AT THE Y. M. C. A. TOMORROW.—The Young Men's Christian Association will give the sixth of its regular course of lectures for this year. This is under the auspices of the young people of the First Baptist church, who are making quite extensive preparations for the occasion, in view of the large number usually present at these events. A musical, musical and literary programme will be given in the hall. This will be followed by athletic games in the gymnasium, music in the parlor, and bowling on the alleys. Light lunch will be served in the main lobby

IN THE SEVERAL COURTS

ATTACK ON JAMES B. STEPHENS' ESTATE FAILS.

Judge Cleland Holds That "Uncle Jimmy" Knew Exactly What He Was About—Court Notes.

The James B. Stephens estate case, in which Joseph Sexton and India Wisnom, grandchildren, sought to set aside the deeds executed by Stephens before his death, giving his property to Dr. Dav and Charles H. Raftery, Henry Jones, Franklin T. Dick and others, was decided by Judge Cleland yesterday in favor of the defendants.

The case was based upon several grounds —first, that a conspiracy existed among the defendants to secure the property; second, that if there was no active conspiracy, that the defendants were improperly influenced by some of them; third, that he was physically and mentally incapacitated to transact such important business; fourth, that there was no legal delivery of the deeds. Judge

Cleland held that the plaintiffs failed to make out a case upon any of these grounds.

Judge Cleland reviewed the testimony somewhat particularly in what he considered to be its most reliable and important features.

On the question of conspiracy, the court

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Little Minister."

"The Little Minister" made the greatest success of any play ever produced in this country—the success being of the sort that manager, playwright and all concerned could most desire. It is to be presented by Charles Frohman's company at the Marquam Grand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. "The Little Minister" is a comedy by M. Barrie of the same name. Its record consists of a run of 200 nights in New York city, to at that time the greatest business ever done by a theatrical performance. Not once did the curtain go up on a performance that

BY REQUEST. Of a number of business men and others who are employed during the day, we have consented to open our office for a short time in the evening to enable those who cannot see us during the day, to take advantage of osteopathic treatment.

Dr. Northrup and Alkire, suite 416 The Dekum building, have had extensive experience in their profession, and extend every courtesy to those wishing to investigate the science of osteopathy. Examination is always free.

A customer says our $12.50 Kersey Overcoats are better than most $15 ones. An invoice of new fancy wool Sweaters just received. Is $2.50 too much to pay for a Hat worth $2.00?

Gentlemen's Blue Peasdale Serges. Are recognized everywhere as absolutely safe serges to buy and wear. These fabrics are of very firm smooth surface, textures shrunken to the desired weight—full 20 ounces to the yard. They are positively unfadable, and will retain their shape indefinitely.

We have them in single-breasted, double-breasted sack, and cutaway suits, designed and tailored according to the mode, at $12.50. FINER GRADES AT $15 AND $18.

A few words about SHIRTS. We want you to see the new Manhattans—they are beauties—with cuffs attached, or without, just as they should be.

Monarchs—you know what they are—very swell, $1.00 :: $1.50 :: $2.00. Our Own—made expressly for us—some of the handsomest shirts ever shown in the city. They can only be seen in our windows. $1.00.

THE OREGONIAN PUBLISHING CO. IS NOW EQUIPPED FOR DOING FIRST-CLASS. FRED PREHN. The Dekum Building, Full Set Teeth, $15.00. He is no less admirable in conversation than in problem plays, and among the most pleasant recollections he left behind him when he finished his engagement here were those made in these two bright comedies. Having in his possession Boucicault's manuscript of "Arrah-na-Pogue," Manager Cordray will be able to stage the piece in a manner which is sure to add greatly to its effect.

CLARENCE EDDY, who appears under the auspices of the Musical Club, February 12, will be of great interest to music-lovers. Modern art upon the organ was illustrated at its best at Grace Episcopal church yesterday by Clarence Eddy, the most distinguished of American organists.—San Francisco Chronicle, January 29, 1900.
