THE MORNING OREGONIAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1893.

LITTLE OF INTEREST

MUCH BUSINESS, HOWEVER, DONE AT OLYMPIA.

Feature of the Day Was the Postponement of the Bill to Stop Work on the Canitol.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 25 .- This has been as uninteresting day in both branches of the legislature, although considerable busi-ress was disposed of by the senate. The feature of the house proceedings was the discussion of Taylor's bill to stop work on the capitol, which was indefinitely post-poned by a vole of 25 to 25. As soon as that measure was disposed of, Scobey's bill, to appropriate $500,000 to continue work on the capitol building during the next two years, was reported back from the committee, with a majority in favor of as passage. It was not considered, how ever, and now occupies a place on the calendar under the head of second read-las of bills. A pretty fight is promised when it comes up for the third reading Its opponents claim that the 28 votes cast against the Taylor bill today is not evi-dence of their full strength, for several of their friends are absent from the city.

Another investigation of a public insti tution was ordered today by the adoption of Representative Scott's resolution for the appointment of a joint committee to investigate charges preferred against the board of trustees of the Ellensburgh Nor-mal school by E. C. Price, architect, and mal school by E. C. Price, architect, and John Nash, superintendent of construction of the school building. The board is charged with swindling the state out of $600, and the secretary of the board is charged with raising vouchers against the emergency fund, and with allowing inferior workmanship and material to enter into the construction of the building, and namy other irregularities. Friends 10 merabers of the board, however, say that they court investigation

The special committee of inquiry to look into the charges preferred in the legisla-ture against Judge Jesse Arthur, of Spo-Fane, returned tonight, accompanied by Judge Arthur, his attorney, Tom Grif-fitts, and J. R. Lambley, who preferred the charges. Judge Turner and ex-Prose-cuting Attorney Fenton, of Spokane, were met in Tacoma by the committee, and came over as witnesses. Tonight Colonel Eddy, chairman, convened the committee to complete the testimony, and, if possience. ference. ble, prepare a report to the legislature. Judge Turner, Atterneys Fenton and Grif-fitts and Chauncey Betts, of Spokane, tes-tified behind closed doors, and the judge the benind closed doors, shu the jugge himself was called in and questioned again. About il o'clock the testimony closed, and the committee began its con-sideration of the case. The belief is prevalent here that the report will not be favorable to impeachment proceedings being brought before the senate.

The resolution by Cline, populist, to appoint a joint Lexow committee to investi-mate all charges of misconduct of officials of state instituticas, was referred to the house judiciary committee.

The new bills introduced today appro putate $15,000 for an experiment in sugar set culture; reduce justices' fees 25 pc cent; make the secretary of slate presid-ing officer of the house till a spenker is chosen, and reduce the compensation of receivers to that fixed by law for execuopen to himself and his kind. rs and administrators.

The house committee reported favorably on the bill to abolish the salary fund.

Interest in the final disposition of the Helema freight-rate bill increases. To-day a story was circulated as to the or-den of the measure. It was said to have been drawn by Judge Turner directly it the fifterests of the bankers and specu-lators of the Palouse country, and that he had been paid a stated sum to draft the bill, and another fee to appear before the church ordinances or rite-such as bap-tism and the Lord's supper. The names of these two parties thus divided are Mainiative committees and make argu-ment in favor of its passage. One thing that has lent color to the story has been usually known as "regular" and "alien." or as "Landmarkers" and "Anti-Landthe presence here of J. H. The failure of the wheat crop of 1882, and the ow price for the commodity in 1894 m It impossible for the farmers to meet their obligations with the money-lenders, and nany turned their entire wheat crop ove to the bankers at the then current price Fanging from 18 to 19 cents per bushed. Those who did not do this gave chattel mortgages, only to lose their crops later on by foreclosury n by foreclosure sales. The holdings of the bankers and speculators is put down at from 1,000,000 to 1,-500.000 binshels. By the proposed reduction in rates, it is said, they would realize a profit aggregating from $60,000 to $50,000. This profit will be greatly swelled by the committee, at Fortress Monroe, ter increased price of wheat. co-operation. The painful thing about the action of this editor and the "conference" is to all right-minded and good people Taylor's bill to stop work on the capis to all right-minded and good path that the Jesuitical and persecuting spirit that Ital building was reported back from the committee to the house this morning with a majority report in favor of indefinite postponement, and a minority report, signed by Rogers of Puraliup, recommendit discloses; for in all common sense and reason this conference has not the slight-est jurisdiction over me, in any way, after I moved away from Porliand, last sum-mer, and became the general missionary of the North Pacific coast baptist conven-tion, about six months since. Thus looked ing its passage. A lengthy discussion arose over a motion to adopt the majority report, and a great deal of interest was displayed. Every resident of the state is looking toward Olympia for some rethen, about as months since. Thus tonged as from any point of view, this action of the "conference" must be regarded as simply a far-fetched effort of the alien to injure the regular Baptists, by de-claring "non-fellowship" for their gen-eral missionary. Of course I was conport of the final disposition of the cap-ital question. Scobey of Thurston, Rey-polds of Lewis, Moore of Skagit, and others advocated the adoption of the motion. Reynolds made a happy speech, la which he referred in a most numerous manner to the attempts being made by sidered all right so long as I worked in conjunction with the allens, and did not oppose the coterie known pretty generdifferent localities to bring about a really throughout the status as the "Port-land ring." If this action is to be fol-lowed up by them, then the next thing to do will be to remove or "drop" my name from the position of preacher of moval of the capital from Olympia. Reg-ers, populist, of Pierce, who has been accused of fighting the capital building, in the hope that the capital might eventually be removed to his home at Puyallup, re-futed the charge most earnestly. His the annual sermon before the Williametic Alien Association. Then, after that, drop my name from the Partiand Baptist Mis-sion Union, and as having been chairman only aim in opposing the construction of the capitol building, he said, was in the interests of economy. He believed the interests of economy. He believed the state should not entertain such a heavy of the missionary committee of the same. Second, you will notice the covert word "acems" in the editor's comment. It is all in keeping with the general conduct expense when the people are struggling for existence. The motion to indefinitely and spirit of the man, for no doubt the citizens of Portland, and all who read the Daily Oregonian and the Associated postpone prevailed.

The bill for a state road between S hands of the committee on roads and Press dispatches, are aware of the fact that this editor was, in the month of July, last past, excluded and turned out of the Immanuel Eaptist church, of Portbridges in the house this morning and re-forred to the appropriation committee, which means that it will not come up for consideration this session.

Bills Which Passed.

OLYMPIA, Feb. 20.-These bills have passed both houses, and now await the governor's approval:

For printing 10,000 copies of the report of the state board of horticulture; permitting school districts to purchase sites of from one to five acres; disaflowing witness and jurots' fees and mileage unless witnesses report attendance to the cherk at the close of each day's session, and verify the mile-age under oath; prohibiting prizefighting; appropriating $3000 for Architect Preuss for plans for the Ellensburgh school. These bills were passed by the senait: Helm-To prevent an increase of worth-less stock, by fixing a fine of from $150 to and the so-called "conference" are of the "alien" persuasion-with the little wing. At least they are working with those bodies that are in sympathy with the alien, the "liberal" wing, the "new de-parture," there being only four churches of this kind in the state of Oregon, out-side of the Willamette association, and so far as I know "not one in the state of Washington, in 380-and herein lies the real animas of their action and the editor's comment. As already stated, the eyes of the whole C. J. THOMPSON, Sachem, A. C. COOKE, Chief of Records.
