Going to Conna.-Dr. J. Hunter Wells has been elected by the Presbyterian board of foreign mission of New York to the position of medical missionary; and has been assigned to Corea. The work of a medical missionary, according to the facts compiled by Dr. W. J. Wanless, is, first, for the benefit of the families of missionaries, as many a death har occurred in their ranks through want of proper medical attention; second, for the establishment of dispensaries and hospitals, and the alleviation of suffering which is prevalent in some foreign coun-tries; third, the medical man and especial-ly the surgeon, is better qualified and more successful than any other advance guard of civilization in breaking down prejudices and opening the way for ma-terial, moral and religious advancement, the spreading of the gospel and the elevation of humanity. Cores is today, and especially to the people of this coast, the most interesting country opened up by the present war in the Orient. In the near of the Morning Calm will take a place among the nations of the earth. The Co-administer to them, but the "smell of the drugs and medicines Dr. Wells will administer to them, but the "smell of Asia," as Kipling calls it—the taste of the pabulum they will furnish hlm—will make matters even.

BUSINESS MEN FOR SALER.-Tomorrow morning a large number of the business men of Portland will leave for Salem on a special train for the purpose of visiting the legislature and urging the passage of a bill for the construction of a portage road around the obstructions in the Columbia river. The delegation will consist of members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Portland bureau of transporta-There are two bills now before the legislature, house bill 268, introduced by epresentative Boothby, of Morrow coun-r, and senate bill 68, introduced by Senator Smith, of Sherman county. Both are good measures, and the object of the visit to Salem is to get one of them passed, else select the best points from each and acceparate them into one bill. President serve on the committee representing that body at the capitol: Isador Lang, E. W. Allen, Edward Palling, James F. Bard, C. P. Beche, H. Bradley, A. H. Breyman, W. J. Burns, J. C. Carson, D. Solis Cohen, H. W. Corbett, A. B. Crossman, Van B. DeLashmutt, D. M. Dunne, J. Couch Flan-ders, John Gill, E. H. Habigherst, J. E. Haseltine, L. L. Hawkins, Charles Hegele, R. W. Hoyt, R. D. Inman, W. M. Killingsworth, Maurice Liebmann, W. C. Killingsworth, Maurice Liebmann, W. C. Noon, J. F. O'Shea, H. Wittenberg, W. S. Sibson and M. Zan. The train will leave the central station at 9:15 tomorrow morning, and return the same evening.

TONY FONTAINA'S CUSTOMER.—When Donata Morencha tried to fill Tony Fon-tains full of lead in the latter's boot-black stand on Third street last Wednesday evening, the intended victim of the as-sassin was busily engaged in polishing the shoes of a customer. Somehow or other that customer managed to get out of the shop before the crowd gathered, and as note saw him who could identify him he managed to escape detection, and has never seen fit to disclose his name and address to the police. Undoubtedly he was very badly scared, for it must have looked to him as if Morencha was shooting directly at him. Rumor now has it that Tony's customer at that time was ex-Deputy Sheriff Morgan, who was seen soon after the shooting with one boot nicely polished, and the other very much Of course, Mr. Morgan would not admit that he would run, and so the mat-ter is still in doubt.

WHEN THE RIVER WAS PROVED OFFI inquirer writes to The Oregonian to upon what date the Willamette river was last frozen over at Portland. The weather bureau records say that it 10, 1888, when ice formed of sufficient thickness to permit pedestrians crossing on foot. The cold snap com-menced on January 2, of that year, and continued until January 2t. During that time the minimum temperature was constantly below the freezing point, and the lowest point reached was I deg, below zero on January 15, which is marked as the coldest day on the weather bureau rec-ords, which have been kept up for nearly 14 years. During this notable cold snap, the maximum temperature was below the freezing point for 10 days. The Willam-ette remained frozen over from January 15 to 24, when warm rains set in, and the ice was broken.

MORE RESLET FOR NESSAN-The committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday shipped two carloads of flour, clothing, etc., to the relief committee at Lincoln, Neb., for distribution among the needy settlers in that state. This is the last shipment which will be carried free by the rultrad companies. So far is carloads have been shipped from this state for this purpose; the bulk of the ship-ments being wheat and flour, with two carloads of potatoes. Six cars have been shipped from this city, and 10 from other points. The whole may be considered as points. The whole may be considered as a sort of thank-offering for the abundant harvests in this state, and will be very neceptable to the residents of the famine stricken districts of Nebraska.

