Platform Adopted.

Populist Doctrines on Railroad Legislation Voted Down.

When the convention adjourned Thursday night the pending question was the adoption of the Populist substitute for the third plank of the platform relating to government by injunction and liability of railroads to their employees.

Chairman H. H. Heath, of Clackamas, demanded the reading of the original plank adopted by the subcommittee of the platform committee, and of the substitute agreed upon at the conference.

SQUARE OVER OFFICE.

Both Parties Nominate Candidates in the Sixth District.

The greater part of the afternoon was devoted to district nominations and ratifications of the nominees of the Populists.

WILLIAM SMITH

FUSION NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS, 5 SECOND DISTRICT.

Committees from both conventions were on the go all the time.

The coming and going of the Populist committee attracted little attention, but the most significant part of the day was the election of a chairman.

Chairman Chamberlain ruled that the matter was beyond the control of the Populist committee.

Subsequently Redfield of Morrow moved to refer the dispute to a joint district convention.

Butcher of Baker offered a resolution endorsing the Constitutional amendment providing for increase of the Supreme Court from three to five members.

At the request of O'Day, who acted in behalf of a woman who had lobbied among the delegates, a resolution was offered recommending the equal suffrage amendment to Democratic voters.

The resolution was handed about for a while and finally laid on the table.

Miller of Linn offered this resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we denounce and condemn the inhuman and unchristianlike spirit of the present bill, as depriving many counties of their just and fair representation in the spirit if not the letter of our Constitution.

State Central Committee.

On roll-call of counties, the following State Central Committee was elected:

Baker—J. H. Robbins, Sumpter. Benton—E. E. Wilson, Corvallis. Clackamas—T. F. Cowing, Oregon City. Clatsop—J. E. Cammell, Astoria. Columbia—Henry Henderson, Maygen. Coos—John F. Hall, Marshfield. Byrd, Buras. Jackson—A. N. Solis, Jacksonville. Josephine—J. O. Booth, Grant's Pass. Klamath—E. F. Van Griffith, Klamath Falls. Lake—J. S. Lane, Lakeview. Lane—L. Campbell, Eugene. Lincoln—L. G. Toledo, Toledo. Linn—H. C. Watson, Albany. Malheur—E. H. Teat, Ontario. Marion—W. M. Kaiser, Salem. Morrow—John H. Walcott, Hillsboro. Multnomah—J. C. Welch, Portland. Polk—A. J. Goodman, Independence. Sherman—J. Morris, Wasco. Tillamook—Not filed. Union—J. D. Boyd, Pendleton. Umatilla—P. McDaniel, Cove. Wallowa—Thomas Humphrey, Joseph. Wasco—H. C. Liebe, The Dalles. Washington—John H. Walcott, Hillsboro. Wheeler—W. W. Hoover, Fossil. Yamhill—H. L. Heath, McMinnville.

Having finished his business, the convention arranged for a joint meeting with the Populist convention as an assembly of electors to nominate the ticket put up by the state conventions. This was done at 5 o'clock.

Before adjourning, the Democratic convention, by motion of Citizens of Multnomah, returned thanks to the Oregonian and the Telegram for fairness in reporting its proceedings.

DISTRICT NOMINATIONS.

Fusion Candidates for Judges, District Attorney and Legislature.

Following are the judicial and Legislative nominations made yesterday by the Democratic and Populist State Conventions.

There is no fusion in the Sixth Judicial District. Here the Democrats have nominated A. D. Stillman for Judge and T. G. Halley for District Attorney, and the Populists R. J. Slater for Judge and J. T. Hinkle for District Attorney.

It is impossible to tell who of the nominees in the list are Democrats and who are Populists. In both conventions great confusion prevailed while the nominations were being made, and the reporters were unable to get the politics of the nominees.

In the Democratic convention, Judge Bennett, as chairman of the delegation from the Legislative district of which Wasco County is part, handed a number of nominations to the secretary. These were never announced to the convention and are here made known for the first time.

Circuit Judges.

Fourth Judicial District (Multnomah County), Department No. 2—Left vacant. Democrats will support Alfred F. Sears, Jr., the Republican nominee.

Fourth District, Department No. 4—Colonel W. H. Edinger, of Portland.

Sixth District—A. D. Stillman, of Pendleton (Dem.), R. J. Slater (Pop.).

Polk and Lincoln—L. M. Simpson, of Lewistown.

Multnomah and Clackamas—J. T. Miller, of Portland; G. S. Reavis, of Union and Wallowa—G. S. Reavis, of Enterprise.

Harney and Malheur—W. T. Baker, of Harney. Klamath, Lake, Crook and Wasco (three Representatives)—G. T. Baldwin, of Klamath; G. Springer, of Crook; S. P. Moss, of Lake.

Coos and Curry—J. S. Averill, of Gold Beach. Gilliam, Grant, Sherman, Wasco and Wheeler (three Representatives)—W. J. Edwards, of Gilliam; T. R. Coon, of Wasco; Robert Misenor, of Wheeler.

D'Arcy's Claim a Victory.

P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem, and his friends, who were turned down in the Marion County primaries and convention, and turned out of the Democratic State convention, say they got about everything they came to Portland to get. They express themselves as well pleased by the election of Dan J. Fry as alternate to the National convention, and by the nomination of Jeffrey for District Attorney in the Third district.

"PARLIAMENTARY DAY."

Woman's Club Discusses Subject of Government.

Yesterday was "parliamentary day" at the Woman's Club, and about 15 members were present to participate in the exercises.

The vice-president, Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, presided. After disposing of the minutes of the previous meeting, an invitation from the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, which will meet at Pendleton May 21, inviting delegates from Portland to attend, was read and acted upon.

