

BOY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight. MARQUAM GRAND—"Pud" and Wilson. BORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington street)—"Have You Seen Smith?"

The Easter Sunday Oregonian will be an issue of unusual excellence, and will commemorate the advent of the joyous season, symbolized by Easter, in its Christian and worldly aspects, both in reading matter and illustrations. A full-page illustrated article on the origin of the great festival, and its ancient and modern observance, will be a leading feature of the publication, and "Ellen Osborn," the famous New York fashion writer, contributes a letter on the preparations in the fashionable world of the country's metropolis for the display of Spring finery in the annual "after-church" Fifth Avenue parade. "Agatha," in her society gossip, will treat incidentally of the same topic, as concerning some costumes to be worn by Portland women today, besides giving the social news of "holy week" and a forecast of events in the near future. The approaching bench show and the general revival of interest in the local sporting field will be covered fully, while the attractions at the theaters will also receive their proper share of attention. "Meriwether's" review of the week will, as usual, constitute one of the attractive features of the paper. The Paderewski engagement will be treated in the music columns, and caustic criticisms of the great pianist, by two of the foremost musical critics of the East, will be reproduced in the same department. The children's page will be especially attractive, and all the other features of the Sunday Oregonian will be maintained at their past high standard. The great Crockett serial, "The Isle of the Winds," and the Carpenter correspondence continue, and the news of the world and the developments of the past political week will be given due space.

CHINESE LOTTERY CASE.—A stubborn legal battle was fought in the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon over the sale of Woo Hop, accused of selling lottery tickets. Evidence introduced in behalf of the city went to show that on April 2, 1905, A. L. Roberts, who works in an East Side packing-house, had gained entrance to Hop's place, 337 1/2 East Stark street, and purchased a lottery ticket, dated April 2, 1905. Roberts did not succeed in entering the place, and the ticket was found by him with Detective Duizer, but on the second occasion he was in company with R. P. Bennett, also a packing-house hand, and was admitted without ceremony. Bennett testified on behalf of the Chinaman, and denied having seen Roberts purchase the ticket. City Attorney Davis then attempted to show that Bennett was a friend of Woo Hop, and had borrowed money from the Chinaman on various occasions. After a good deal of objecting and cross-questioning on the part of the opposing attorneys, Judge Hennessy concluded to hold Bennett as accessory to the sale of the tickets, and placed his bonds at $100. Woo Hop's case will be decided Saturday morning.

CAVE A DINNER.—Mayor J. M. Church, of La Grande, gave a dinner at the Portland Hotel last night to the members of the Union and Wallawa County delegations in the Republican state convention. Mr. Church was their unanimous choice for the joint Senatorial nomination in the two counties, and it was to make manifest his appreciation of the honor that he gave the dinner. The Senatorial nominee has for many years been one of the leading citizens of Union County, and he has likewise been prominently identified with the industrial interests of Wallawa; so that his choice for the Senatorship is felt to be especially fitting. Union is now a Republican county, and Wallawa, while close, will fall doubtless be found in the Republican column. Besides, Mr. Church has many warm friends in all parties, so that there is no doubt of his election in June. Mr. Church is president of the State League of Republican Clubs.

HAVE AN AUTOMOBILE.—An automobile "bus" will soon appear on Portland streets. Mr. McElrath, manager of the Perkins, having given an order for one from the East. The vehicle will accommodate 20 passengers, and will be supplied with pneumatic tires. Its cost is fixed at $250, but as the wages of one man will be saved by its use, the investment is considered a paying one. The horse bus has many advantages over the one man, it is said, can act as hotel runner and "bus driver, when the autobus is put in operation, and when the vehicle is standing idle on the street or in the barn, it eats nothing. The new vehicle, it is thought, will be running to depots and docks and carrying patrons of the hotel within 90 days.

