PULSE of the PRESS

The manner in which the deliberations were carried on ought to convince the world that Algerias would make a lovely name for a sleeping car.—Montreal Star.

The spring gardening season makes the suburban citizen wonder whether, after all, the man with the muck rake is not entitled to some sympathy.— Washington Star.

Count Boni has found out he doesn't want any American tainted money. It is a pity that he didn't make this discovery a number of years ago.—New York Evening Sun.

Professor Garner announces that he has now completely mastered the monkey language. He expects hereafter to be able to move freely in fashionable society.—New York Mail.

With a little more help from the industrial concerns that are destroying Niagara, any decent oculist in the State will be able to remove what is left of the cataract.—New York Evening Mail.

Congressmen who insist on continuing the Government seed distribution, to be consistent, should also see that their constituents are furnished free hoes and garden rakes.—Toledo (Ohio) Blade.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says there will be no more crop failures.
 Evidently, the Secretary of Agriculture and the head of the Weather Bureau have been putting up a job.—Philadelphia Press.

President Roosevelt says that he are in urgent need of a better coast defense, and everyone who has been up against the summer rates at the seashore will agree with him.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Let the immigrants come, be they Irish or German, or Swedes or Slavs, or Italians, just as long as they stay out of the big cities and the sweatshops and settle upon the public land to reclaim it.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Hyde and Alexander, late of the Equitable, have been dropped from the directorate of one of the branches of the Coal Trust. Here's a case where two Jonahs go overboard before the storm breaks.—Philadelphia North American.

Fifty millions of coast defenses looks as if the role of the world's peacemaker were a little dangerous. But, then, that is only the way of the world. The fellow who tries to settle the other fellow's quarrel usually gets into a mess himself.—Haverhill Gazette.

The Government is about to withdraw the existing stock of postage stamps and issue fresh ones that will stick. It is about time for Uncle Sam to take away the reproach of that gum which got many a citizen into trouble with the Recording Angel.—New York Evening Sun.

What did more than anything else to make Johann Most a person of no importance in this community was the refusal of the authorities to take him with any great seriousness. He found it hard to get into jail, so hard that it took the fight out of him.—New York Evening Sun.

President Roosevelt's graphic picture of the weekly decline of enthusiasm for work among the laborers on the Panama canal suggests that Lamb's schedule of employment from 11 to 1, with an hour out for luncheon, would be popular on the Isthmus.—New York Evening Post.

Many of the millionaires of the day rose from poor, uneducated boys, who naturally adopted the phonetic mode of spelling. It is possible the board to reform the present mode will adopt the phonetic system to help the great moneyed men out of their trouble.—Fredericksburg (Va.) Star.

Some of the life insurance companies prided themselves so much on teaching a policy holder habits of economy that they held on to his dividends for fear he might spend them. The directors who were thus tempted into habits of extravagance are, presumably, to be regarded as martyrs.—Washington Star.

A colored woman of Baltimore, 105 years old, has a distinct recollection of General Lafayette's tour of this country. This event seems to have been stored up in the memory of all old people. It is observable of late, however, that the recollection of George Washington are getting very scarce.—Rochester Union.

The most successful man is usually the most careworn, and, therefore, the most unhappy. A tramp has no cares at all, and in the opinion of some philosophers the tramp approaches very near happiness. Every healthy man once in a while feels like going to Japan to bask in the smiles of the gelshas—dropping duties and throwing dull care to the lotus winds.—Portland Oregonian.

A large percentage of the population of the Isle of Guam are reported to be afflicted with gangrene, a tropical disease more repulsive than leprosy, which destroys the face by slow ulceration and is highly contagious or communicable. The American Governor-General of Guam recommends hospitals for the isolation of the disease, which recommendation has been approved by the Surgeon-General of the Navy. This is a part of "the white man's burden."— Atlanta Constitution.