The president, Mrs. J. B. Comstock and Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, were elected as delegates. Mrs. F. Eggert and Mrs. A. S. Dunaway were elected delegates to the General Federation of the Women's Clubs, which is to meet at Milwaukee, Wis., June 4, with Mrs. Ben Selling and Mrs. Grace Watt Ross as alternates.

The opening and in fact the principal feature of the programme, was a paper entitled "The Science of Government in Its Relation to Parliamentary Law," read by Mrs. H. E. Heppner. The paper was ably written and showed a very thorough appreciation by the writer of the uses as well as the usefulness of parliamentary law. Mrs. Heppner read in a clear, distinct voice.

After stating the topic under discussion, she said: "Let me say from the start that I know nothing upon the subject, but of course this is no reason why I should not attempt to do so. I have made my charming essay on the 'Delights of Poverty' on a table of solid gold, which was his own. Fanny Fern drew floods of tears by telling how she breakfasted on gold, dined on diamonds, and ate at breakfast, and went supperless to bed, while the two prosaic old parents assured the weeping public that this unsubstantial dainties were worth a year."

Quoting from John Stuart Mill, the speaker said: "Government is a practical art, giving rise to no question, but those of means and an end to be worked like any other question of business. It is not a science, which is at present out of sight."

Mrs. Heppner went on to define parliamentary law, and to give the derivation of the term parliament. She showed that all bodies or assemblies of people from the most insignificant to the Congress of the United States, that have any rule of action, are controlled by a parliamentary code, without which all would be chaos and confusion.

On the whole, the paper was a creditable document, and deserves more space than can be accorded it in a newspaper report. After a vocal solo by Miss Marie Velazquez, accompanied by Mrs. G. W. Thomas on the piano, Mrs. Dunway made some interesting remarks on the thought of which Mrs. Heppner's paper gave evidence, and in her inimitable manner entertained the club with a most entertaining and edifying talk.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

If Baby is Cutting Teeth, Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the inflamed gum, always all pain, cures wind colic and diarrhoea.

It was weak and weary, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has made me strong and hearty.

It is always the case that much of the data that figures in census reports, particularly that relating to industrial statistics, is not accessible to any but sworn agents of the Government. Men would not tell the details of their business affairs if the information they give were to be made public. Only the totals of business statistics are public property.

SENT THE WHOLE PARTY

ALL SILVER-REPUBLICANS WILL GO TO KANSAS CITY.

Central Committee Elects Delegates With a Lavish Hand—Officers, Re-Elected.

The Silver-Republican State Central Committee met yesterday in the office of the chairman, Judge Seneca Smith, and elected as delegates to the National convention at Kansas City, all the members of the party they could think of, numbering 117. Judge Smith had been instructed by the chairman of the National Central Committee not to send less than 30 delegates, and as he had to send that many, he thought he might as well make it unanimous and send the whole party. All of the delegates will probably not go, so the central committee will be saved the expense of a special train, but they will likely have to charter a baggage coach ahead to carry the proxies of those who stay behind.

Judge Smith was busy yesterday wondering where there would be any room for Democrats in Kansas City on the glorious Fourth if all the states forward Silver-Republicans thither in the same proportion to their population.

When the minutest searching of the party archives failed to reveal any names that had not been placed on the list of delegates, the meeting proceeded with the regular order of business, which was the election of a chairman and secretary of the State Central Committee, Judge Smith and D. S. Dufur, of The Dalles, were respectively chosen to these offices.

When the minutes were read, the party will be in process of expediting preparations for departure to Kansas City when the June election comes round, it was deemed inadvisable to nominate any state, county and city officers. The long adjourned pursuant to the call of the chair, which is looked for in two years, provided the silver agitation is not forgotten by that time. Following are the delegates who were chosen:

- Henry J. Barclay, Woodburn. E. P. Morvorn, Woodburn. J. W. Kincaid, Eugene. Charles F. Nelson, McMinnville. C. W. Talmage, McMinnville. D. S. Dufur, The Dalles. E. Palmer, of Benton County. Francis Kincaid, Portland. W. T. Rigdon, Salem. E. Hofer, Salem. Amos Strong, Salem. Franking I. McKenna, Portland. G. G. Gull, Salem. G. S. Stevenson, Eugene. A. J. Brigham, Dufur. W. T. Macy, McMinnville. J. W. Shute, Astoria. William Langley, Forest Grove. Solomon Jack, Farmington. P. M. Churchman, Sheridan. Phil Cooper, Roseburg. T. W. H. Smith, Astoria. Charles M. Donaldson, Baker City. Dr. George E. Sanders, The Dalles. W. Hampton Smith, Astoria. Dell Stuart, Portland. C. J. Whittaker, Pendleton. F. M. Saffron, Baker City. George H. Thomas, Portland. James H. Sewell, Hillsboro. J. C. Trullinger, Astoria. F. M. Wilkins, Eugene. D. K. Hunsaker, Portland. D. B. Rees, Union. Richard Lee, Astoria. Ludwig Wilhelm, Portland. J. C. Cooper, McMinnville. S. G. Lockwood, Loring.

Publicity of Census Data.

ASTORIA, April 12.—To the Editor—I read in The Sunday Oregonian an article relating to the census. The census being paid for out of the public funds, we thought the matter thus obtained was open to public inspection, but we saw by Sunday's Oregonian that none but the sworn agents of the Government had access to the data thus obtained. Did this statement of The Oregonian refer only to the matter thus obtained in 1890, or is it always the case that none but the sworn agents of the Government have access to the data thus obtained?

INQUIRER.