A PROTEST TO CONGRESS.-The members of the Chamber of Commerce appointed as a committee to prepare a proper protest against any reduction of the number of offices attached to the coast and geodetic survey met yesterday. A strong protest was wired to the state delegation in congress, asking them to present the same to the proper parties and insist that no reduction in the ranks of the officers be made. There is a good deal of work to be lune in the East, and should a reduction of the present force be made the Pacific coast would suffer, as likely the coast aurvey officers would be withdrawn from here to take charge of work now in prog-

ORDER AT THE AUDITOR'S OFFICE.-The city auditor's office is beginning to as-sume an appearance of order and near-ness. as the large number of boxes of documents moved in from the old quarters have been stowed away. All the old recrds of council proceedings, files of claim and miscellaneous papers not likely to be called for, have been packed away in a storage vault. Papers relating to streets and sewers, and others liable to be called for at any time, dating from the inco-poration of the city down to the presen been arranged systematically and ed in the file case in the main vault. ach case is plainly numbered, and every oper bears the number of the case in hich it belongs, so that it is possible to find at a moment's notice any document wanted for about 40 years back. A filed Index is being made up, which will show, under appropriate heads, the nature of every paper filed, and the number of the case it is in. These files fill about two-thirds of the main vault in the auditor's office. When it is full, the oldest files will be packed away in the storage vault. is not often that papers more than 10 years old are asked for. As the city grows larger, the volume of such papers will, of course, increase. The papers accumulate between 1899 and the end of 1891 occupy as much space as those of all the 40 pre-vious years. Riding a bleycle is very fine sport or ex-ercise for those who like it, but it must not be indulged in too extensively until the muscles of one's legs become like iron or there may be unpleasant consequences. One ambitious youth, who had only ridden future, the Hermit nation, like its near neighbor. Japan, will show wonderful advancement in every respect, and the land take a spin 20 miles out in the country and back, and he accepted. He kept up the traversation going out, but, when with the procession going out, but, when they started for home, his legs "kicked," in the slang meaning of the word, and his muscles contracted till his knees were drawn up under his chin and he fell off his wheel upon his back in the road. His friends did no notice his misnap, but rode gaily on, and there he lay as if trussed for roasting. After some desperate efforts, he succeeded in straightening out his legs, and, mounting his wheel, pedaled away at the top of his speed until he overtook his friends, when, all at once, his legs went queer again, and he tumbled to the ground once more. His friends pulled him straight, nearly killing him, and then rubbed him till he was limber, and lifted him on his wheel and he managed to roll it into town. He will try shorter flights for a while before going on any more 60-

BOYS' AND GUILS' AND SOCIETY MATTERS The January meeting of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society took place in the par-lors of the Ainsworth National bank, yeserday, with Colonel L. L. Hawkins in the chair. The monthly reports of the secre-tary, superintendent of the home and advisory committee were received and placed on file, and Dr. B. E. Miller was appointer physician at the home. The su-perintendent's report showed that 48 chitdren were handled at the home during the month of January, and 25 remained on hand February 1. Of the 21 wards received at the home during the month, 3 were by voluntary relinquishment, 4 were rescued from had relatives, 4 by legal commit-ment, 5 were returned or recalled, and 2 came voluntarily. Of the 17 disposed of, Il were by "condition B, or indenture," and the remainder were returned to their

Swiss Aip Society -A meeting of the local Swiss colony, held last Sunday in Nussler's Palmen Garten, was attended by about 60 persons. Aug. Gschwend was chosen chairman of the meeting, and J. Jacob Krebs secretary. The purpose for which the meeting was called was to find ways and means to better care for the sick and needy country people. It was unanimously resolved to organize a "Swiss Atd Society." The following board of directors was elected for the ensuing year: Chairman, Konsul C. Bircher; secre tary, C. U. Gantenbein: treasurer, F. Teuscher; trustees, Th. Spillmann and Aug. Gachwend. There is already the

Now negotiations are in progress to secure quarters in the same building for County Treasurer Lambert. The offices occupied by the treasurer are cramped and inadequate for the transaction of business. In fact, the courthouse with all the changes and additions made is somewhat overcrowded in every depart sent. There is room galore in the City Hall, and probably there will be no trouble in securing quarters there for Mr. trouble in securing quarters there for Mr. Lambert, if the county court so desires.

KELLY GOES TO THE PEN. Bunco Kelly has begun the last act in the drama, uness the supreme court grants him a new trial and gives him a chance either to ham or gain his freedom. He was taken to the penitentiary last night by Sheriff Sears. Kelly bade Jailer Chamberlain on affectionate adleu, and also said a few parting words to his fellow-prisoners. He was handcuffed to Charles Butler, who goes up for a year for stealing raising from the O. R. & N. Co.'s steamship wharf. SECRETARY MOTTER'S STENOGRAPHER. -- At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, it was provided that the se retary, Mr. Frank Motter, should be furnished with the services of a stenographer, and that the committee-room should properly furnished. Yesterday Min Martha Bietck, of Albina, was employed as stenographer, and the necessary furniture for the room will be secured today. STOPPED BY THE WIND.-Work on the repairs to reservoir No. 2 has been suspended for the past two or three days, on account of the wind, which blew so hard that it extinguished the fires under the asphalt kettles. It will take only four days more to complete the repairs. When an easterly wind is blowing, the section about the base of Mount Tabor receives the full benefit of it.

