Question for Registration Officers FISHER Lincoln County, Or., Feb. 22 .-(To the Editor.)—I noticed in your issue of February 8, a letter from Register C. B. ores, telling the people how to get cer-ed copies of their naturalization papers This certified copy is to be used to enable a naturalized citizen to vote. Now, if a citizen has proved up on his homestead and has his papers to that effect, I would like to know if that isn't sufficient proof of his being a naturalized citizen without his having a copy of his papers? BENNETT OLSON.
