THE MORNING OREGONIAN, SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1900.

000,

There was a fairly good trade in the whole-male district resterday, with local retailers re-plenishing stocks for the Saturday trade. Re-ceipis of produce were much heavier than were expected, considering the fine waver than which is affording such a good opportunity for farm work. Polatese came in more freely that they have for several days, a single boat farm work the Columbia betavier care 100 from down the Columbia bringing over 1008 sacks. The price is weakening under the heavy receipts and an easier demand from Califor-Butter and eggs are still firm, and chickene are not coming in plentifully enough to meet the demand. Pork and voai are duil and difficult to move. The California steamer arriving in last evening brought a large cob of garden truck, which will be on the street this morning.

Fundamentally it is directly opposite to all of the first the first opposite to all of them. It is the living God's plan for saving fallen man-God's way. Humanmade religions are invariably man's own plan for saving man-man's ways. The two do not blend-cannot be made to blend. Keep them apart. The Christian religion does not need and does not want any help from you or from any other foreign source. and it cannot lend itself to support any-thing that is out of harmony with it. Trading in the aggre-ate was on a small scale, and even at that gate was on a small scale, and even at that was congrested in a few of the specialties. Third Avonue continued to abserb a large share of attention, and was the only stock on the list with any considerable range in price fluctua-tion. After an early decline this stock moved upward over 5 points, and closed with a net gain of 2%. Somer was active, but showed a comparatively narrow range, and ended the day with a small pet gain. People Conday with a small net guin. People's Gas more than retrieved an early decline, and Pacific Mail was notably weak. Otherwise the dealings were small, price fluctuations narrow and the list of stocks dealt in a short one. That the general tone was firm was probably due to the fact that the bear traders bought stocks to cover abort contracts.

There was no evidence of any outside specu lative demand, but there was some investment buying on a small scale. Probably the bears bare eyes, as Christian Science teaching that there is nothing at all in the world of what we hear and see? That we are, materially, nothing at all ourselves-noth ing but imaginstions walking about? Our wants and needs are nothing. Our ills and pains' and afflictions are nothing but a bundle of lies, or, if they are anything at all, they are the legitimate anything of backbiling and malice, envy and evil thoughts, wherewith we have saturated, poisoned and thus diseased these material nothings of ours. Is it not that the leaders of this propaganda, now assuming such pretentious proportions throughout the land, realize that such a draught as they offer will have to be gotten down the throats of Western people unawares, or it will be rejected at the very sight of it? Yet if it were only a question of the public swallowing one dose of nonsense, more or less, we might hold our peace and let it learn its lesson from experience. But there is another and a far more serious side to this question. It is this: Back of all the old Theosophy and all the homemade nonsense, and permeating the entire fabric of its structure-aye, and necessary to its existence-lie, couched in sub-the language, murderous attacks on every corner-stone of the Christian faith! It denies sin and consequently Christ's atonement for sin, holding him simply as a metaphysical healer like themselves. It considers man as a sort of God-man, a being that he simple scanding him such as a being that by simply exercising his own will, after a process of mystic hocus-pocus of their prescription, can do the same works that our Master did-aye, and even greater ones!

In short, as per Christian Science, there is nothing at all impossible to man that he wills to do. He may live forever in
