BRITISH FIND LITTLE OPPOSITION

Roads in Terrible Condition, So Dutch May Manage to Get Safely Away—Roberts' Report.

LONDON, April 25.—The reports that the Boer army has made practically no progress in its advance are being practically ignored by the British press. The Boer attack upon Colonel Dalgety's northern position, as described from Maseru, was probably a final attempt to rush the garrison before securing a safe retreat, and as Colonel Dalgety successfully repulsed the attack, his further anxiety is felt on his account.

Bound for St. Helena. CAPE TOWN, April 24.—The transport Mariner will sail for St. Helena tomorrow with 1500 Boer prisoners.

WHY HE DROPPED SILVER.

Other Issues Now, Bryan Says, and the East is Learning.

WICHITA, Kan., April 24.—W. J. Bryan arrived here today at 11:05 A. M. on his way from Texas to his home in Lincoln, Neb. His visit was under the auspices of the Sunflower League, a Democratic organization, embracing the state. Mr. Bryan attended a meeting of the club at 7 o'clock, and made a short address, and later delivered an open-air speech to 3000 people.

Battle in Progress.

ALWAL NORTH, April 24.—It is reported that fighting has been heard between Zastroff and the Boers, and it is believed that General Brabant and Hart are in contact with the enemy. The Boers are so numerous that it took them two days to cross the Caledon River, at Bastard's Drift.

TURNED THE BOER POSITION.

Roberts Reports Brabant's and Hart's Positions.

LONDON, April 24, 11:15 P. M.—The War Office issued the following from Lord Roberts: "Bloemfontein, April 24.—General Brabant and Hart yesterday turned the position occupied by the enemy, who tried to prevent their moving, and got into hellegraphic communication with Colonel Dalgety, commander of the besieged garrison at Wepener, who reported all well. General Brabant has three wounded, one missing. Three were wounded on the previous day. The Border Regiment has seven wounded. At 11 P. M. yesterday Brabant and Hart were eight miles south of Wepener."

The Eleventh Division, under General Pole-Carew, and General French's two brigades of cavalry, reached Tweede Celuk yesterday afternoon without having met serious opposition.

"Holograph communication has been established with General Rundle."

"A patrol of the Seventh Dragoons, under Lieutenant James, which was reported missing yesterday, has rejoined General French's camp, with the exception of Corporal Taylor and Private Cook, who are believed to be wounded and prisoners. "Most of the Seventh Dragoons, under General Ian Hamilton, occupied the water works at Sannas Post. As the enemy is holding the neighboring hills in some strength, the Ninth Division, consisting of Colonel Smith-Dorrien's and General MacDonald's Brigades, has been dispatched to support Hamilton."

"General Maxwell's Brigade, formerly General Cherris's, of the Seventh Division, yesterday moved eastward and seized the hills covering the wagon bridge over the Modder River at Kranz Kraal, an important communication, much used by the Boers during the last three weeks. Our only casualty was Private Brun, New South Wales Mounted Rifles, taken prisoner."

COMPULLED UNWILLING BURGHERS

Brabant's Trying Advance From Alwal North.

LONDON, April 25.—A correspondent of the Standard, telegraphing Monday, says: "A Boer commandant left Zastroff last Monday, going in the direction of Wepener. Before leaving, the commandant compelled a number of unwilling burghers to join the fighting force by threats of confiscating their property. "The march hither from Alwal North has been most trying. The roads are in a terrible condition, and the country is full of swamps, rocky passes. The transport, however, surmounted all difficulties successfully. "General Brabant commands the Colonial Cavalry division, and the brigade under General Hart forms the advanced position of the column. Boers are reported to be in great force on our immediate front. They are estimated to be 8000 strong, and 12,000 more are said to be in the Wepener district."

Situation at Mafeking.

LONDON, April 25.—Lady Sarah Wilson, in a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Mafeking, dated Sunday, April 8, says: "Our bread is made now entirely of oats, and is full of husks. This causes much illness. There are many cases of nervous prostration and malarial typhoid among the garrison."

"The news of the check to the relieving column is a terrible disappointment. Last Friday 23 natives issued forth to recover some cattle which had been looted by the Boers. They were betrayed to the Boers, who surrounded them while they were sleeping, and shot them all but one, giving no quarter. One escaped to tell the tale. "The natives are now mad for revenge, and it will be very difficult to control them. The bombardment continues. Our casualties to date are 100 killed and wounded. March aggregated 325 killed and wounded."

