TO ELECT A SENATOR

Extraordinary Session of the California Legislature.

BOTH HOUSES READY FOR BUSINESS

Governor's Message Denounced Those Responsible at Regular Session for Failure to Elect.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 29 .- The senate and assembly of California today perfected its organization to meet in extra-ordinary session. Much difference of opinion prevailed among the members as to the necessity of reorganizing. The repub-lican majority of the senate caucused on the subject, and it was conceded that it was necessary to reorganize. This was many of the attaches of the regular ses-resolutions were introduced in this body, one of which declared the house to be or-ganized and ready for business. The other, a substitute, declaring the offi-cers of the regular session to be under its provisions elected. The word "elected" led to an extended debate, which resulted in the substitute being withdrawn and the original resolution adopted. The body thus proceeded immediately to business without reorganization. It was conceded, however, that the vote for United States sensor should not be taken until the secnd Tuesday after reorganization, a week from tomorrow.

By 5 o'clock the two houses were ready to receive the governor's message. The governor, as a special privilege, asked to be permitted to read it to the houses sit ting jointly, a thing unprecedented in the history of California legislatures. The request was granted. The message contained some 7000 words, treating the sev-eral purposes for which the legislature had been called together. The most im portant of these was the matter of electing a United States senator to succeed the Hon. Stephen M. White. Those who were responsible for the failure to elect at the regular session were severely de-nounced, and the republican papers, which, according to the governor, were in a measure responsible for K, were se-verely condemned. The importance of the state's having a full representation in congress at this particular time, when the nation is expanding westward, was treated at length. The whole proceeding was of so unusual a nature that it created an interest bordering on the sensational.

SENATOR BLACKBURN'S COMMISSION Taylor Will Not Issue It Before the Contest Is Settled.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 29.-It is no likely that United States Senator-elect Blackburn will receive any commission from Governor Taylor until the present rnatorial contest has been finally settled. Governor Taylor, it is said on excellent authority, will assume the position that if it is decided he is illegally the gov-ernor of Kentucky, the legislators who elected Blackburn, and who were declared elected at the same election at which he was a candidate for governor, were also lilegally elected, and have not, therefore, the power to choose a senator.

The beginning of the end of the contest was at hand today, this being the last day for the taking of evidence. Tomorrow arguments will commence. The decision of the contest board is looked for in about one week after the conclusion of the arguments. The evidence today relat-ed chiefly to tissue ballots and the use of Herald from Washington says: William J. Bryan spent a quiet Sunday in this city, and left in the evening for Providence, via New York. Mr. Bryan's visit to Providence will be his second entry into New England and while he does not, of course, look for substantial results from that section, he believes the indications from his Eastern reception will be of value to the party throughout the country.

"I have been greatly pleased," he said, of the East in what I have had to say upon the great issues before the people. There is every indication of the return of every man, who, misunderstanding the ues of the last campaign, went off to enemy, and I believe that as the real meaning of the principles of the Chicago platform are better understood by the people of the East, not only will we regain

Mr. Bryan does not believe that the republicans will hold out the hope of international bimetalism in their platform of 1990. He expects to see their platform declare unequivocally for the gold standard.

Robber Gang Run Dawn. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 29.—A report has reached this city that a posse of Union Pacific detectives, headed by Tom Horn, had run down two of the Union Pacific trainrobbers in the Hole in the Wall, and after a desperate fight, killed both of them.
One of the pursuing party was shot, but it is thought not seriously. It is known that the robbers separated in two gangs
after leaving the railroad, and the men reported killed were those who were trailed through the mountains so closely and afthrough the mountains so closely and afterwards escaped.

It is supposed that they returned to the Hole in the Wall when they thought the pursuit was over, and the detectives have been watching the rendezvous ever since until they got their men.

Absconding Cashler Caught. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Robert A. Jenkins, the absconding cashler of the Texas & Pacific railroad at Shreveport, La., has been taken back to that place from San Francisco, after two weeks of skillful detective work, involving 7000 miles of travel. He was captured here Friday, and confined in a room in a ho-tel for two days. Jenkins, who is alleged to have robbed the railroad company of $2300, disappeared from Shreveport, De-cember 27. His bondsmen, the National Surety Company of New York, engaged detectives to run him down.

CHARGES AGAINST ONE OF CLARK'S OPPONENTS WERE WITHDRAWN.

Plenty of Money in Circulation in Montana After the Election-Bank Accounts of Legislators.

