TESTIMONY AGAINST ANDERSON, ACCUSED OF BULL'S MURDER.

Frank Snyder, Who Worked on Anderson's Farm, Principal Witness at Preliminary Examination.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 12-Lyranh Anderson, accused of the murder of J. A.
A. Bull, of Skamania county, was brought here today by Sheriff Jen Mix, of Skamania. George W. Stapleton, acting prosecuting attorney of Skamania, and Hixon, also came on the same steamer. The preliminary examination of Anderson was held at Cascades yes-terday, and the evidence brought out was of a damaging nature. The most important witnesses were Dr. Hixon, of Vancouver; Dr. Candiani, of Cascades, and Frank Snyder, a laborer who worked in Anderson's farm. The doctors testi-led that the body was found lying in the cellar, with the arms in an imploring attitude; there was a large hole, made with a blunt instrument, in one side of the shull, and another on the side of the face. The doctors were of the opinion that death resulted from violence done previous to the burning of Bull's house. They think that furniture was piled around the body to burn it up.

Snyder testified that on the night of February 7 Anderson came home at 7 P. AL, and then went out again, without say-ing where he was going; that he came back in an hour, and a few minutes afterward went out again, and when he returned be remarked that it was 19 min ertes after 9 o'clock; that Anderson got up earlier than usual the next morning and went to the barn, saying, when he came back from the barn, that he had fed the stock, and Snyder need not go there. Be-fore burning, Bull's house could be seen from the barn, but not from Anderson; house. Snyder said that he went to the barn, however, and saw that Bull's house en burned. Snyder further testified that after Bull's body was found Ander-

EDMISTON'S TRIAL BEGUN.

A Demurrer Argued in the Walla Walla Banker's Case.

NORTH YAKIMA, Feb. 12.—The cases against Banker J. K. Edmiston, of Walla-Walls and Seattle, were called in the su-perior court this afternoon. There are nine counts for receiving money after having full knowledge of the insolvency of his bank. Attorneys Miles, Perndexter and R. H. Ormsbee, of Walla Walla, appeared for the prosecution. The defense argued a demourrer on the ground that the charge were brought under an unconstitutional law, the legislative act exceeding limita-tions of the constitution. Judge Graves took the matter under advisement until iomerrow morning. After empaneling the jury, the court adjourned for the day. The prosecution has 34 witnesses here from Walla Walla, and much interest is being taken in every move, the courtroom being crowded throughout the day. The attor-neys engaged in the trial are of the opinion that it will last a week.

The jury in the case of the State vs. Wm. Camster, who was charged with shooting to Tucker with intent to commit murder, brought in a verdict of guilty. This is the second trial of the case, the jury disagree-ing on the first. Fearnster is from Vir-ginia, and is well connected. His relatives point misch money for his defense.

a Horse.

THE DALLES, Or., Feb. II.—The sec-ond day's session of the circuit court began with the trial of Guy Southwell, charged with shooting a horse belongin to an Indian. The case is still in progress The criminal docket this term is unusual ly light, and very few cases will be tried.

Snow began falling early this morning and has continued the greater part of the day. The snow is not unwelcome, as it has modified the weather, which was threatening the sown wheat and possibly endangering the fruit crop.

The town of Hood River was reincorporated at the last session of the county court, and, when its officers qualify, can begin city life. There was a mistake in the former decree of incorporation, which sed the county court to declare it void, but this having been rectified, the proper erder has been made.

of the new capitol building during the next two years. All the members of the com-mission except Rogers, populist, and Bel-knap, republican, expressed themselves as favorable to the bill. Rogers' opposition to the measure is said to originate through the desire of some of his constituents at Puyaling to put the capitol on wheels and try to remove it to that city. There has been some talk during the session of re-fusing to allow an appropriation for the completion of the building in the hope that the capitol vonid eventually be moved, but the spirit of the committee of today demonstrates that there is no probability of such action. The committee finally arose to meet again in a day or two.

CROSS - EXAMINATION OF ADRY HAYWARD.

The Two Brothers Are Evidently Possessed of a Long-Standing Violent Hatred of Each Other.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 12.-The cross-ex imination of Adry Hayward in the murser trial this morning brought out fearful endition of affairs in the Hayward family in their domestic relations. Adry is evi-dently indignant at the course being pursued by the defense. He answered all questions with a cynic smile and an air of gratification. The brothers are evidentpossessed of a violent hatred for each other of long standing. The scene in court yesterday between the mother and er two sons had evidently had a great effect on Adry and made his night a ess. His eyes were dull and heavy this norning. Erwin began his questioning. Were you not crazy on October 72" he

Well, as to that," replied Adry, with a nile, "I'm not in a position to answer The court ruled the question out. With regard to the charge that he had em-cezzled money from his father, Adry adnitted that he had been charged with do ng so by both Harry and his father, but oney had been stolen from his flat by Harry for the purpose of fomenting tro ble. Adry claimed the books were straight and that Harry had the missing money. Mrs. Hayward became incensed at her eldest son and he turned to her with the 'Mother, if you think I'm dishonest, why did you raise such a litter of pups?" Then came threats from Harry that if Adry did not go out at once he would knife him. Later, Harry had told the witness that his father was carrying a recolver and would shoot him on sight.

