A SPECIAL TRIBUNAL TO HAVE JU-RISDICTION.

Trial, Judgment and Carrying Out of Sentence, Even of Death, Shall Be Summary.

CAIRO, Feb. 22 - A special cabinet con CAIRO, Feb. 32.-A special cabinet colli-cil has just been held here to discuss the Egyptian situation, the khedive presiding. Inasmoch as the agitation appears to have been caused by the recent attack by the Egyptians on the crew of the British cruis-er Scout, it was decided to create a spe-cial tribunal, which shall have jurisdiction of the offennes of natives against British soldiers, saliors and marines statfored in Egypt. The tribunal is to consist of the miniater of justice. Ibrahim Fund Panha. miniater of justice, Ibrahim Fund Pasha, a mative, as presiding judge; Sir John Scott, the judicial adviser to the khedive, an Englishman; two English judges, and one native judge. The trial judgment and carrying out of sentence, including the death penalty, shall be summary and with-out appeal. The tribunal can only be invoked on demand of Baron Cromer, the British agent and consul-general, and the British general in command of the British itish general in command of the British roes in Egypt. After the Egyptian and foreign ministers have been notified, th executive council will be convened at the beginning of the Ramadan, when the annual feast occurs, to approve the establish-ment of this tribunal. The promise of the court is regarded as an important conces-sion by the English here and it is likely to intensify the French agitation against the British influence in Egypt.