TROUBLE PARTY.—The chapters of the High School Greek Letter Societies in the city, Psi Gamma Eta Kappa and Eta Delta Iota Chi, composed of young people from both sides of the river, enjoyed a pleasant trolley party last night over the lines of the Portland Railway Company. The large new car recently built by the company was comfortably filled. The party started from First and Washington and went to Willamette Heights and then to the Columbia River. The rain did not interfere with the enjoyment of the affair. Ample refreshments had been brought along. After about three hours riding, the party disbanded at First and Washington streets, the starting point.

TO HELP SICK AND NEEDY.—An unusually attractive programme of dances has been arranged for the charity ball that is to take place after Easter, and the committee will be busy next week planning the finishing details—the thousand and one dainty trifles that only women of refinement and good taste can think of, yet are necessary to make it the great artistic success it promises to be. Tickets will be found on sale at Woodard, Clarke & Co., by the street, and are desirable of helping the sick and needy.

DEATH OF FRED MEYER.—Fred Meyer, brother of Henry Meyer, of the East Side, died yesterday morning at his home, on Twenty-third and Sawyer streets, at 9 o'clock. He had been in failing health for some time, and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Meyer was 45 years and 4 months old. He left a wife and one child. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, Lone Fir Cemetery will be the place of interment.

PASSOVER SERVICES.—Passover services will be held at the Congregation "Talmud Torah," corner Sixth and Hall streets, this morning, 8:30; and Sunday morning, 8:30, at which time Phil F. Ragaway will address the congregation, in answer to H. W. Wainwright, of California, who is cordially invited. Rev. Max Levin will officiate.

THE First Presbyterian Church, Alder and Twelfth streets, Rev. Edgar W. Hill, D. D., pastor. Sunday morning service, "The Ground of Our Hope"; evening, "Easter Prayers Service." Music by quartet, under Edgar E. Courson.

ATTENTION!—Lectures will be held at the Congregation "Talmud Torah," from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M., by the ladies of the Second Baptist Church, on Fourth street, between Morrison and Yamhill.

SHILOH Mission, Second and Jefferson streets. Hear Rev. H. Allen, Sunday morning, on "The Resurrection"; evening, on "Footprints of Angels in Fields of Revelation."

ROSEBUD 2 years, 2c; carnations, heliotropes, salvia, 3c dozen; pansies, verbena, cosmos, lobelia, 1c doz.; other plants also cheap. Burkhardt Bros., 22d and Glisan.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—This evening at 8 o'clock, Hirsch-Selling building, the class in "Data of Education" of the Teachers' Association will meet.

BROUGHT TO PORTLAND

BAKER COUNTY SLEEPER HERE FOR TREATMENT. Mrs. Nichols is Now Slumbering in an East Side Sanitarium—Hopes for Her Recovery.

Mrs. D. Nichols, the Bridgeport, Baker County, woman, who fell into a sound sleep April 1, and has never been thoroughly awakened since, was brought to Portland yesterday by Dr. H. E. Curry, her physician, and is now in an East Side sanitarium. She slept soundly on the way from Bridgeport to Baker City, and from Baker City to Portland, and is apparently in a healthy, restful slumber, although the fact that she cannot be fully aroused gives her physician and her relatives much concern. Thus far Dr. Curry has been able to bring her to a state of semi-consciousness by means of an electric battery, and at such times she takes a little nourishment, but she instantly relapses into slumber, and no efforts have succeeded in bringing her fully to her senses, even for a second.

Dr. Curry, who was seen by an Oregonian reporter yesterday, gave the following account of the case: "Sunday, April 1, Mrs. Nichols laid down a paper she had been reading, and started to step outside the house a minute, complaining of a dizziness in her head. Her husband advised her to lie down, but she insisted that she would soon be all right and walked out on the porch, where she sank into a chair, apparently very sick and faint. After she had rested a minute in the open air, her husband assisted her into her room, and she lay down on the bed. He returned in a minute, and found her snoring, as if in a sound sleep. Believing that she was taking a nap, he left her, but returned presently and tried to rouse her, thinking that she would be better off if she were in a more comfortable position, as she had sunk on the bed all in a heap.