"That was all that ever made trouble setween father and myself," said Adry "Don't shake your head, mother," he dded, looking straight at Mrs. Hayward who sat beside Harry. "It's all true anyou know it. I'm telling the truth." "Tell it, tell it all," cried the mother "leave out nothing."

Mr. Erwin asked a number of questions which were ruled out by the court. Among these were: "Did you tell your father and mother

"Did you tell them that folks were peer-ing into your windows constantly and the next one who did it would get the contents of a revolver?" "Did you tell your father that you met man on your fishing trip who told you

One impeaching question was allowed. It was: "Now, you told us yesterday that when you were in jail Harry said "They're pressing Blixt rather close?" "

"I did not." "Now, why did you go to Stewart with "I thought he was a friend. Father would not listen to me. Harry said he could send me to Stillwater. He and father had the money and they could send me to Stillwater any time they wanted to. I told Harry that I could send him.

"He was not an enemy; he was a friend. I had known him for Z years." "Did you wear the same shoes the night of the murder that you have on now?" "Yes, I think I did. I have two pair of tan-colored shoes downstairs that were more pointed than these."

Adry held the shoes up and stretched his foot for the jury to look at them. Erwin asked Adry if he had a friend amed Frank who knew Blizt; if he had ot gone with Blixt to a place beyond ake Calhoun and settled the place where Miss Ging was to be murdered and whether he had not said to Blixt, "Frank will protect you if there is trouble."

Adry denied ever knowing Blixt to any uch extent and said he had not walked about on the street with him. These uestions on the part of the defense in icated a possible purpose of setting up that it was Adry and not Harry who con-spired to commit the murder with Blixt, and that the much-talked-of pointed shoe tracks at the scene of the murder were made by Adry. Adry declared that he had received no promise of protection from the state and that he had told his story upon the advice of Elder Stewart who was his friend. He had elected to stay in jall since the arrest of Harry unon Stewart's advice, and to save him but could come and go any time if he wanted to. He had no feeling against Harry, but what he was daily overcom-ing. He pitied him and would do any-thing to help him out. This last answer

John Patton and F. E. Dodge, the inbrance agents, told conversations they had with Harry about the insurance of a lady's life and how such policies could be assigned to him as security for a loan. The state has presented all its strong testimony, and expects to be completely through by noon tomerrow. In the afternoon the defense will present its side, and then, for the first time, the public will know just what lines of defense have

During the afternoon several life insur ance agents testified to conversations which Harry Hayward had with them in regard to the issuance of policies. When Gilbert told how he had met Harry in a jewelry store and asked him why he did not let him write him a policy spoken of some time before. Harry had told him that he did not want any insurance, and then told him he was about to have a policy assigned to him. Following up the talk, Harry asked him if companies paid in case of murder. He wanted to know if a company would pay if the person was burned in a building and the remains were so charrod that they could not be recognized. The agent informed him that, as a rule, companies would require iden-tification, although there had been cases of hotel fires where the companies had paid when the persons were known to have been in the building. This closed the ter timony for the day, which was practically all the testimony for the state, and paints the history of one of the blackest crimes in history.

M'DONALD'S TRIAL.

Testimony Introduced to Show That He Is Insane.

, SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21—In the trial of R. H. McDonald, jr., for perjury, this morning, Mrs. McDonald, for the defense, recounted many instances of her husband's eccentricities. He fancied that the celling was about to fall upon him, but that he would be saved from death if his wife had his head. He only slept when she thus nursed him. When she urged him to go abroad, after the bank suspended, he had refused to leave town, stating that he had committed no crime. Mrs. N. S. Rickard, a sister of the defendant, told of Dick's over-education, and of the development of his brain at the expense of his body. At a German university he had quarreled and requested as sity he had quarreled and requested a friend to light a duel for him.

