBeers Diamond Mines, South Africa; Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, Ex-Secretary of Interior; Hon. C. S. Melton, President N. Y. & H. R. Ry.; Mrs. J. J. Hill, Louis Hill and J. N. Hill, of the Great Northern Ry.; Hon. Howard Elliott, President N. P. Ry.; Adeline Patti, E. H. Sothorn, Gov. Brady, of Alaska; Mrs. Nordica, Maud Adams, Ned Goodwin, Mrs. Flske, all Raymond & Whitcomb tourists, Richard Mansfield and other celebrities of the commercial and professional world.