Sharp Attack on Dalgety.

MASERU, Basutoland, Tuesday, April 24.—The Boers severely attacked Colonel Dalgety's northern position facing Bokopong Acton, under whose fire they made a determined advance. The British returned a heavy fire, before which the Boers recoiled, after extending across the

LOST BY ONE VOTE

Quay Refused a Seat in the United States Senate.

CLOSING DAY OF THE DEBATE

The Vote on the Chandler Resolution, That Settled His Case, Stood 33 to 32.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Hon. Matthew S. Quay was today refused a seat in the United States Senate on the appointment of the Governor of Pennsylvania, by a vote of 33 to 32. The entire time of the Senate today was devoted to debate upon the question, many of the body delivering speeches. As the day's session wore on the hour for the final vote approached. The yeas and nays were thronged with multitudes, while other multitudes were unable to gain admission. On the floor of the Senate were members of the body now in the city of Harrisburg, Pa., and the members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. The great throng listened with deep attention to the brilliant argument of Spooner in favor of the seating of the former Pennsylvania Senator, and to the dramatic and fiery eloquence of Daniel (Dem. Va.), who appealed to his colleagues to do what, on his oath as a senator, he deemed right, and vote to go justly to the man who was knocking at the Senate doors.

As the big clock opposite the President Pro Tem indicated 4 o'clock, there was a rush in the chamber. Frye, in the chair, announced that the yeas and nays were to be taken. The yeas were 32, and the nays were 33. The Chandler resolution, which would have seated Quay, was defeated by one vote.

THE DEFEAT OF QUAY

Senate as a Whole Rejoices Over Its Action.

ALL THE BLUFFS WERE CALLED

A Precedent Established—Bitter Feeling Against Hanna and the Administration.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The bold bluff made by the Quayites were all called today, and the Senate, as a whole is rejoicing that it did not reverse itself and give a seat to the appointee from Pennsylvania. The Quay men are making desperate charges of all kinds and characters, especially against the men who voted for Corbett and against Quay, but the fact is some of these changed because they did not want the Senate to reverse its action of past years on such an important question. Some Republicans voted against Quay today because they thought his continuance in politics was a menace to good government and a danger to the Republican party. It is now well understood that Quay cannot win in Pennsylvania this Fall, and that the same minority that kept him from election last time will be there to oppose him next Winter. The Legislature of Pennsylvania, knowing what the Senate will do, will not dare to adjourn without electing a Senator, and Quay, no matter how many votes he gets, will not be able to hold up his party in such an election, as he did before. The people of Pennsylvania will repudiate anything that will leave the state presented simply and solely by a man like Quay.

FELL LIKE A BOMBHELL

News of Quay's Defeat Reaches Harrisburg—It Finishes Him.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 24.—Mr. Quay's defeat today fell like a bombshell in the camp of his followers gathered in this city for the state convention tomorrow. In anticipation of his triumph the regular organization leaders had come together from all over the state, and extensive preparations had been made to celebrate what they expected would be a joyous occasion. The general opinion among the Quay lieutenants is that the result at Washington is their leader out of the race for the Senate. The Quay lieutenants are so disappointed that they are declaring that Mr. Quay will no longer be a candidate.

JUDGE DELLENBAUGH DISBARRED

COLUMBUS, O., April 24.—The Supreme Court today affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Judge Frank Dellenbaugh, of Cleveland, and he stands disbarred from the courts of Ohio. The ground of the disbarment was that Judge Dellenbaugh shared a fee with an attorney in a case which came before him.

PORTO RICO NOT FOREIGN.

So Decides Internal Revenue Bureau as to Beer Tax.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Commissioner Wilson, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, has received an inquiry as to whether or not beer imported into Porto Rico is to be stamped under existing revenue regulations as applied for home consumption, or if it can be removed under export stamps, as heretofore. In his reply the Commissioner calls attention to the ruling of his office to the effect that Porto Rico is not a foreign country within the meaning of the customs drawback law, and that, therefore, no refund of duty can be allowed by way of drawback on goods exported to that country. The Commissioner holds that on and after May 1, 1900, articles subject to internal revenue tax cannot be exported to Porto Rico in bond, or with benefits or drawback of the tax paid, under internal revenue laws.
