JEWISH FAIR IS OPEN

LARGE GATHERING AT HIBERNIA HALL.

Mayor Storey Made the Opening Address—Many Attractive Booths.

Last evening Hibernia hall was thronged with a gay and liberal crowd, who had gathered to witness the opening of the Jewish Fair, given by the Congregation Ahavah Sholom, assisted by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

The committees in charge of the arrangements and details of management were, for the Congregation, Messrs. Morris Gilbert, Simon Abraham, Isaac Vaport, A. H. Berger and Isaac Sweet.

The women's committee was in charge of Mrs. M. Gilbert, president and superintendent, and Mrs. S. H. Abrams.

The taste and art displayed in the decorations and arrangements of the booths and settings were elaborate and effective.

Around three sides of the stage are the American colors, with colored lights and flowers, prettily distributed in festoons and draperies from the chandeliers to the walls.

The announcement that the Boston Lyric Opera Company, under the direction of Colonel "Billy" Thompson, will be at Cordray's Theatre for the week engagement immediately following "In the Darkest Russia," which follows the "Frawleys," will be a surprise and a delight to the patrons of that popular playhouse.

After a most successful engagement at Honolulu, the Boston Lyric will come to Portland, strengthened in numbers and members, and with a repertoire of the latest, best and most popular operas.

But Mr. Cordray is not content with this surprise, and has arranged for several more which he will spring as season progresses. He is determined to raise the standard of his attractions as a return for the appreciation of his patrons, which becomes more and more evident with the patronage of each succeeding engagement.

EXPECT TO PROSPER.—Morrow County Sheepmen Look for a Good Season.

W. R. Tillard, a Morrow County sheepman, who is spending a few days in Portland, predicts a heavy influx of gold into that country this year.

"We expect to sell our wool for 20 cents a pound," he said yesterday, "and as none of our sheep will shear less than 10 pounds, we can bank on $2 worth of wool as an average clip. Conditions are very favorable for lambing, and so long as the weather is not too great an increase to expect, as 50 per cent can be saved in an ordinary season, when grass is short, weather cold and the sheep are poor."

As to our wheat crop, the prospects are better than ever before known at this time of year, and the fall-sown grain is so far forward that it will be ripe and out of the way before the hot winds of June arrive. Wheat has grown so rank that sheep have to be turned in to keep from doing harm.

"The Dancing Girl" Tonight—Frawleys in a New Bill at Cordray's.

Tonight at Cordray's the Frawleys will be seen in "The Dancing Girl," the most ambitious drama they have yet attempted. The play is one of the strongest that the Frawleys have ever produced, and much care has been taken in casting the company to bring out its full strength.

WHERE TO DINE.—For substantial meals or lunches, everywhere clean and nice, try the Portland restaurant, 36 Washington st., near 5th.

Portland's Leading Music Store.—Knabe, Hardman, Fischer, Ludwig pianos. Dr. Solis Cohen follows saying: "It was given me to follow the Mayor, but it is not necessary for me to do so."

STOLE A COAT OFF A DUMMIE—Some sneak thief stole a $20 overcoat off a "dumie" in front of the Chicago Clothing Company, on Third street.

REPORTED HOLD-UP—A man reported to the police that he was held up on East Twelfth and Ash streets last night by a highwayman, who stuck a revolver in his face and began to rob him.

CARE PORTFOLIO.—The case of Pearl Brown, the colored woman who so badly slashed another colored woman, by the name of Miss B. Bailey, was brought up yesterday before Judge Hennessy, but it was immediately postponed, as it was shown that Miss Bailey is not yet in a condition to appear against her assailant.

DRUNKEN ROW—George Anderson and S. McDonnell engaged in a drunken row last night on Third and Davis streets, and McDonnell getting much the worse of the encounter, swore out a warrant for the arrest of his assailant.

BICYCLE THEFT CAUGHT—John Stockton was arrested yesterday morning with the larceny of a bicycle from F. Strauss. The wheel was stolen from the front of the Marquam building and sold to a pawnbroker. Stockton will be tried before Judge Hennessy today.

FAIR.—The congregation of the Hebrew Congregation, at the City Hall, will be held at 7 P. M.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMME.—1. March (Sousa). 2. Medley, overture.

PURIM SERVICES—Purim services will be held at the Congregation Talmud Torah, corner Sixth and Hill streets, tomorrow (Wednesday) evening.
