In our next issue we will notice more fully the benefit tendered to Miss Pearl Miller at the Zion A. M. E. church on the 20th inst. as well as the O'possum dinner for the benefit of Rev. Geo. E. Jackson on the 22nd.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather and the inconvenience caused by the street car strike the Odd Fellows' hall, Second and Yamhill was comfortably filled with the members of the order and their friends, it being the occasion of the 22nd anniversary of New North West Lodge No. 2554 G. U. O. of O. F. The program opened with a chorus by the order followed by prayer by H. Laurence, N. G. Reuben Crawford then favored the audience with one of his celebrated vocal solos. He was followed by C. A. Ritter who gave a resume of the history of New Northwest Lodge. E. D. Cannedy followed with an address on the order in general. Both of these addresses were full of information and were well received. The members of the Household of Ruth No. 844 then rendered a chorus. They were followed by Robt. Hill, P. N. F., with a humorous recitation. N. F. Lee then read a parody entitled "The Negro is here to stay." Dr. Merriman, E. S., then favored the audience with one of his excellent solos with Miss Pearl Miller as accompanist. Miss Susie Crawford a member of the H. of R. gave a select reading following which the Master of Ceremonies W. P. P. Hall welcomed our guests and announced that the program would close with a chorus by the members of the Lodge and Household of Ruth, after which the members would like to meet socially all present. As soon as the program was finished the entertainment committee busied themselves and soon all present were disposing of the beautiful repast that had been provided. The time sped swiftly and it was midnight ere the company concluded that it was time to wend their way homeward and look forward to another of the always enjoyable entertainments given by the members of the G. U. O. of O. F.