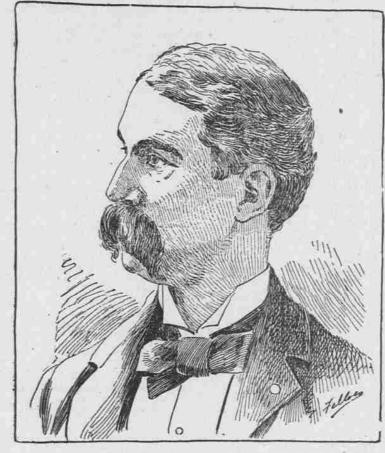

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 .- The senate mmittee on privileges and elections today heard a number of witnesses on minor only heard a number of witnesses of intool points involved in the charges against Senator Clark, of Montana. The protestants took occasion, during the day, to withdraw all intimations against Hon. J. K. Toole, who withdrew from the Montana contest for United States senator under circumvorable to Mr. Clark. The prosecution also checks signed by A. M. Darsey & Co., declined, during the day, to put two wit-merchants. Some of the currency paid in

TOOLE WAS EXONERATED to a $500 bill in the possession of the committee. This bore certain identification marks, including, "D. O. B.," the initials of the witness. He was asked if he had written these marks, and said he had not and knew nothing about the bill. He suggested that he might have deposited it, and the bank added the mark as a means of telling from whom it was received.

At the afternoon session, W. B. Dolenty, a banker of Townsend, testified concerning the banking and financial transactions of State Senator W. E. Tierney. The latter, the witness said, owed the bank $10,000 prior to the meeting of the legislature. This had been paid off since then. The witness also said Tierney had, in late months, invested in bank stocks. He con-sidered Mr. Tierney worth about $15,000 or $10,000 more than he was prior to his election. Replying to a question he said he had "an idea" where the money came from with which the indebtedness to his bank was pald, but he did not state his suspicions. The $10,000 was paid at differstances which the protestants were at ent times, and a large part of it was paid first inclined to consider suspiciously fa- in currency, the remainder being paid with

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES, FIRST DISTRICT

CLAUD GATCH, OF SALEM.

Claud Gatch, Marion county's choice for the republican congressional nomination in the first district, is a native of Oregon's sister state, Washington. He was born June 29, 1859, and arrived at Salem with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gatch, when he was 6 weeks old. The story of the drive of the Gatch family to the Cowlitz river and the trip in canoes with the Indians is one of a thousand of like character told at Oregon firesides. Except a few years in California and in Portland, where his father was principal of the old Portland academy, Mr. Gatch has spent his life in Salem. In the early '70s he carried The Oregonian; was elected page in the legislature of 1874; attended Willamette university, and cast his first vote for Garfield and Arthur, in 1880. In 1880 he obtained employment in the banking house of Ladd & Bush, of which firm he is now cashier. In 1892 he was elected mayor of Salem by a majority of over two to one over nis democratic opponent. He strove for economy in the city expenditures, and resisted the issuance of bonds by the city council. In 1894 he was re-elected without opposition. In 1896 he was elected vice-president of the republican league of Oregon, and in 1898 he was elected president of the league. Mr. Gatch was one of the early advocates of the gold standard in the party in Oregon. As a member of the state convention of 1898, he introduced the minority report from the committee upon platform, opposing the free and unlimited coinage of eliver. This report was defeated by a small majority. Mr. Gatch believes in expansion, or, as he terms it, the "American policy." He says the flag, once up, should never be pulled down. Mr. Gatch is a prominent Odd Fellow, having been grand master of the jurisdiction of Oregon and its grand representative to the sovereign grand lodge, Boston, 1868, and Detroit, 1808. He was married in 1885 to Helen M. Plummer, daughter of nesses on the stand who had been summoned at their instance, because the men had talked unsatisfactorily since their arrival in Washington. Both ex-Senator Edits deposited was of the denomination munds and Mr. Campbell said it would of $500.

the arguments. The evidence today related chiefly to tissue ballots and the use of the militia.

Ex-Governor Bradley was called as a witness. He was followed by G. W. Gist, of Henry county, who was asked whether he was in she republican headquarters in Louinville election night, and heard Governor Bradley say that had he heard of Judge Toney's injunction an hour and a half sooner he would have had the troops out and changed the returns. Witness Gist said he heard Governor Bradley make the statement indicated.

