THE BUSINESS WORLD

PRODUCE PRICES STEADY UNDER A FAIR DEMAND.

The Wheat Trade-Reports by Telegraph-General Produce and Financial Advices.

A stendy demand for produce keeps stocks of most descriptions down, and good prices, as as a rule, are the result. Vegetables of all kinds except potatoes, clean up promptly. Eggs are scriving more freely. Positry receipts were large yesterday, and chickens and lower. Tur-keys are not wanted. A rood deal of dressed keys are not wanted. A good deal of dressed veal and logs is coming into market. Fruit is in light supply. Gruceries and provisions are only fairly active at steady quotations.

Bank Statements. Pollowing were the bank clearances of the leading cities of the Northwest yesterday: and Exchanges Balances $256,419 $41,011 to $60,016 16,772 to $91,755 14,185

THE GRAIN MARKETS. Prices Paid for Wheat at Home and Abroad. There is no change to report in the local wheat market. Business is quiet and prices as for-merly quoted. A large number of ships in port are receiving good dispatch. Only one ship in the harbor is disengaged. The local tonnage report is no follower: Engaged, 29,822 tons; disengaged, 1534 tons; to arrive 67,151 tons; total, 48,317 tons; total same time last year, 57,233 tons; same date 1895, 60,588 tons; same date 1892, 77,153 tons. Local export wheat quotations given yesterday were: Valley, 77½c per cental; Walla Walla, 67½670c per cental.

WOMEN LEGISLATORS. The Three Members of Colorado's Assembly Get in Their Work.

DENVER, Jan. 8.-The members of the ower house of the Colorado general asembly, who have been congratulating hemselves on the smoothness with which things were working, so far as the three women legislators were concerned, were surprised yesterday. The selection of clerks for the several committees was prearranged in caucus, but somehow the women secured positions for their con-stituents, while some influential members were left with their candidates lamenting. The candidates made a fuss, and the mem-bers laid the blame upon Mrs. Cressingham, secretary of the caucus. She heard of this yesterday and waxed indignant.

"If you men do not know how to transact business, you had better learn now. As secretary of the caucus, I shall not be covertly insulted by having the members go about saying that I have not reported motions rightly. You make motions, amend them, quarrel over them, add substitutes, and when the final vote comes you don't know what you are doing. If, then, you have prevented the selection candidates as clerks, don't you dare lay the blame on me; I won't stand

A TALK WITH INGALLS. He Is Not a Candidate for the Senate But Would Accept.

SEDALIA, Mo., Jan. 9.-Ex-Senator fobn J. Ingalls, who is here, authorizes he publication of the following statement: "I am not a candidate for the Kansas natorship. I will not raise my hand to sccure it, but what is to be will be, and no man will throw away a United States senatorship. No, I don't believe that the oresent congress will pass a currency bill, and for this reason President Cleve-and will have to call an extra session of congress. Cleveland can only hope for relief at the hands of the republicans. As to the contest for the republican pres-idential nomination in 1896, it will be a three-cornered fight between Reed, Mc-Kinley and Harrison, and some such man as Bob Lincoln will walk off with the nomination.

COULD NOT EARN FEES. Women Not Allowed to Sit as Jarors in Colorado.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 8.-Judge Allen, of the district court, yesterday, excused Mrs. Clara B. Craig and Mrs. W. Millard Bell from serving as jurors. They had been drawn in the regular way and had consented to serve, but when they arrived missed so easily, and wanted to know why they should not earn jurors' fees as well as the professional male jurors. Judge Judge Allen said that no provision had been made for the accommodation of women as jurors, and he doubted if the law per-mitted it, anyway. He painted the terrors of an all-night sitting, and showed them the inconvenience of being locked up in a room with a lot of horrid men. They went away dissatisfied.

Gold on His Timber Claim was in the city today, the land in the vicinity of the Sammamish river is lined ith gold. The resident in question owns 60 acres of timber land on the river, about 16 miles from Seattle, says the Press Times, to which he was issued a patent in 1882. A few days ago he paid a visit to his property and was much surprised to find five miners at work, who were us ere washing out from $4 to $5 worth of rold each a day. When he disclosed his dentity as owner of the ground on which they had discovered their gold mine, the niners offered to divide the result of their labor with him, a proposition which he declined to accept, and at once came to Seattle to find out what his legal rights were. With the introduction of hydraulimachinery there is little doubt that the producion can be doubled or trebled, and the long-expected mining boom in this state may be fairly started. Under the law the owner of the land has a right to eject the miners.

