A Rare Remedy.
 A man went into a chemist's shop and bought a bottle of some patent stuff, which was advertised thus: "No more coughs, no more colds. One shilling a bottle." Three days later he went to the chemist, complaining that his throat was stopped up and that he could scarcely breathe. "I've drunk all that patent cough mixture," he said. "Drunk it!" yelled the chemist. "Why, that's an India rubber solution to put on the soles of your boots."

Diamonds Explode.
 A curious fact regarding diamonds is that it is not uncommon for the crystals to explode as soon as they are brought up from the mine. Sometimes they have burst in the pockets or the warm hands of miners, due to the effect of increased temperature. Large stones are more likely to do this than small ones. Valuable stones have been destroyed in this way. By way of safeguard some dealers imbed large diamonds in a raw potato.

The Whole Hog.
 "Going the whole hog" was originally a piece of butchers' slang. In the colonial days of America purchasers would frequently buy a whole hog to be cut up at home; hence the butchers would ask if the customer meant to go the whole hog or wanted only a part.
