It advises producers against utilizing the present situation to the ut-most, on the ground that such a course would lead to the restriction of exports ing on short time or without profit. Num-erous Chambers of Commerce have dis-cussed the situation. The Solengen Chamber declares that a continuance of the famine will mean the complete shutting down of many factories and the discharge of thousands of workingmen. The Bar-men Chamber has addressed a communi-cation to the coal syndicate, threatening to ask the government to prohibit coal exports. The syndicate has replied that it has reduced the exports to a minimum, but cannot dispense with them altogether. The February trade statistics show a large increase in coal exports.

Borneo Rebel Was Finally Killed. TACOMA, March E.-Today's Oriental mail contains the news that the British forces in North Borneo have finally killed Matt Seliah, the arch rebel, who had three times incited the natives to rebel against British rule. He was killed in February in a fight which followed that in which the British land and naval force under Captain Harrington destroyed three stockade forts which Seliah and his followers made their strongest stand. In this fight a naval gun from the British gun-boat Labuan was used very effectively, sending solid shot through Seliah's forts. The British exhausted their ammunition during the fight. As soon as more could be secured they started after Sellah and willed him in a fight further back in the mountains. His followers were dispersed. The news was cabled to Singapore and Hong Kong by Captain Harrington.
