VIEWES OF EDUCATORS

OFFER OF GROUND FOR TECHNICAL SCHOOL DISCUSSED. The only two efforts to the destrucibility of an Out-of-Town Location.

Establishment of a technical school in Portland has become a live issue since the offer made by J. W. Cook of a seven-acre tract in Albina as a site. Many prominent citizens have often looked forward to the time when Portland would have a technical school as thoroughly modern and advanced as the best of education found in other institutions of learning.

Portland Y. M. C. A., also expressed hopes that a technical school would be established. He stated that the local association would be glad to see the plan carried out, although the matter had been considered some.

George Breslin Improving. George Breslin, of the Second Oregon, who has been very sick for several months is now thought to be steadily improving, and it is considered certain that he will recover.

WHERE TO DINE. For substantial meals or lunches, everything clean and nice, the Portlana restaurant, 305 Washington St., near 5th.

EAST SIDE AFFAIRS. Grand Army Installation—Other Matters. The joint installation of the officers of Summer post and Summer Woman's Relief Corps, G. A. R., took place at the hall, on the corner of East Pine and Pine streets, on Saturday night.

SIDEWALK OPENINGS. Protest by Mr. Alisky Against a Decision of the Municipal Court. PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.) I ask a little space to correct some mistakes occasioned by inaccurate reporting concerning the charge preferred against me of having allowed a sidewalk grating to be opened from the underside of Morrison street, near Third, recently.

Defense of Brave Soldiers. London Truth. I may be a little Englishman, I may be a pro-Bosnian or anything else unpleasant and disreputable that you can remember the name of. But this sort of thing sickens me.

Has a Double. Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church, although wholly unconscious of the fact, has a double, or counterpart, on the East Side. The resemblance is so close that even some of the members of the congregation have mistaken the East Side man for the rector.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION OF PORTLAND. 24,000 volumes and over 200 periodicals $5.00 a year or $1.50 a quarter Two books allowed on all subscriptions

SAMUEL ROSENBLATT & CO. THE POPULAR-PRICE CLOTHIERS. N. W. CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON STREETS.

He was out on East Twenty-first street several days ago on his wheel on business, when he was suddenly confronted by two handsomely-dressed ladies, who smilingly advanced and said: "Dr. Morrison, how do you do?" He assured them that they must be mistaken in their man, but they assured him that that was not possible, and then said: "Are you not Dr. Morrison, of the Trinity Episcopal church?" "Oh, I should say not. I have been too long connected with the— to be a preacher," at the same moment mounting his bicycle and riding rapidly away, leaving the two ladies standing amazed.
