Howell—Did that fellow who wanted you to invest have a sure thing, as he claimed? Powell—Yes; I was it.—Judge.
Friend—If you love Miss Gotrox, old man, why don't you marry her? Bachelor Doctor—Heavens! man, she is one of my best patients!—Judge.
Eme—But, papa, how do you know that it was a stork that brought us the new baby? Papa—Because, my dear, I just saw his bill!—Woman's Home Companion.
It would be easier to be content with little if nobody had any more.—Life.
Visitor—What are you doing here, my poor man? Convict—Time, mum.—Baltimore American.
"Ignorance of the law," said the judge, "excuses no one." "That being the case," rejoined the prisoner, "it's a wonder the jury didn't find my lawyer guilty."—Chicago Daily News.
"Our imitation is really considerably better than the real thing." "You don't say! Then hadn't we better begin cautioning the public to beware of the genuine?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.
She—Were you ever in a street car accident? He—Yes. The car was completely wrecked, but the passengers were packed so tight that only the outside layers were injured.—Chicago News.
"Let me see," said she, "what is it you call these men who run automobiles?" "Pardon me," replied the gallant man. "I'm too much of a gentleman to tell you what I call them."—Philadelphia Ledger.
"Slowboy is about discouraged. He's been waiting ten years for a promotion and hasn't got it yet." "That's the trouble. If he'd worked more and waited less he'd have had it long ago."—Detroit Free Press.
"What a wonderful vocabulary the new minister has," said Mrs. Oldcastle. "Yes," replied her hostess, "it's almost as big as Josiah's Uncle William's was, only his turned into a gottle, at last."—Chicago Record-Herald.
"I wonder," said the man who was given to thought at times, "I wonder what is meant by the 'embarrassment of riches'?" "The poor relation, very likely," replied the man who was one.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
Dashaway—I want you to meet Miss Hopper. Stunning girl. Just back from Europe. Cleverton—Her first visit? "Yes." "Well, old man, if it's the same to you, I'll wait until she's gotten through telling about 't.'—Life.
"Wait a minute till I get my clothes off!" came a shrill voice from the back end of the cable car. All the strap-holders turned their heads as one man. It was a small boy striving to drag off the hamper containing his mother's washing.—Judge.
Mother (who has been asked to suggest a game for a rainy afternoon)—Why don't you pretend you are me? And George can be daddy. Then you might play at housekeeping. Daughter—But, mother, we've quarreled once already!—Punch.
"That's all right, sis," answered Tommy. "I could see that you were only playing telephone. He was ringing you up—oh, you needn't hide your left hand behind you—but he had his lips entirely too close to the receiver."—Chicago Tribune.
"Can't you find any work at all?" asked the kind lady of Frayed Franklin. "Plenty, mum. But everybody wants references from me last employer." "Can't you get them?" "No, mum. He's been dead 28 years."—Milwaukee Sentinel.
"You don't realize that there are other considerations in life than money," said the censorious friend. "Yes, I do," answered Senator Sorghum. "But whenever I want anything done I can't get the other fellow to realize it."—Washington Star.
"Oh, lady, I do love peach cake," hinted the hungry hobo as he rested his greasy sleeve on the gatepost. "Well," replied the housewife with the rolling pin, "suppose I should make you some peach cake. Would you do any work?" "Would I, mum? Why, I would do the hardest work I ever did in my life." "And what would you do?" "Why, I'd climb dat tree and get enough peaches fer de cake."—Chicago Daily News.

Make Salesmen Of Your Windows After Dark
A store may shut its doors at sunset, but if its show windows are Electric Lighted and attractively dressed they are doing as effective soliciting for the next day's business as a corps of sales people.
Up-to-date stores nowadays consider window lighting a necessity, whether they remain open after dark or not. Competition forces modern methods. Is your store "SHUT UP" after sunset in the old style or in the new?
There is no known illuminant which will light a shop window as effectively, handsomely and satisfactorily as Electric Light. Fabrics are shown in their true colors and every little detail is brought out in true proportion to its surroundings.
If your window is not Electrically lighted you are throwing away chances for increasing your business only measured by the number of people that pass your store after dark.
Based on our new scale of Reduced Rates for current on Meter basis, Electric Light is not an expense—it is an ECONOMY.
