PROCESS BUTTER CASE AGAIN.—State Food Commissioner Bailey will not let the process butter business rest, even though it may be temporarily suspended on ac-count of his recent prosecutions. He yesterday had a warrant issued out of istice Kraemer's court for Fred C. Diven, a salesman in the employ of Armour & Co., on a charge of selling process butter, The warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy Constable Mitchell, who, in com-pany with Mr. Balley, called at the busness place of Armour & Co. several times, but Mr. Diven could not be found. The new complaint arises from the same old ase, over which one legal battle has een fought in the same court, but Justice Kraemer decided that the wrong man had been prosecuted. The Food Commissioner had appointed an agent to purchase 15 pounds of butter from Armour & Co., and samples of the purchase were sent to State Chemist Shaw, at Corvallia, who pronounced the stuff process butter. Mr.
Bailey declares he will follow the matter up until he convicts the right person of selling process butter.

REMONSTRANCES FILED .- A remonstrance against the proposed improvement of Northrup street, between Ninth and Twelfth streets, has been filed with the Auditor. This is the elevate roadway from the Albina ferry across Couch Lake to Tenth street, an important thoroughfare. The Council had decided to improve it at the expense of the abutting propertyowners. These property-owners have, however, joined with great unanimity in protesting against the proposed im-provement, and as a result the street will have to be closed. A number of property-owners on North Front street have filed nonstrance against the proposed im-ment of the north end of that street rom the boneyard up to Osborne & Co.'s warehouse. This improvement was peti-tioned for by what is understood to be a majority of the property-owners on the street, and therefore the remonstrance is ot likely to prevail. The street needs nproving very much LOTTERY AGENT IN COURT .- FORG MOW accused of selling lottery tickets, pleaded not guilty through his attorney in the Municipal Court yesterday after-noon. Officer Bulger testified as to how he had bought a lottery ticket from Fong e cents, and then collared the Ceies-tickets and all, and brought them to the police station, while a chattering horde of Chinese flocked around him and tried to impede his progress. Fong, a wiselooking old Celestial, sat on a bench in the court and listened to it all, but could not understand a word. His counsel, however, worked hard, and by word and gesture no doubt convinced the wily Fong that he would get him out of it if he The defense offered no evidence, e attorney moved for a dismissal of the case, on the ground that Fong was a tailor, and that there was no evi-dence to prove the piece of paper sold to Buiger was a lottery ticket. Judge nnessy took the matter under advise-nt until today.

SALMON COME HIGH .- "People talk of the dvance in price of commodities," said P. J. McGowan, the veteran salmonpacker, at the Perkins, yesterday, "but the increase in the price paid to fishermen out-distances them all. From 1852 to 1858 we paid fishermen 10 cents aplece for 60-pound salmon. When the price advanced to E cents, we thought the packers would 'bust' up in business, but this season a 60-pound calmon is likely to bring the fortunate fisherman on the Lower Columbia $4.20?" Mr. McGowan explained that men now putting in fish wheels at Rooster Book are offering 511 cents. Rock are offering 5½ cents a pound for the Spring catch of salmon. The canneries of the lower river would probably pay 4 a cent more; while the cold-storage peo-ple would very likely go one better, and offer 7 cents, which would make a 60-bound chinook ferms up 5 5 5 5

Mrs. Edmunds is a graduate of the primary teachers' department of the Bible Normal College, of Springfield, Mass., which institution through courses in psychology, pedagogy and the Bible. accompanied by the preparation of and teaching of primary lessons under the criticism of the instructors, trains its students to be thorough Bible teachers of the children. A large experience is a fur-ther equipment that Mrs. Edmunds brings to her work. All primary and junior teachers are cordially invited to attend

