Two Pairs in One.

If you need one glass for reading and a different glass for distance it isn't necessary to have two pairs. It's an inconvenience to be constantly changing glasses. It's an inconvenience to always carry an extra pair. Bifocals remove the difficulty. You look through the upper parts at a distance and through the lower parts close by. They are put together so neatly that you can scarcely see the dividing line.

WILY GOVERNOR'S TRICK. San Diego, Cal., Jan. 28.—From dispatches brought by the Hamburg steamer "Voluntaria," it appears that the arrival of the vessel at Tumaco, Colombia, where she touched on the way up, had the effect of saving the place from capture by Colombian rebels. The latter had demanded the surrender of the town, and the governor was at his wits' end. Just then the "Voluntaria" was sighted. The wily governor saw his chance to make a bluff. So he sent a defiant message to the revolutionists, and told them that the steamer off port was bringing 500 government troops. The trick succeeded, and the rebels abandoned their purpose to capture Tumaco.

LONDON, Jan. 28, 4:15 A. M.—The week has opened with almost gloom for the British public, and the reaction is all the stronger because of the high hopes that were reposed in General Buller's turning movement and of his announcement that there would be no "turning back."

SENATORS SATISFIED

Want No Change in Manner of Their Election.

HOUSE FAVORS POPULAR VOTE

Amendment to Constitution Will Be Introduced This Session, but Cannot Pass the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—A canvass of congress made by the New York Herald upon the question of the election of senators by direct vote of the people shows that the senate is strongly opposed to the proposition, while the house is in favor of it. A bill for such a constitutional amendment will no doubt pass the house by a large majority, but there is no possibility of it getting through the senate.

The department indicates, but does not positively state, its disapproval of legislation of this kind.

Judging from statements that are being made here by Idaho men, that state will be safely republican this year. T. W. Bates, of Boise, who aims to keep abreast of the situation, says that Senator Shoup will be re-elected, and that McKinley will easily get the electoral vote of Idaho. He says that Senator Shoup suits the people of Idaho, as he has been faithful to every trust, and will be able to override any other candidate that may spring up in opposition to him.
