Butler Finally Nominated.

[Continuation of Yesterday's Report.] McDevitt's declaration that the Butlerites proposed to relain the hall was answered by a passionate peal of applause. When the state central committee fully realized that the Butler faction had control of Mechanics' hall they appointed a com witter to see what could be done towards procuring a hall. They waited upon Mayor Pratt about 10 o'clock.

In his speech Spofford alluded to the wants of the laboring class, and denounced bo idolding and banking monopolies. He was beartily applauded.

hearing applauded. At the conclusion of Spofford's speech John L. lilee, of Springfield, nominated Gen. B. F. Butler for governor, amid cheers and great excitement, the delegates all rising. Cook, of Boston, seconded the nomination.

At this point, amid most intense excite ment, Joh n C. Galvin took the floor and deunced the action of the committee, being repeatedly interrupted by hisses, groans and cries of "Put him ont." The speaker asked how in the name of God any Democrat could nominate Butler? He had opposed every Democratic principle for 15 years. When the speaker said it was proposed to put him in the field as presidential candidate, there were cries of "Yes, ycs." Three groans were given for the speaker at the conclusion of his some matters have come to light to make the showing less favorable. It was ascertained that in one case a loan of $45,000 had been made and secured on real estate which was already encumbered by a mortgage in excess of its value. Other assets to the amount of $168,000 were found to be in an unsatisfactory condition. Commissioner Cole-man called Mahe's attention to these facts, and remembed the with a loak of second is man called Mahe's attention to these facts, and reproached him with a lack of candor in his presentations of affairs. This seemed to affect Mahe greatly, and the want of confi-dence expressed by Mr. Coleman moved him to tears. He made over real estate yesterday to cover the $45,000 loan, and gave personal guarantee to secure $163,000 cash. It is con-sidered possible at other such cases may be discovered in further digging into the affairs of the bank, and the impression is that the suicide of Mahe is due to these com-plications. The commissioners express the finit international states of the commissioners express the opinion that with guarantees given by the deceased president the bank can work its way include the bank can work its way out and depositors suffer no loss, and inclin to the opinion that this will be the best cours to pursue, as the bank is a purely mutual institution and there are no stockholders to fall back upon

The Missing Tax Fund. The finance committee of the board of su