Representative Kalday, of Louisville, in rebutial of the statement, testified he was present at the time the remark was aileged to have been made, and he denied that Governor Bradley made such a statement. At the close of the session, Governor Bradley denied that he ever made the statement testified to by Gist.
The house did not meet until 11:20 today,
So many members were absent and so many paired that no attempt was made to transact business, and the house adjourned.

> this wish. The first witness of the day was E. D. V. More, fusion representative in the Montana legislature from Meagher county, and at present engaged as dairyman and owner of a cold-storage plant at Bozeman. Campbell, in his questions, sought to bring out the fact that More had suddenly come into possession of con-siderable money about the time of the adjournment of the legislature. More admitted he had deposited considerable money at the bank since the adjournment, but said he had received $1500 from his partner, Rhoades, and over $3000 from his brother. He had sold the latter a half interest in a ranch for $7000, and this money had been in part payment of the obliga-tion. He also borrowed money at the First National bank, of Bozeman.

More stated he had not voted for Clark intil the 11th or 12th ballot, having previously voted for Hartman for senator. He said in reply to Faulkner he had received no offer of pay for his vote from Clark, and no consideration was given him for that vote. As between Clark and Daly, the people of Meagher county were friend-

George L. Ramsey, cashler of the Union Bank & Trust Company, of Helena, the next witness, produced a memorandum of $1000 bills paid out by the bank, beginning with January 10, 1899. The record showed that the bank had had demands for large bills from the State Savings bank, of Butte, sending the institution $30,000 the 7th and another $30,000 the 13th of that month in these bills. Most of the large bills were received from other banks, but occasionally one or two were deposited at a time by individuals. For the month of March 57 time bills were the send the send that of March, 67 $1000 bills passed through the bank; for the month of February, seven and for January, 12. For other months the average was about the same as for January and February, but not so large as for March, when the demands from the Butto banks for the large bills was met. Among the individual depositors of large bills were Massina Bullard, a Helena lawyer, Deputy County Clerk Bery, J. E. Cullen and J. H. Geiger, who successfully contested the sear of Whiteside as state senator. In the latter case the bill was of the denomination of $500. Mr. Bullard had not only deposited a $1000 bill February 7, but had received $3000 in $1000 bills

the 2d of that month. In response to questions, Mr. Ramsey stated that in May last Mr. Geiger had deposited a certificate of deposit from the bank for $2500 in exchange for which he had given Gelger a certificate for $1500 and a draft for $1500. It was at the same time that Geiger had brought a $500 bill into the bank which he had changed. One of the parties to whom the bank had paid to the Cuban people.
out large bills was a Mr. Wellcome, who,

On cross-examination, Mr. Dolenty said that the $10,000 was really owed by the firm of Darsey & Co., of which Tierney was a member, and he held Tierney responsible for the debt. He also admitted that he had sought the nomination for state senator, which went to Mr. Tierney, and also that Mr. Tlerney had recently started a rival bank. Alexander C. Johnson, cashier of the American National bank, of Helena, tes-tified concerning the sale of $46,000 worth of stock in the Fergus County bank, which had been made by him for ex-United States Senator T. C. Power, after the election of Mr. Clark. The witness said he had, previous to the sale of the stock, asked State Senator Hobson to find a customer for him. The sale had been con-summated by Cashler Kurtz, of the Montana National bank, but he had not said where the purchase money came from. At this point the names of Ben Hill and L. L. Wright, two witnesses from Mon-tana, who had been summoned, were called, but both Mr. Campbell and ex-Senator Edmunds said they did not believe it would be fair to themselves or to Mr. Clark to have them testify. The intima-tion was that they had made contradictory statements, and it appeared neither side desired their testimony. Powell Block of White Sulphur Springs a member of the Montana house of repre-sentatives, who voted for Mr. Clark for the senate, was the next witness, but his tes timony was not material.

C. H. Fortman, treasurer of the Jefferson Club, of Helena, identified a letter received from Senator Clark, in which the latter had referred to his son, C. W. Clark, and Mr. Wellcome as his representatives in Helena. Mr. Fortman said that during the sitting of the legislature last winter he had asked Mr. Clark for a contribu-tion of $200 with which to pay the indebtedness of the club, and the latter replied saying he would refer the request toehis son or Mr. Wellcome, as they had charge of all his expenses in Helena.