At this stage McDonald directly demanded that the witness be withdrawn. He had requested his sister not to make him ridiculous. He would prefer any punishment at the hands of the jury in preference to suffering by the impugning of his manhood. His counsel refused to withdraw the witness, who testified that after Dick's trouble with Clara Belle, he said: 'You don't know what it is to be ridiculed and deceived by the only woman you love. I have now nothing to live

FOUND AFTER HIS DEATH. Heavy Shortage in the Accounts of

Late Treasurer Ramsay. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Carlisle, Ill., says: When Rufus Ramsay, who died suddenly three months ago, supposedly of heart dis-ease, went into the state treasury two years ago, he was thought to be the richest man in Southern Hilnois. Within a reek over $500,600 claims against his es tate have been flied, but the most startling news is that concerning the five Chicago bankers who were his surety as state reasurer. When Henry Wueff succeeded the dead man he found a shortage of $356,529 52, which he communicated to his bondsmen, who made it good, but they have so far suppressed it in the hope of reimbursement out of the estate of the dead man. Now F. M. Blount and Carl Moll, cashiers of two Chicago banks, have filed in the county court of claims the full amount of the shortage. When the bondsmen filed their claim in the county court for $383,539, the amount was so supendous that Judge Jones re-fused to allow it until further proof of its correctness was filed. This was done February 5, when an itemized statement nounts abstracted by of the amounts abstracted by Ramsey from the state treasury was put into the hands of the court. It showed that Ramsey had begun tampering with the state funds seven days after taking office, Jan

the claim of the bondsmen on the bond was filed in the county court. It is very mple in language, and is as follows: 'Estate of Rufus N. Ramsey to John H. Wilbeck et al., Dr. to cash to be paid by them as bondsmen for Rufus H. Ram to make good his deficit as such state treasurer, $363,539 52." This sum will have to be paid before any of the other sums can be satisfied. It is what is known as the sixth-class trust funds, while depositors' claims are in the seventh class. Together with the claim was a paper connecting Ramsay with Henry Seiter, the Lebanon, Ill., banker, who failed so disastrously just after Hamsay's death. This paper shows that the banking firm of Henry Selter & Co. owed Ramsay personally the sum of $243,778. There were also due bills from the Napa Land Company, amounting to $460. In addition to the claim of $363,539, nade by the bondsmen, claims of mer chants and farmers of Carlisle and Leb anon counties have been filed in the county court, the entire indebtedness of the same amounting to $468,278, while the estate is probably not worth over $200,000, including the assets of Seiter, which can be held.

A letter received here from Honolulu There is the most intense feeling among the best element that some capi tal sentences should be imposed and cur-ried out. The feeling does not seem to be that of revenge, but is the cool judgment of those who went to the front that some examples are necessary to prevent a re-currence in the future of similar attempts. The loyal natives are most strongly of this opinion It is easy for a person who is not on the ground and in the fight to advocate elemency. It is difficult to give you an adequate idea of the intensity of the feeling existing here, especially among the wives and mothers."

THE CABLE TO HAWAII. Senate Conference to Fight for an Appropriation in Conference. WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-Managers or the part of the senate in conference on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill propose to make a stubborn fight for an amendment providing for the beginning of the work of constructing the cable nect this country with the Hawallar ands. It is believed the house tagonize this amendment.

Intentions of Private Promoters. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—Hugh Traig says of the intentions of those who are concerned in the Pacific International Cattle Company:

"The purpose of the house bill is to permit incorporation and organization under the laws of the United States, the government of which shall construct the cable between San Francisco and the Hawaiian islands, a measure of national policy and defense. The international Pa-cific Cable Company will endeavor to get concessions from Japan, Russia, China, France, Australia and New Zealand. All of these countries are concerned in hav-ing constructed a trans-Pacific cable, and will be to their interest to center on tral American republics. Dispatches from and to the Central American states would proceed by the South American cable. The general understanding is that when the time arrives a meeting will be arranged between the Eastern and Western stock-American interests in these have made the necessity for a trans-l'a-cific cable from Asia to Honolulu appar-ent. Indeed, the idea which underlies all is that wherever there is a United States fleet an American admiral shall be able to telegraph to the secretary of the navy over a line controlled by American citi-gens."

A Ship Captain's Views.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 12.-Captain Swain, of the back Ophir, lost at Fiji. was a passenger on the Warrimoo and does not believe that Muller, Cranston and Johnston have been as harshly treated as they claim. He says that had the consuls kept to their protest at the wharf the men would have been put ashore, but that after a conference with the attorthat, after a conference with the attor ney-general of Hawali, the consul seemed willing to let the men be deported. He says there is little doubt that if the nen had been kept at Honolulu and been tried they would have been found guilty. He believes the official reports from the consuls will put a different complexion n the matter, but adds that he thinks they should have been given a trial beore being deported.

Unusual British Sentiment. LONDON, Feb. 12.-The Pall Mail Ga ette, in an editorial on the Hawalian juestion, says: "There seems to be no nope for Hawall save in a protectorate. America is a good friend and coursh of purs, and if some one must have the islands we know of no power with a bet-ter right to it."

