New School at Gresham At a meeting of the taxpayers of the Gresham school district Tuesday evening it was decided to erect a new schoolhouse, to rost about $2700. The move to build was only cerried by a narrow majority, 25 voting for and 22 against building. J. W. Shattuck, of the school board, presided, and there was a lively discussion over the proposal to build. It is conceded that the building is needed, as the present
