

THE PLEA OF TURKEY

A SUSPENSION OF JUDGMENT IS ASKED FOR.

Meanwhile Other Reports of Armenian Atrocities Continue to Pour In From Various Quarters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Turkish legation tonight received this official communication from Constantinople:

"It is indeed strange to observe the unwillingness on the part of some newspapers to wait and see who was actually responsible for them. The sublime Porte has taken all the precautionary measures necessitated by the case, and there cannot possibly remain any reasonable doubt in the minds of the revolutionists and their friends, that the appointed commission to investigate this affair will bring out the facts as they are in reality. The assertion already made by the people connected with the revolt in Turkey is so numerous and so shockingly erroneous that it is truly impossible to answer them all. It is not true that the governor of Bitlis recruited soldiers amongst the Kurds; it is not true that women and children were massacred. On the contrary, they were protected by the soldiers, as was the case, for instance, with the women near Khuzest, who were all rescued and returned to their owners, in conformity with strict orders from the Bitlis authorities. The assertion made that 24 villages were burned is simply preposterous, as no 24 villages are mentioned in any official report. In that region there are no more than 100 villages, some of which were set on fire by the revolutionists themselves, who acted exactly as they had done in Syria. Hamlin's prophetic statement of December 22, 1923:

"The Armenian (Heutehagrists) bands organized all over the empire will watch their opportunity to kill the Kurds and Turkey, set fire to their villages, and then make their escape into the mountains."

"It is not true, either, that the garments of priests and objects belonging to the churches were publicly sold at Mosul."

"In order further to destroy the authority of the revolutionary Armenian party in fermenting troubles in Turkey, suffice it to reproduce the following letter, that the Armenian newspaper, Trochak, which is published in London, recently gave to its emissaries of sedition and revolt. The following is a translation:

"He who will present this paper is sent, on the part of the staff of the Trochak, to the Armenian revolutionists' alliance."

"The stamp of the paper has in the center a hand holding a flag, crossed by a dagger, with a red cap and a pen."

Further Atrocities Allezed.

VIENNA, Jan. 8.—Dispatches from Erzlingham describe the trial of 34 Armenians there December 5. Twenty-four of the prisoners were sentenced to six years of penal servitude for life, and others to imprisonment for from three to six years. Fifteen were condemned for political offenses. Sixteen of these condemned to death were executed with assistance in the murder of a Munsulman in the village of Armedan. Some of these proved false. One was a literary celebrity. Bishop Varian, of Kamach, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment at hard labor. A dispatch from Constantinople says:

"It is stated here that the sultan received a number of officers of high rank to Asia upon the receipt of the provincial government a more benevolent attitude towards the Armenians."

While Azarian, the Armenian patriarch, was celebrating in Constantinople a body of police raided the place. Many of the worshippers immediately left in alarm. The object of the police is unknown. Travellers in Constantinople tell grim stories of atrocities. They say that it now suffices for Kurds to denounce the inhabitants of any Armenian village to bring about a repetition of the autumn atrocities.

The Standard correspondent in Constantinople recalls that the porte has canceled the denial of Abdallah Pasha as a member of the commission of inquiry. The report was that the cancellation was due to the porte's desire to dispel the distrust caused by the recall of Abdallah, in view of his fearless character. The correspondent adds that Abdallah is now returning home.

Asked to Disavow Gladstone's Speech.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The Standard's correspondent in Constantinople says that the sultan has formally applied to Great Britain to disavow Mr. Gladstone's recent speech with reference to Armenia. England, France and Russia are asked to disavow the porte to suspend the governor of Bitlis, until the investigation has been concluded. The porte has not replied. It is believed that the porte will endeavor to maintain the governor in his post.

