QUESTION OF VERACITY. - Laborers anpear to be scarce in many sections of the Northwest now. An Italian saloon man has been filling an order for 56 Italian la-borers to be sent to some point on the Northern Pacific Raliway, near Tacoma. He charged a number of the men $2 for getting them the job, and they complained, and the License Officer has been after the aloon man to collect an employmen agent's license from him. He said he had not charged the men anything, but a num-ber of the men said they had paid him is each, and the relative veracity of the two parties has now to be established. SHOT AT ROBBERS.-Two men tried to break into a saloon kept by "Dutch Joe" at the corner of Milwaukie avenue and Ryan street, last night, a few minutes before 12 o'clock. Officer. Dubois heard before 12 o'clock. Officer Dubois heard the noise and confronted the outlaws, one of whom fired a shot at him. The officer returned the fire and followed it up with four more shots, but the men escaped. The saloon-kesper was waiting on the inside with a loaded Winchester, but the appearance of Duhois saved him the trousarance of Dubois saved him the trouof shooting at the robbers. CURFEW SHOULD RING LATER. - The cur-few bell should not ring at night until 9 o'clock, according to Judge Hennessy. His honor says the ordinance provides that the bell shall be rung at 9 P. Newly Organised Band of Mercy Gives an Entertainment.

The Band of Mercy, organized through the efforts of Miss Eugenia Kern, at the Stephens school, held a meeting in Grun-er's Hall yesterday afternoon at 3:30. The meeting was opened by the children re-citing the pledge is union. A regular pro-gramme, consisting of songs and recita-tions, was given by the children. One little girl of 6 years made a hit among the children by the way she marched upon the stage and delivered her plece. Followthe stage and delivered her piece. Follow-ing the programme Miss Kern talked on the intelligence of animals, and read an interesting story to that effect. The offi-cors of the band are: President, Gertrude Donaghy; vice-president, Chester Perkins; scoretary, Odaville Yates; chairman pro-gramme committee, Francis Baker.

In the Tenth Ward.

The Albina Republican Club, of the Tenth Ward, held the largest club meet-ing at Gomes Hall last night that has Tenth Ward, held the largest club meet-ing at Gomes Hall last night that has yet taken place in that part of the city. Between 500 and 600 people were present. The gathering was called to nominate a primary ticket. J. C. Jameson presided. Until 10 o'clock the time was taken up with business and speeches. The names of about 200 new members were placed on the roll. While this was being done, Judge B. M. Smith, S. H. Gruber and Mayor Storey delivered addresses. Then came the election of a primary ticket. Some time was consumed by a lively debate be-tween Judge Smith and John T. Whalley as to the method of election. Mr. Whal-ley's resolution that the nine names re-ceiving the highest vote be the primary nominees prevailed. About 30 names were placed in nomination, and the vote pro-ceeded with. The indications were that it would take several hours, owing to the large vote. The following ticket, repre-senting John C. Jameson's strength in the ward, seemed to have the best chance of succeeding. At a hate hour last night, when the voting begun, there was little doubt of its being elected: J. C. Jame-son, S. E. Willind, L. B. Cottingham, John T. Whalley, E. C. Robbins, F. A. Balley, M. A. McEachern, L. T. Gilliland, W. F. Turnbull.

The Spring meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Portland was held yesterday in the Portland was held yesterday in the Fourth Presbyterian Church, and was largely attended. It was an all-day meeting, and at noon an elegant lunch was served in the Sunday-school room. The meeting opened with devotional ex-taiked a few minutes about the Fall meti-ing. Miss Ross, secretary of the Chris-tian Endeavor Society, made her semi-annual report, and then came the inter-esting part of the forenoon session. This was praise for moral victory, conducted by Mrs. H. N. Scott. The moral victory was the expulsion of Brigham H. Roberts from Congress and this howers in a from Congress, and this brought up a general discussion. The statement was made that many Mormon elders were quietly at work in Portland and vicinity, and the women decided to wage a sharp warfare on their practices. The reports of the box secretary, the Junior Christian Endeavor secretary, and the corresponding secretary occupied the rest of the morning. Mrs. Gilbert opened the afternoon ges-sion with devotional exercises, and Mra. Holt spoke of the results of the Chinese Women's Home. Since the opening of this establishment 60 Chinese girls have been rescued, and the moral effect has almost stopped the traffic in Chinese girls. Reports of the different auxiliary societies and of the treasurer were encouraging, and with the election of officers conclud-ed the business. Mrs. Boyd made an interesting talk on "Hopeful Signs," in which she reviewed the work of the Board of Foreign Missions for the past year. The musical numbers on the programme were very finely executed. The following officers were elected for he ensuing year: President, Min. W. B. Leo; vice-presi Worth, Mrs. H. N. Scott, Mrs. A. M. Worth, Mrs. James Garson, Mrs. James Wilson, Mrs. S. E. Miller, Mrs. W. E. RUSSO IN FINE FORM.

Much Vim in His Work, But "Boccaccio" Was Slow.

At Cordray's Theater last night the Duke's magnificent solo as interpreted by Russo, and the quartet from "Rigo-letto" were the attractive features of the Boston Lyric Opera Company's bill. "Boccaccio" was also sung. Russo last night sang in his usual artistic style, and night sang in his usual artistic style, and entered into his part with more vim than in any character essayed by him so far. The quartet as sung by Miss Stanton, Miss Leekley, Russo and Frank Masiln, was musical and forceful, the intricate pas-sages being well handled, and the volces blending admirably. As far as "Boc-caccio" was concerned, there seemed to be called of the seemed to be quite a lack of preparedness, and an entire lack of unanimity between the different parts in the concerted passages. At times there were halts in the dialogue that were somewhat embarrassing to the audience.' Miss Stanton and Miss An-drews both sang their parts admirably, though Miss Andrews' voice lacked some of its brilliancy on account of a cold. The ducts between these ladies were the features in "Boccaccio." Miss Leekiey, as the cooper's wife, sang and acted her part well. Somehow it was an off night.

The stand-bys in comedy work, Kunkel and Henderson, did not enter into the fun with their usual spirit, and at times the comedy work seemed forced. Tonight and Friday night, "The Pretty Persian," with the third act of "Lucia di Lammermoor," will be sung. Signor Russo will appear in "Lucia" as Edgardo, smithsonian Institution. NEW YORK, April 4.-A special to the Tribune from Washington says: Admiral Dewey's decision to déposit his trophès in the Hall of History in the Smithsonian Institution is attributed to his recognition of the disappointment mani-fasted by the great crowds of sightseers visiting Washington, who were compelled to forego the pleasure of seeing the col-lection which, for lack of space, cannot well be displayed in his own home, and which is really too valuable to be properly cared for in a private house. He also has been influenced by the fact that the articles, which aggregate in in-trinaic value about $100,000, will not be safe when his home is closed this Sum-mer. Under the circumstances he has readily accepted the offer of Secretary Langley, of the National museum, to be-Langley, of the National m come responsible for the safety of the