THERE WILL BE ABSENTEES.-It has been imagined by some who are not on the inside that the Front street and Fifth street franchises would come up for con-sideration at the meeting of the street committee tomorrow. It now appears that Chairman Martin, of the street committee, thairman Martin, of the street committee, will not be present, he having gone down the river on business, and will not return in time to be present at the meeting. It is more than likely that by the time for the next meeting of the committee some other member will be absent or sick and there is but little scale. or sick, and there is but little probability of anything being done in the matter of rallway franchises until just before or after the election. PROPLE DO NOT WANT MONEY .- County Treasurer Hoyt, who made a call yester-day for several thousands of dollars' worth of warrants, indorsed during the first five days of May, 1828, finds the hold-ers very careless about coming after their money. He would like for the holders of these warrants to present them and receive their money before April 1. All road warrants indersed prior to July 1, 2899, will be paid on presentation, and are no longer drawing interest. Thousands of dollars' worth of warrants which have been called for two to four months ago are still outstanding. These things go to show that people have more money than they have any use for. "OREGON'S POCKST BOOK."—The Port-land Board of Trade is distributing a neat, compact little statistical publication, entitled "Oregon's Pocket Book," which con-tains a vast amount of interesting and valuable information regarding the State of Oregon and the resources which have made it great. There are not many effusive generalities in the book, but it is made up of facts and figures, concisely stated, which enable the reader to readstated, which enable the reader to read ily understand at a glance the proportions of the particular industry in which he may be interested. The contents of the pocket book were compiled by W. M. Killings-

WITH CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH,-The British bark Berwickshire arrived in port yesterday forenoon direct from Honolulu, where the bubonic plague has been rag-ing. The customs officials were a little ing. The customs officials were a little shy of the papers the capitaln presented, fearing that there might be microbes or plague germs lurking among them, ready to spring out and seize any unsuspecting person. Their fears vanished when a clean bill of health was found among the papers, and a certificate from the Surgeon of the Marine Hospital service in Honolulu, stating that the Berwickshire and the effects of the crew had been fumigated on the steamer with sulphur dioxide. The bill of health states that there have been on the steamer with sulphur dioxide. The 56 fatal cases of bubonic plague at Hono-lulu, the last occurring March 3, 1900. It is to be hoped that when the Berwick-ships was fumigated the rats on board vacated or were suffocated, or went ashore at Astoria, where they will be vaccinated or extirated.

THE CANTATA, "Queen Esther," will be repeated in Taylor-Street Church next Tuesday evening, with all the realism and spiendor which characterized the luxuriant Oriental court of King Xerxes, the greatest of the Persian monarchs. The history of the Jewish captivity and persecutton and their almost miraculous rescue from the vengennee of the great King and the artful Haman through the timely in-tervention of the beautiful Queen Esther will be faithfully portrayed in sacred song. Admission, 25 cents; children, 15 cents; re-served seats, 50 cents; on sale today at J. K. Gill's, Laue's drug store, and Love

Fined $7.59 FOR SMASHING THEFH. Leonard Murtner, an employe of a carriage manufacturing firm, was fined $7.50 by Justice Kraemer yesterday for having acsaulted William Phillips, his friend. Murt-ner, according to the testimony, was writ-ing a letter, and Phillips persisted in looking over Murtner's shoulder. The letter-writer got tired of this, and punched his friend in the mouth, thereby smashing a $7 set of false teeth. Murtner pleaded guilty and threw himself upon the mercy of the court.

"FAUST."

By the Lyrics Tonight-Russo in the Title Role.

A better selection of an opera for tonight could hardly have been made by Colonel Thompson than of "Faust." It is an opera that has started the world, and its grand melodies are part of every musical household. Russo will make an admirable Faust. He naturally possesses the physique for the part, and the sweet and delightful voice to sing the many beautiful numbers in the score. "Faust" is an opera that stands apart from all other productions, not so much on account of the music as because of the intensely dramatic story which unfolds itself in the dramatic story which unfolds itself in the progress of the opera.

Miss Josephine Stanton will sing Marguerite, and, needless to say, will sing it well. It will be her first opportunity to display the superb quality of her voice. Mr. Kunkel will be the Mephistopheles. Mr. Rattenberry, Valentine; Miss Leekley will sing Siebel. The following is the cast:

Faust Signor Domenico Russo
Valentine Harry L. Rattenberry
Mephisto George Kunkel
Wagner Alex Joel
Siebel Miss Maude Leekley
Martha Miss Bertha Nellson
Mauguerite Mss Jesephine Stanton

STREET-CAR

CITY & SUBURBAN TO BUILD TO DOERNBECHER WORKS.