The Standard's Vienna correspondent says he has learned from an unimpeachable source that the services of the patriarch, Aronian, have been enlisted to secure a verdict against the Armenians in the Sassoon inquiry, to which all of the porte's energies are directed. Aronian has undertaken to instruct the vicar of Moosh to enjoin his flock to testify before the commission favorably to Turkish officials. The correspondent says:

"Such conduct by Armenian Catholics will appear strange to Englishmen, but a person who has resided in the East is well aware of the guile dividing the branches of the Armenian family."

In preparation for the visit of the commission of inquiry, witnesses of the outrages have been removed to other parts of the empire.

LONDON MEAT MEN.

They Strenuously Insist on Their Found of Pish.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A mass meeting of London meat-traders was held this evening to protest against the proposed attempt of American shippers of refrigerated beef to reduce the customary allowance to the trade of a pound per quarter. Sir A. K. Rolfe, member of parliament for the south division of Islington, presided. The speakers maintained that it was an old custom to allow the retailer one pound per quarter to meet the loss sustained by shrinkage in weight between the date of buying and the time of selling. American importers acquiesced in the custom until recently, when they gave notice of their intention to stop the allowance. Resolutions were adopted by the meeting in which the American exporters aimed to capture the control of the meat supply of London, and that unless their attempt was resisted, they would raise the cost of food to the public. Wholesale and retail traders are of the opinion that prompt measures are necessary, and they pledge themselves to carry out whatever measures may be jointly decided upon by the committee of the butchers' society and the Central Meat Market Association.

Sympathy For Their Widows.

Resolutions Adopted by the Anti-Lynching Committee.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The anti-lynching committee, of which Miss Florence Bagnall is secretary, is receiving accouncements constantly. Justin McCarthy, M.P., chairman of the Irish parliamentary party, is the latest notable recruit. The committee yesterday adopted the following resolution: "The anti-lynching executive committee having heard from un doubted sources in Memphis, Tenn., New York and Boston that a jury at Memphis refused to convict those of whose guiltless

OUR POMPADOUR JIM

THINKS HE HAS A SURE THING WITH PITZSIMMONS.

Says He Merely Wants the Pleasure of Whipping Him, and is Not After Money.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 8.—James J. Corbett, who opened an engagement at the Grand last night, said, in an interview, that he is anxious to fight Fitzsimmons as much for the pleasure of whipping him as for the glory and money at stake.

When asked of his intentions in the future, Corbett said: "I shall take part in the ring after this fight with Fitzsimmons, win or lose, I am only going into this fight because I want to whip Fitz. We are to fight for $10,000, and I pledge you my word I would not take money unless we call the fight off. I am willing and anxious to fight Fitzsimmons before anything, or anybody in this or any other country."

Corbett was asked if he thought that the fight would take place in Jacksonville. He replied: "The match has been made, the money is up and the fight must and will come off. I think that it will come off. I think that it will come off in Jacksonville in September next. There is no law in Florida to prevent it. Governor Mitchell used every means in his power to stop my fight with Charley Mitchell, and he failed. He failed because he had no power. I will not let him stop me. I will fight in Jacksonville. Besides, the people of Florida and Jacksonville especially are anxious for the fight to take place in that city on account of the immense amount of money which those who will go to see it will spend." The champion expressed the opinion that prizefighting would last as long as the world lasts, and referred to the comparatively few men who have been killed in the puzing. "A champion has never yet been killed," he said, "those who have been killed are the victims of accidents." Corbett declined to say how near he thought his fight with Fitzsimmons would last. "No one can tell how long a fight will last; it depends upon the opportunities a man gets. I can't tell what my opponent will do when I go into the ring, but I know that I will do nor how many rounds the fight will last." Corbett was asked the relative positions of Fitz and Jackson as pugilists. "In Jackson's day he was a better man than Fitzsimmons, but now or ever will be, but I think that Jackson has now played out, and is now no longer any good." He answered, speaking of Sullivan's escape last week, in whipping his manager and his opponent, that "I am very sorry; John is a good fellow when he is sober, and is his own worst enemy."

ALDER ON SOCIALISM.