"He soon found that he was unable to make her awake, and his anxiety became alarmed, called in the neighbors, whose united efforts produced no effect on the slumberer. I was summoned then, and on arriving found that the woman's pulse, respiration and temperature were all normal; in fact, that she was sleeping. With the aid of an electric battery I succeeded in arousing her, and she was able to walk into the next room, although she remained considerably dazed. As soon as she had taken a little nourishment, however, she relapsed into slumber, and has remained so ever since, only partially awakening now and then, when an effort is made to arouse her.

"Her slumber continues uniformly heavy throughout the day, but along about 3 o'clock in the morning she is more readily aroused. I do not know what can be done, but I am confident that she is in Portland, and under the care of an expert in nervous diseases, she will recover."

Mrs. Nichols is about 55 years old, and has several children, nearly grown up. She has always led an active, energetic life, on her husband's farm, and has enjoyed excellent health. Dr. Curry returned last night to his home in Baker City.

EAST SIDE AFFAIRS.

Sneak Thief Robs a Motorman's House—Other Matters. Some time yesterday forenoon the dwelling of Motorman Sampson, employed on the Mount Tabor branch of the City & Suburban Railway, was broken into and articles to the amount of about $40 were taken. Mr. Sampson had gone to work in the morning, leaving his mother at home. She went to the West Side in the morning, and hence there was no one about the house until noon, when she returned, and found the door open. The burglar took Mr. Sampson's ax and broke open the door. He then ransacked the house pretty thoroughly, but found no money.

Old Ladies' Home. Monday the Old Ladies' Home Society will give their annual reception and tea at the Hobart-Curtis, and trust that interest in their worthy object will be evidenced by a large attendance. The admittance, 25 cents, includes tea.

AT THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

New Relics, Including Two From the Old Ship Columbia. The rooms of the Oregon Historical Society, top floor of the City Hall, northwest corner, will be open today from 1 to 5, and 7:30 to 9 P. M. Among other articles of interest the following accessions have been received during the past week: A photograph of Portland, taken between the years 1886 and 1888, 14 1/2 x 20 inches, donated by George T. Myers. This is highly interesting, as giving opportunity for comparison between conditions existing then and now.

A photograph, 8 1/2 x 10 of the original buildings erected upon the block where the City Hall now stands, and the sidewalk on street unimproved, and the sidewalk on Jefferson street to be two lone planks, running east and west. A ship carpenter's sander and gauge used in the construction of the ship Columbia, at Hobart's Landing, near Boston, in 1792. As will be remembered, this vessel was the first to carry the American colors around the world, leaving Boston on her memorable journey in 1792, and on her second trip, under command of Captain Robert Gray, to discover and name the Columbia River in May, 1792. These valuable relics were discovered in Beechwood, Mass., in the hands of Mrs. J. Pratt, an uncle of Mrs. J. C. Luckey, of this city, and sent here through the correspondence of the assistant secretary of the society, and are to remain permanently to keep company with the mirror and ship chest of Captain Gray.

Another Local Appointment. E. J. Flynn, of Salt Lake, has been appointed traveling freight and passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific, vice R. J. A. O'Reilly, resigned, to accept service with the Illinois Central. Mr. Flynn has been in the Missouri Pacific's service for several years, with Salt Lake as his headquarters. In being transferred here, his former territory is not merged with this. Mr. Flynn arrives in Portland Sunday, and begins his new duties Monday.

WHERE TO DINE. Get the best food, thereby insuring health, strength and happiness, at Portland Restaurant, 305 Washington, near 5th.

DOUBLE TRACK COMPLETED.

