AUSTRALIAN STEAMER BRINGS NEWS OF FATAL SHIPWRECKS.

Liverpool Chamber of Shipping After the San Francisco Crimps-Snaga Plentiful at Tillamook.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 23 .- Accounts of serious marine disasters in Australian waters were brought by the steamer Warrimoo, from Sydney, which arrived today. A serious loss of life occurred in the wreck of the cutter Espeigle, owned in Nukualofa, Tonga, which went to pieces on Otoma Reef, when Captain J. Castle and 20 Tonganans were drowned. A valuable cargo was also lost.

Another total loss was that of the fourmasted French bark Emile Renouf, from Thio, New Caledonia, for Glasgow. She carried a cargo of 3700 tons of nickel ore. On February 6 she ran upon rock 80 miles south of Mare Isle, and sank immediately. The crew of 36, with the wife and children of the commander, Captain Bougu, escaped in two small boats, without food or water, so sudden was the disaster. The shipwrecked company remained in the boats for a night and a day, but on the second night they were picked up and landed safely at Nou-

NO TROUBLE AT PORTLAND. Liverpool Chamber of Shipping After the San Francisco Crimps.

The Liverpool Chamber of Shipping has in the past had so much to say in regard to sailor abuses in this port that it is re-freshing to at last hear of a grievance in which Portland is not the offender. The San Francisco crimps are the men they are after at the present time, and Tuesday's Chronicle has the following regard-

'According to advices received in the city yesterday, the Liverpool Chamber of Shipping will take action in the matter of the alleged 'crimping' in San Francisco harbor. The Liverpool body has, it is reported, requested the British Govern-ment to ask the United States authorities to put a stop to the practice of extorting money from captains of British ships that call here. New York shipowners are said to be interested in the movement. Resolutions expressing the sense of the Liverpool Chamber of Shipping have been drawn up, reciting that for years British ships have been subjected to the practice of 'crimping' in San Francisco harbor. Boarding-house men, according to the res-olutions, have made it a practice to get crews of vessols away from masters, and hold them for other vessels, the captains of which pay from $20 to $75 per sallor. This, say the Liverpool shipping men, imposes a heavy penalty upon shipping, and causes great trouble."

In this connection it might be men tioned that Portland is the only port on the Pacific Coast where ships are not having trouble and suffering considerable expense in obtaining crews at the present time. The wages of sailors out of Portland are lower than they are out of any other port on the Coast, and ships are no longer held up for excessive blood money. The present arrangement seems to be sat-isfactory all round, and less complaint is

A GREAT REMEDY A GREAT REMEDY A GREAT REMEDY

NEWARK, N. J., January 25, 1900. "For nearly five years I suffered from kidney and liver troubles and had given up hope that I would ever be cured. I was told by the doctor that I had Bright's disease, and he thought I was incurable. My legs swelled up so with dropsy that I thought I was done for. A friend told me to use Warner's Safe Cure and I did. I used in all about six bottles. It is a great remedy and made me a new man." PATRICK KELLY. Patrolman of the First Precinct, City of Newark.

Movement of Venezuelan Troops. NEW YORK, March 23.-A dispatch to the Herald from Port of Spain, Trinidad,

It is reported that the maliship Orin flying the Venezuelan flag, has left here with an armed guard and with Venezuelan troops. The destination of the troops is unknown. The Venezuelan gunboat General Crespo, which arrived here on Tues-day, brought 150 soldiers, on their way to Bolivar. Twenty of the soldiers, it is said, were transferred to the mailship to act as guard. When the steamship left the gunboat followed.

HOW CAESAR DIED.

School Boy's Essay That Is a Little Hazy as to Facts.

Chicago Inter-Ocean The 16-year-old son of George Finkler, a West-Madison-street merchant, was asked by his teacher Thursday to write a short essay on the anniversary of Caesar's death, March 15. The result was the following: "Julius Caesar was born in the year 1492, during the reign of Columbus. He chose war as a trade, and liked it very well.

are still sanguine of eventual success, and who was running for Alderman. Mark Antony was one of the election judges, and a preacher of funeral sermons. Ceasar was stabled as he was coming out of the City Hall. When he fell he shouted 'Vent. vidi. vici.' The body was taken to the morgue.
Mrs. Ceasar had been warned that her husband might be stabbed, and he was told to remember the date, but no atten-tion was paid to it. That night there was a big earthquake, and people saw phan-toms. It was a wild night. The coroner held an inquest, and returned a verdict of murder while temporarity insane. Mr. Ceasar left many relatives and debts, but they were canceled. He was the man who made the famous remark: Till fight it out on this line if it takes all Summer, and compiled a book for the 10th grade Little is known about his folks, but he was popular in his set until he got into Dangling From a Limb.

RIPLEY, Tenn., March 23.-The body of negro, Louis Rice, was found dangling from a limb of a tree this morning in the center of the town. The lynching grew out of a trial in the Circuit Court of Lauderdale County, at which Rice testified in favor of one of his color, who was charged with the murder of a white man named Goodrich.

Did you know that there are many men who smoke the GEO, W. CHILDS and yet never say anything about it? They want people to think that they are smoking a 10c, cigar, but for themselves they are willing to save half the price when they know they are getting just as good quality.

Smokers who claim that they have tried almost every brand on the market say that there is no doubt about it that the CHILDS cigar is vastly superior of all the other 5c. cigars, and quite the equal of most of the popular 10c. cigars.

The fact that many of the brands of 10c. cigars are not selling as freely as they used to can perhaps be accounted for from the great sale that the CHILDS is having.