The Anti-Revolutionary Bill in the Reichstag.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—The reichstag resumed today and resumed the debate on the anti-revolutionary bill. Herr Auer said the government introduced the measure so that in the event of its expiration the present laws would be in force, and the parliament in order to obtain from a new parliament increased grants for military purposes. The reason assigned for introducing the bill, that the existing penal laws were inadequate, was not warranted. Auer declared such arguments were always used when it was intended to curtail the liberties of citizens. The anti-revolutionary bill, he stated, was solely directed against social democracy. Auer concluded with the assertion that the agrarians and anti-Semites would not be satisfied with the bill. Not everyone agreed that there was a necessity for protection of the monarchy. Large numbers of Germans, he added, favored the republic. The debate on the bill will be resumed tomorrow.

TIMOTHY HEALY INTERVIEWED.

He Will Try to Prevent Individuals From Dominating the Irish Party.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—In an interview today, Timothy Healy emphatically denied that he intended to found a third Irish party or to oppose the re-election of Justin McCarthy or other nationalist leaders. He was only trying to prevent individuals from dominating the party, and he would persist in opposing every adventurist measure, put forth as sanctioned by the whole party, when it only emanated from individuals. Healy emphatically denied that he intended to found a third party in the name of the party. Mr. Healy concluded by declaring that he had always supported and would continue to support Mr. McCarthy's championship of the anti-revolutionary bill. Healy emphatically and cordially resists any attempt to defeat the government in the address in reply to the queen's speech at the opening session of parliament.

ENGLISH POLITICS.

A Lively Session of Parliament is Anticipated.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Sir John Long, an advanced liberal member of parliament, said in a speech in London this evening that a wave of political reaction had set into Great Britain, and that it was possible that upon the reassembling of parliament the disrupted tendencies of the liberal party of the country, and a government defeat and the dissolution of parliament. The Way by Which It Gets Into the System—Some Very Scientific Facts of Great Value and Interest.

"Any man or woman who can go through the trying winters and springs of this climate without suffering from rheumatism or neuralgic pains of some kind is decidedly fortunate." It was Dr. Hamilton, the popular physician, who declared this while talking to some friends at the club. Continuing he said:

"What it is that causes these pains has been a greater mystery to physicians and scientists than almost any other question. Some have believed that they are the results of a severe cold, others that imprudent exposure has caused them, and still others that they arise from blood poisoning."

"In order to obtain, if possible, a correct theory of rheumatism and all the aches and pains which accompany it, certain authorities in Washington have taken steps to obtain the views of the physicians of America upon this subject. These views are of a varied nature, but so overwhelming a proportion hold to one belief as to leave but little doubt that it is a correct one. This belief, briefly stated, is that the kidneys are the cause of rheumatism, and that it is only by removing this poisonous acid that rheumatism or neuralgia in all their terrible forms can be cured. This being true, the important question arises: How does the uric acid get into the blood, and how can it best be removed?"

Uric acid finds its way into the blood because the kidneys are weakened and can not filter it from the system. Restore the kidneys, and you will restore the power that will force the uric acid from the body, and thus banish the rheumatic agonies which so harass thousands of people."

This is reason; it is science; it is true. No one whose kidneys are in a perfect condition was ever troubled with rheumatism, and no rheumatic sufferer, however slight the pain may be, has perfect kidneys. The conclusion of the truth is inevitable. Perfect kidneys mean freedom from rheumatism.

"There never was, and probably never will be, but one remedy that can, in every case, drive uric acid from the blood. That remedy is Warner's Safe Cure. It cures rheumatism by eliminating the deadly uric acid. It banishes pain by removing the cause. It acts directly upon the kidneys. Within an hour from the time it is taken, its influence will be felt. It sustains the organs that sustain life, the forces that make the blood. For ladies during the kidney troubles through which they are compelled to pass it is invaluable. For the nervous troubles of youth and the debility that precedes old age it has no rival. There are thousands of men and women who, by reason of its great power, and it is the most potent remedy the world has ever known."