East Twenty-eighth Street Will Be Improved-News of the East Side.

Within the next $0.4days, or less, there will be a street railway and an improved street to the site of the Doernbecher factory. It is proposed to improve East Twenty-eighth street to the Sandy road, and to the buildings of the plant there, and the City & Suburban Railway Company will construct a spur to this point.

It was arranged yesterday that the contractor for the improvement of East Burnside, between East Twenty-eighth and East Thirtieth streets, will get the work accepted, without the intersection of East Twenty-eighth street being comwork accepted, windut the intersection of East Twenty-eighth street being com-pleted. This has been left in its present condition pending the improvement of East Twenty-eighth street and the con-struction of a branch of the City & Suburban Rallway Company to the Sandy road. The street will be improved and the rallway branch built as soon as the matter can be got into shape. The object is to reach the site of the Doernbechar factory, under construction on the O. R. & N. Railway. When that factory is in operation a large number of men will be cmployed, and it will pay to construct a branch railway to the grounds. It is esti-mated that the buildings needed can be completed within 60 days so that the es-tablishment can be in operation. By that time East Twenty-eighth street can be improved and the street-car track laid. The completion of this factory will also have the effect of increasing the traffic over the Burnside-street bridge.

Will Forfeit His Bail.

Fred Strong, who gave $25 ball for als appearance in Justice Vreeland's court ast week, has not yet put in an appear He was arrested on complaint of Michael Spahn, who lives near Rockwood, on a charge of the larceny of a set of wagon wheels, and gave $25 cash ball to Constable Cox for his appearance. As he has not come to the court his ball will be forfeited to the county. Spahn, who lost the wheels and made the complaint, has recovered his property, and seems to be satisfied. Strong said that he obtained the whoels from a second-hand dealer, and was willing enough to restore them to Spahn when the latter proved they were his property. James Sullivan, who has been searching high and low for his four wheels, has obtained no trace of them. He visited the paint shops and second-hand dealers, but failed to find them. There is much mystery surrounding the stealing of these wagon wheels, but now that the farmers along the Base Line road are on the watch and keep their wheels chained, the thieves will not likely find opportunity to steal any more

W. N. Carter, formerly the publisher of the Albina Courier, before consolidation. is now at Nome City, and, according to reports, is in on the ground floor. It is stated that Carter went from Dawson ahead of the rush and got hold of proper-ty now valued at $10,000. Carter has had pushed on to Dawson, where he soon got on his feet again, and a friend stated that he could have sold out his property for $10,000, but with his usual had luck he dropped his holding for little or nothing, and went to Nome, where he has again made a start Conter has been about the made a start. Carter has had a checkered career since he left Portland, but his many Albina friends are hopeful that he will yet come out of Alaska a wealthy man, and if he does there will be a "hot time in the old town."

REVIVAL SERVICES.—The revival meeting last night at the First Baptist Church was largely attended, and another will be held tonight. A sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. Alexander Blackburn, and vocal solos will be rendered by Professor W. M. Wilder.

Collection of ciothing is at the home of Rev. J. Staub, Sunnyside, and fills up several barrels. Mr. Staub says that he is surprised at the quantity and good quality of the articles that were sent in. The missionary discovered that settlers in an out-of-the-way place, where he had gone to establish a Sunday school, were wanting in clothing, and he made an appeal for help. There has been a generous peal for help. There has been a generous response.

> Smallpox Patient Improving. The infant of James McDonnell, on East Sixteenth and East Stark streets, sick with smallpox, is getting along satisfac-torily, and will recover. Yesterday none of the other members of the family had contracted the disease, and they may escape. The house is carefully quarantined. There is no general alarm in the Central School, and it is felt by parents that their children are safer in than out of school.

Housework is hard work without Gold Dust"

WASHING FEATHER PILLOWS Peather Pillows need washing once a year. Choose a bright, sunny day; fill a large tub half ull of water that is almost boiling hot; dissolve

Gold Dust Washing Powder it to make a good suda; put one or two pillows in, according to size, push them up and down and rub them between the hands until clean. If one suds is not enough, use two or more; rinse in clear warm water, wring as dry as possible, and bang them out; when dry, shake well, and they will be as light and soft as new pillows.