FROM THE ROOF TOP

DEADLY ENCOUNTER IN A TOWN IN ARIZONA.

A Drunken Manine, After Wounding An Innocent Man, Is Shot Down by Militiamen.

PHOENIX, Aria. Jan. 9.-Harry Atkinson, clerk of the Gregory house at Tempe, was shot this morning by W. C. Bas-com, a miller, at the Pima Indian reservation. The encounter was upon a roof top, near the Gregory house, where Bascom, who was crared with liquor, had established himself with a Winchester rifle. Atkinson and several others were endeavoring to endeavoring to seeme the maniac, when he shot, the bullet striking Atkinson above the temple, ranging forward and destroying both eyes. Atkinson, who is but 20 years old, may die. Bascom, after the shooting, jumped off the roof and took refuge in a small stable, entremeling himself belief hay bules and trenching himself behind hay bales and bidding defiance to the officers. In the emergency, the militia was called upon. About 20 militiamen opened fire on the structure with rifles. After they had perforated the building with 100 shots or more, Bascom suddenly appeared at the door with a leveled rifle. A half dozen guardsmen at once fired, aiming low, and Bascom fell with a smashed leg. He was removed to his room at the hotel and died this evening at 8 o'clock from loss of blood. Delirium left him just before death and he gave clear directions as to the disposition of his estate. He was well connected in Kentucky and has long been a valued government employe.

STILL A MYSTERY. The Alleged Lynchers of Barrett

Scott Bound Over.

O'NEHLL, Neb., Jan. 2.— Hinkerman, Roy and Mullihan, the nileged lynchars of Barrett Scott, waived preliminary examination and were bound over in $12,000 bonds to appear in district court next menth. month. A large number of letters were received from detectives, who want to be employed to ferret out the mystery, one man going so far as to say he would re-cever the body of Scott for $300. It is believed the family wishes to keep the name of the author of this last-mentioned letter from the public, until he is in the clutches of the law, and then he will be made to tell what he knows about the case, as it is supposed it was sent for the purpose of throwing the authorities off the track. Sheriff Hamilton will start out tomorrow to head a party of 20 vol-inteers, residents of the Niobrara valley, who will continue the search for the body. The work will be on the theory that the Ledy was thrown into the Niobrara river, and the party will be supplied with grappling hooks to drag the river. Since the bed of the river is constantly shifting, and is full of quicksand, there is little chance of it being located, if it is really in the

A Modern Jack Shepherd. STOCKTON, Cal., Jan. 3.-Antone Vital, the condemned murderer, who was a short time ago transferred from San Quentin state prison, while under sen-tence of death, to the state insane anylum in this city, escaped from the latter insti-tution some time last night and is still at large. The prisoner was watched with special vigilance in the asylum and was kept in irons ever since his commitment. He was confined in a room on the top story of the building. Handicapped as he was by shackles on his hands, he manwas by scackies on his names, he man-aged to remove the casing from the win-dow, taking out the sash weights, and used them to break out enough of the iron bars to admit of his body passing through. He evidently covered the weights with the bedelothing in his room so as to dead-en the sound. He then took the covids that travel the pulleys and made a rope

South Dakota's Ex-Treasurer Missing PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 9.—The alleged failure of W. H. Taylor, outgoing state treasurer, to turn over the office to his successor yesterday, has started rumors flying of an investigation. Taylor seemingly cannot be located, but his bank at Redfield closed its doors last evening, and he is alleged to be short a large amount of state funds, just how much cannot be now learned. It is reported about $550,000 should be on hand. Public Examiner Melers has not been able to se-Examiner Melers has not been able to secure a statement of where the funds grams sent from here appear to have failed to locate Taylor. The Men Were Not Searched. SACRAMENTO, Jan. 2 .- The Bee has a startling theory in connection with the Webber murder. It says Webber and his wife were murdered December 29. The nurderers left their bloody clothing in the back yard, donning suits from Webber's wardrobe, taking the train for San Franeisco early next morning. New Year's eve 10 drunks were placed in one cell, and Later a trusty lischarged next day. Van Arsdal Sent to Jail. HARRODSBURG, Ky., Jan. 9. — Ex-Sheriff Van Arsdal, who murdered Dr. Harrod last Friday, was brought into court yesterday for preliminary hearing. When Mr. Bronston, for the prosecution, argued that the prisoner should be sent to jall, he was loudly applauded. When Van Arsdal was remanded to jall, the ap plause was greater than before. At the iail he asked that he be put upstairs, a slace where there are no cells. The re-quest was refused. A crowd followed the prisoner to jail, and, when it became known that he had been locked in a murderer's cell, there was more cheering