The double track on the Mount Tabor branch of the City & Suburban Railway Company, between Belmont street and Rosedale, just east of Sunnyside, has been completed. Work has been in progress on this stretch for several weeks, but it was completed yesterday, and the cars were using it. It has been well ballasted and put in good condition. There will be no more waiting for cars on that line.

Grand Republican Rally. A grand Republican rally and ratification meeting will take place this evening at Hunter's Hall, East Thirty-fourth and East Yamhill streets, under the auspices of the Sunnyside Republican Club. The club has made special preparations for this occasion; a band has been engaged, and a quartet of good singers will be present. Wallace McCamry will deliver the main address of the evening, and remarks will be made by others. Henry S. Rowe, the candidate for Mayor on the Republican ticket will be present. The Sunnyside Club has issued invitations to other organizations to attend this gathering, which is the first to be held after the convention, and all will be welcome.

East Side Notes. "Auntie" Fox of Astoria, who was formerly a resident of the East Side, in early days, and is still well remembered, is visiting her former friends.

C. W. Wheeler, head lecturer of the Woodmen of the World, lectured last evening in the Centenary Methodist Church, in the interest of that order. Mr. Wheeler is an able speaker, and talks with much force.

The funeral of Charles Logus, an old-time resident of the East Side, took place yesterday from his late home. There was a large attendance of the friends of the family. Lone Fir cemetery was the place of interment.

Good Friday was observed yesterday at the St. David's Episcopal Church, East Morrison street, services commencing at 12 M., and continuing till 3 o'clock. The music was especially excellent, and the services full of interest.

William W. Kyrk, an old resident of Montavilla, died yesterday at his home, 114 Lodge, A. O. U. W. His age was 54 years. The funeral will take place tomorrow and the Brainerd's cemetery will be the place of interment.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Willie Collier Comedienne. The sale of seats for Willie Collier, who is to appear at the Marquam Grand theater April 16, 17 and 18 with Wednesday matinee. In his own new play, entitled "Mr. Smooth," began yesterday morning. The sale yesterday was lively and almost amounted to a stampede, indicating houses during the engagement. Willie Collier is one of the best of the living comedians. One of the New York papers the morning after the production of "Mr. Smooth" made the comment that "it brought laughter to people who haven't smiled since they backed limp in the Suburban." This seems to be a pretty apt illustration, in a normal; in fact, that she was sleeping. With the aid of an electric battery I succeeded in arousing her, and she was able to walk into the next room, although she remained considerably dazed. As soon as she had taken a little nourishment, however, she relapsed into slumber, and has remained so ever since, only partially awakening now and then, when an effort is made to arouse her.

Harry Carson Clarke. Harry Carson Clarke will be at the Marquam Grand theater next Friday and Saturday nights and at the Saturday matinee, in the lovely farce comedy, "What Happened to Jones." The play, while extremely funny in pure tone and is entirely free from all coarseness and vulgarity, and is considered one of the liveliest and most diverting comedies of the day. There is a laugh in every line and all the while there is an entire absence of anything offensive. In the hands of Mr. Clarke the play is elevated above the usual plane of farce comedy. This popular comedian suits so quaint in his fun-making, and his wonderful originality has been so marked in every part that he has portrayed, that he has firmly established in all parts of the country his great ability as a comedian. Most Portland people will be glad to know that the bright and pretty soubrette Miss George Cooper will be with Mr. Clarke in his Marquam engagement of "What Happened to Jones."

"Sunnyside River." "On the Sunnyside River," which will be at Corday's Sunday night and all next week, is a new departure in the line of Southern dramas. While it introduces some colored people in the plantation scenes, it does not in any way depend upon them to attract attention, to the disadvantage of the story and the interest of the audience. The scene in which the colored people appear is a perfectly natural one, and in it are introduced the songs, dances and pastimes of the plantation hands. When the scene is finished the darkies are no more in evidence. This is as it should be; this kind of talent is all very well in its way, and when not overdone, is interesting and amusing.
