American Furniture in Europe.

Washington Times.

An American furniture manufacturing empany is now shipping from its factories American furniture in the rough. Being in parts and tightly packed, it occupies in parts and lightly packed, it occupies little space, and consequently the freight is low. It is put together in London and Glazgow workshops, and the salesmen place the furniture in the hands of dealrs in England and Scotland.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS.

The storm area which caused such heavy rainful Monday night by its presence over Northwest Washington has moved rapidly eastward, and is now over North Dakota. Rain has fallen in the past 12 hours west of the Catondes in Washington, and both sides of them in Gregon. A trace has follen at Walla Walla, and also at Boise, where snow has begun. A high-pressure grea has come rapidly from the ocean today, and will probably be located over Washington on Wednesday, giving fair weather to the Pacific Northwest for a day or two decreasing temperature in Oregon and Wash-ington, and colder in Southern Idaho. WEATHER FORECASTS.