A Band of Burglars.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—By the discovery of a "fence" in La Grande, a suburb of Chicago, and the arrest of two men, Peter N. Kelden and Rudolph Redberg, the olice think they have unearthed an or-anized band of burglars, which has ranches in all the principal cities of the West. Since his arrest, Kelden, in a con fession, intimated that such an organization exists. From the statement, the police think the headquarters of the gang are in San Francisco, and arrests are likely to follow

A Large Sum Stolen

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 9.—The safe in the derchants National bank at Defiance, Merchants National bank at Defiance D., was blown open with dynamite Mor lay night and about $5,000 stolen. The officials were unable to open the vault Tuesday morning, but, as there were no signs of any one having been in the bank the night before, they thought nothing of it. An expert was sent for, and when he opened the outer door today it was discovered that the interior of the safe had been blown up. The loss will not affect the standing of the bank. Clerk Carter Sentenced.

DIGNITY OF NAPOLEON. Naturally Unostentations, His Position Demanded Display.

Napoleon once said that a throne was Napoleon once said that a throne was but a pile of lumber covered with gor-geous trappings. He meant, no doubt, that a throne required something more than royal vestments to maintain it. While simple himself in taste, he realized to the fullest extent the necessity of gorgeous array when appearing before the French people as their emperor. Napoleon fre-quently established his court at Fontainbleau, whither all the high society of Paris was at Napoleon's feet, intoxicated with enthusiasm, and the public appear-ances were rendered most brilliant by the multitudes which surrounded him, eager to see the man considered by them the greatest in modern times. He frequently showed himself in public accompanied by the empress; but liked far better, accompanied only by Duroc, to walk among his subjects in disguise, endeavoring to learn for himself whether the popular af-fection thus displayed was real. Many incidents assured him that he was much beloved, and amid all groups he heard his name pronounced with gratitude and love even when his presence was unknown. Mme. Junot, in speaking of the events at Fontainbleau, especially those given in celebration of the marriage of the king of Westphalia, says: "No language can celebration of the marriage of the king of Westphalia, says: "No language can convey a clear idea of the magnificence—the magical luxury which now surrounded the emperor." Some years later the most trying scenes in the emperor's life occurred here. It was when the last of the men whom he had raised from obscurity and loaded with wealth and honors here abandoned him, that his spirits for a moment and fellow-soldiers overcame him, and that same night in a fit of despair he decided to take his life; but the poison falled to act and his life was saved. "It is not the loss of my throne," he said, "that makes existence intolerable to me. My military career is enough glory for one man. Do you know what is more difficult to bear than reverses of its more difficult.

The general sentiment in regard to Na poleon and his career is that the mair events were so dramatic in character that words always fell short of expressing the full importance of any one or series of incidents. It is because his career offers such superb opportunities for illustration that painters have so eagerly seized upon them as subjects for their work.

In the Napoleonic album we have just issued and are still distributing among our patrons there are 331 photo-engravings, reproductions from the pictures of the most noted painters in the world. These reproductions are 11 by 13 inches in size, and their equal has never yet been

TELEPHONES IN WAR.

General Greely Dwells on Their Utility in His Annual Report.

All late wars, and especially the one now waging between Japan and China, indicate that electrical connections are indispensable to the success of any army operating on a base apart from the general telegraphic system, says General Greely in his last annual report. Appreciating this fact, the work of the signal corps for the past few years has been given to experimental work in the equipment of its flying telegraph lines, so that it may be ready for any possible emergency, and the system is so arranged that it looks to performing temporary or telephonic.

with its solid blocks of compact buildings extending for many miles, represents un-usual facilities for speedy and undisturbed change of base on the part of bodles of lawless and rictous men engaged in committing depredations and destroying property. The extreme difficulty of overing riotous bodies within the limits of large city was strikingly exemplified in Paris by the commune where for weeks an inferior body of illdisciplined and poorly-equipped men suc-cessfully resisted the most determined efforts of a superior force of regulars. Within the past year the troops of our own army, called upon to assist the civil authorities, found themselves marching niles of distance to repress riotous pro ceedings, while the body of men sought for had accomplished its end and was al-ready moving undisturbed and unobserved to another objective point.