DEBS JURY DISCHARGED Juror Coe's Illness the Cause of a Mistrial.

CHICAGO, Feb. II.—Judge Grosscup has postponed the Debs trial until the first Monday in May. He discharged the jury today on account of the serious ill-ness of Jurer Coe. A dramatic scene followed the decision of Judge Grosscup discharging the jury. The jurymen left their seats, and, while some stopped to shake Judge Grosscup's hand, the ma-jority of them hurried to where the prisners were seated and surrounded Debs They slapped him on the back, shook hands with him, and again and again expressed profound admiration for his bear ng during the trial, Juror Baird said to

"Debs, when this trial opened, I was in The s, when this trial opened, a way of favor of giving you a five-year sentence, but now I am anxious to see you free."
Similar expressions were heard from the other jurgors, and it was evident that the case would have resulted in an acquittal had it not ended in a mistrial. The attempts for the defense were crestfallen attorneys for the defense were crestfallen at the sudden ending of the case. All ex-pressed the opinion that victory was in sight for the defindants when Juror Coe's illness stopped the proceedings. The de-fendants were equally sorry that the trial could not proceed. Debs expressed him-self as confident that he and his associates would have been acquitted. The con inuance of the case leaves the American Railway Union directors free temporarily, but under two ball bonds each.

THE MINE WORKERS. Formal Charges Made Against Ex-

President John McBride. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 12.—The United Mine Workers' convention was called to order this morning by President Penna. The committee on credentials reported no contests, President Penns then announced the committees. The reports of commit-tees occupied the afternoon session.

Formal charges were preferred against ex-President John McBride by the chairman. J. A. Crawford, of Illinois, objected to generalities, and Mr. Adams said he would be specific. He said:

"I have been asked to make my charges more specific: I will accommodate you. I charge no one with corruption, except the men who signed the compromise agree-ment last June. You all know who they were. I want to say that this is not a fight between Adams and the national of floers. It is a fight between organized is por and certain officers, as you will find out before this investigation ends. I am prepared to submit proof in support of my charges, and I am also prepared to inform you where more evider nd, which I have been unable to cure for lack of time and money to pay my expenses. I will expect this convention to appoint a committee to secure that evi-

WILL BE CALLED OFF. The Brooklyn Strikers Anxious to Be Taken Back.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 12.—As a result of a conference held this afternoon between President Lewis and the board of diectors of the Brooklyn City railroad and ex-Assemblyman Jehn Graham and Po-lice Justice Tighe, the trolley strike in Brooklyn, which was begun January 11 last, will be called off tomorrow. There were several conferences during the day one of which was held in the Germania building, in Lawyer Town's office, at which Master Workman Connolly and Andrew B. Best, member of the execu-tive board of district assembly 75, together with Judge Tighe and reveral of the directors of the Brooklyn Heights railroad, were present. The conference held later in the day lasted several hours, and, after adjournment, Mr. Graham an nounced he expected everything would be settled tomorrow. The men ask for noth-ing more than that they be given a chance to go buck to work and they waive all of the demands they made when they went on strike. They ask, however, that when a non-union man leaves the company his car be given to the oldest man in the con

> THE HILL MOVED. Disastrous Blasting in the Vicinity of San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12 .- A big blast, thich was fired this morning at Claren Heights, a few miles southwest of this city, wrecked a house and barn, killed a horse, drove away a camp of graders and their families, and covered the surrounding ountry with a layer of rocks and dirt. It also removed 40,000 cubic yards of earth, F. W. Ferris, a contractor, has a contract to grade a large tract of land at Clarenon Heights, and the big blast was put in in order to move a hill into a gully make smooth the uneven places. Ten of black powder was used in the blast. Due notice was given all people in the icinity that the mine would be fired at 10 o'clock, and hearly everybody got out of the immediate vicinity, to which fortunate circumstance can be attributed the lack of fatalities. For some reason, prob was expected, but sent stone and earth in all directions. The house of Engineer ing in front of Henderson's house was killed and frightfully mangled. A Young Girl Crushed to Death Under Tons of Sand. BUENA VISTA, Ga., Feb. 12.-Miss Jane

Taylor, daughter of James Taylor, who resides at the McMichael plantation in county, met a terrible death yes-Miss Taylor, with two small children, were in a deep gully near their home getting white sand to sprinkle on the floor. The vein of white sand was in the side of a gully, and so much of it had been removed that the earth above had been loosened. A rumbling sound was heard, and the children cried out to Misa Taylor to warn her, but it was too late. Forty or 50 tons of loose earth fell with a crash, burying her alive. Mr. Taylor and others extricated the lifeless form of his daughter. Her neck was broken and her limbs were bodly crushed by the weight of the avalanche of earth.
