

HER EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY

CELEBRATION OF SUSAN B. ANTHONY'S FOUR-SCORE YEARS.

Address of Mrs. Dunwavy, of Oregon—"The Worth of Civilized Woman in New Settlements."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—At today's session of the National Woman Suffrage Association's convention...

The woman who keeps her hands for duty, her feet for industry, and her heart for her fellow men...

When the historic expedition of discovery, headed by Lewis and Clark, began its famous journey of exploration in 1804...

is the sure of her skin on her fairest days. Her people are free and prosperous and their spirits are as free from greeds as the air they breathe...

So she quotes Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony, one cheering the other and Charlotte Perkins Stetson, in her dreams, and repairs the next morning to her schoolroom...

And yet, it is well known that the very few men are not always the most prosperous. I have here a copy of the transactions of the annual session of the Oregon Pioneer Association...

mobilitation of our volunteers and maintained in active working order as long as there was work for them to do...