TRINITY CHURCH SOCIABLE.—The last social gathering of Trinity parish before Lent will be held tomorrow, Thursday, evening, in the parish house, on Fifth street, in the rear of the church. A full attendance of the members of the parish and their friends is expected. No admis-sion fee or collection. Some music anlight refreshments by the way, but so-

EAST SIDE AFFAIRS. Bridges and Ferry-Arranging for a

Big Evangelistic Meeting. The news of the passage by the house of the bill for free transportation in the center, contained in yesterday's Orego-nian, was read with much pleasure on hian, was read with much pleasure on the Flant Side, especially in the central district. Mr. Joseph Paquet, who has just returned from Salem, expressed his belief that the bill will pass the senate in its present form. The bill to submit the mat-ter of nominal tolls on the bridges and ferries for vehicles to the invavors is ferries for vehicles to the taxpayers is conseded to be fair. The tells are placed so low as to remove all reasonable ob-jection. Mr. D. R. Baird, who originated the scheme to operate the Stark-street ferry free by a subsidy for a short time, stated yesterday he thought the proposition a reasonable one, and will satisfy the center on the East Side. "It will set tie the question in a way that can can no complaint from any source," he sa 'as it leaves the question with those who pay the bills for all free transportation. What we have been contending for is the same privilege in the center as is enjoye by the outside sections. If the taxpayer say there shall be a nominal toll on whicles, I shall be satisfied, as it will be a fair for the center as for the outside ditricts." The numerous interviews which have been published of opinions of East not hold more than 10 years' papers, and | tricts." Side taxpayers during the agitation of th free transportation question might indi-cate there would be a large vote in favor of opposing the nominal tolls.

Evangelistic Meeting. Dr. Denison, of the Centenary Methodis church, stated yesterday that the pros-pects for the evangelistic meetings, under the direction of Rev. James Summerfield Bitler, are most excellent. Already 12 Methodist churches of the city, mostly on the East Side, have joined the union for the purpose of maintaining the meetings. A letter from Rev. Bitler, dated at Cleveland, O., has just been received by Dr. Denison, in which he states he has been in the midst of a revival in the famous Epworth church, which closed of the 10th of February. He will spend days at his home in rest and then star for Oregon, erriving Friday, March I, and will be prepared to open services Sunday following. He asks that a full set of working committees should be appointed and that the work shall take a wide scope. For two weeks the services wil be held at Centenary church, when the meetings will be transferred to the other churches. On the West Side, Grace, Clarke and St. Paul churches will take part in the meetings. The headquarters of the union will be at Centenary church From now on the churches who have joined the union will organize a choir and committees will be appo Status of the Scalskin Case. The dismissal of the contempt proceedings by which Mrs. Arrie E. Silver was arrested in Justice Bullock's court, leaves the civil action in the justice court is it stood before the warrant was issued for her arrest. There is a judgment standing over her for $140 on the sealskin sack involved, in favor of Rummelin & Son. No further action, however, has been taken yet, and Justice Bullock stated yesterday he did not know whether any-thing more would be done in the case. He said he had done all in his power to secur full justice to all the parties concerne in the transaction, and had been entirel divested of prejudice on one side or the other. The error, he said, in the papers of the conte the kind he ever had in his court, and even the lawyers whom he consulted did not know exactly how the papers should

A MILD BUILDING BOOM Looks Like Numerous Structures Will Be Put Up This Senson.

Contractors and builders are taking a topeful view of the outlook for their busi ness the coming season. A number of them are now preparing to submit bids for the erection of a light station at the mouth of the Coquille, bids for which will be received by Major Post, United States engineers, on the 20th of February. The lighthouse is to be of stone, as there is plenty of stone in that vicinity. It will be of one story, with a tower in front for the light, which will be ## feet above the ground. The building will include keeper's dwelling, etc., and the lighthouse will be one of the handsomest, architecturally, on

BISHOP GOODSELL'S VISIT An Informal Reception Held in His Honor Last Night.

Grace Methodist Episcopal church was filled last evening by a representative gathering of the Methodists of Portland and vicinity, who came to greet and honor the resident bishop of thei chast, Rev. Daniel Goodsell, D. D., L. L. D., of San Francisco, who is making a tour in the interest of this section, over which he has immediate supervision. Rev. G. W. Gue, D. D., presiding elder of the Portland conference, acted as chairman. The services opened with a hymn, after which Hev, John Denison, D. D., pastor of Cen-tenary church, led in prayer. Mr. Insiey, of the First Methodist church, favored the audience with a song, when Dr. Gue in his usual felicitous manner, introduced those present to Bishop Goodsell. At the request of the bishop, the special addresses expected from him and from others were omitted, an informal recep-tion being held instead. The ladies of the church had prepared refreshments, which were served to those present. A delight-ful evening was spent. Bishop Goodsell has been spending a few days in Salem in the interests of the church in that city, and yesterday visited the Portland univer sity, where he delivered one of his most entertaining addresses to the students. Pressing engagements compel the bishop to return at once to San Francisco, and he will probably leave Portland for ho