The commission will conarchipelago. sult with the municipal officials relative to the action to be taken, and the status of the friars who remain in the Islands will also be determined. These questions are embarrassing to the administration, especially as they are raised on the eve of the presidential campaign, and there is no desire on the part of the officials to take any action which may be offensive to the Catholic voters of the country. While no formal claims have as yet been preferred by representa-tives of the Catholic church for restoration to the church of certain public buildings and lands in Puerto Rico, General Davis understands that it is the intention to claim ownership to several valuable structures in San Juan, and to ask for the surrender of the property.

These edifices, it is asserted, belonged originally to certain religious orders, but were taken possession of by Spain, held as public property, and finally transferred as such to the United States.

Hundreds of Your Friends Are Taking Advantage of the $5 Rate of Drs. Copeland and Montgomery, and Being Cured of Long-Standing Troubles by These Specialists-They Furnish the Most Scientific Treatment of All Diseases for $5 a Month, Medicines Included.

Copeland and Montgomery, in placing medical skill and thorough selentific treatment for all diseases within the reach of all by making their total charge for treatment and medicines at $5 a month, it was almost impossible for people in moderate circumstances to obtain the aid of skillful and conscientious specialists. It was, and still is, for that matter, a frequent occurrence to hear complaints made over the excessive fees charged by those claim. ing to be specialists. Drs. Copeland and Montgomery's charge is but $5 a month, including all medicines, and the time required for a cure under their system is shorter than that occupied by any other method. More over, their cures are genuine and permanent. The fact, that, in spite of their well-established and fairly earned reputation for honest work, skillful treatment and successful results, they still maintain this low charge of $5 a month, shows that they aim not alone at financial success as practitioners, but as well at the accomplishment of the greatest possible good in the community, Their practice, which has long been several times larger than any other in this city, is still constantly inerensing, demonstrating continually that the public appreciates low charges when combined with un-questionable skill, thoroughness

Mr. Lecester Snipes, The Dalles, Or.

"My head was stopped up and I had cadache all the time. My throat was dry and sore and I had a distressing cough, accompanied by pains in the chest and a soreness through the left lung.

After I went to bed there would be a tickling in the throat, which set me to coughing. The air passages seemed to contract and close up. I would ait up in hed, sometimes the greater part of the night, of stringy mucus, which gave me relief, but the next night it was the same old story. Under this suffering and loss of sleep I lost flesh and strength,

"I had doctored until I had but little confidence in doctors or medicine, but this fall, on the urgent advice of a friend, who was personally acquainted with the great success of the Copeland treatment in cases like mine, I decided to make one more effort for relief, for I felt I could not spend another winter in suffering and misery. I began to improve from the first and now feel as well as I ever did in my life. The winter is almost over now and although I have been out in all kinds of weather, I have not had one bit of Portland. Several years ago I took a course of treatment at the Copeland Institute for a catarrhal trouble, affecting 'my head, stomach and bowels, the result of an attack of Panama fever 20 years before. At that time I was in my fall year and thought this would be against a cure, but under the creatment given me my catarrh got well and my stomach tors I consulted said I had asthma, and and bowels healed. My appetite returned one of the very best physicians on the and I gained in weight and strength. I am now as well as any man of my age, due to the excellent treatment I received Miss M. A. Taylor, 449 East Shercatarrh since childhood. The worst of my trouble was in my sturmach and bowels. Everything I are gave me great distress, followed by bloating and beiching. My stomach was sore and tender. I had diarrhoca, with gas and gurgling in the bowels. The disease affected my cars and I had a ringing and buzzing in the left ear and my hearing was very dull. I began a course of treatment at the Copeland Institute and am thankful to say that now I am strong and well.

RHEUMATISM AND DEAFNESS.

Mrs. L. H. Clarke, well known in and about Portland, residing at Gresham, I am 69 years of age and had suffered for years with rheumatism and deafness. I was completely crippled with rheumatism, being compelled to use crutches all the My deafness came on gradually, but when I began my treatment I was almost totally deaf. Even my own voice sounded far off. People had to speak right into my cars to make me hear. I was nearly distracted with a ringing and huzzing and sounds like the roar of the ocean in my ears. I couldn't eat or sleep and was weak and nervous.

and was weak and nervous.

The Cop-land physicians cured me completely. I have no more rheumatism and hear nearly as well as I ever did in my life. I consider this wonderful in a woman of my age and never fail to give the Concland physicians the praise they so richly deserve.
