any effects of one. The shower probably averted serious damage to fruit. The cool, northerly wind which has prevailed for some days has been very unpleasant, and frosts, hail squalls and slight falls of snow have been reported from many places throughout the state. Wednesday er drove a load of hay into town a farmer drove a load of hay into town which was covered with a thin coating of snow. He stopped his team in front of a garden where there was a large snowball bush in full bloom, and a boy scrambled upon the load and made a lot of snowballs and snowballed the snowball bush, and with the snowballs he had made knocked a lot of the snowballs off the tree. This sort of thing does not often happen here, as the two kinds of snowballs are not often found in the same vicinity. CREMATORY OFFICERS,-At a meeting of the board of directors of the crematory corporation recently organized, Emmet Williams was elected president of the company; Judge C. B. Beilinger vice-president; Julius L. Meier secretary and treas-urer. A committee of directors was appointed to make certain arrangements re garding preparatory work, and to confer with Frank B. Gibson as to the manage-ment of the concern, should it commence active work. This committee consisted of President Williams, Vice-President Bellinger, J. Couch Flanders, D. P. Thompson and George W. Weidler As organization and George W. Weidler. As organization is now complete, the question will soon be determined whether sufficient financial support is accorded by the community to begin operations. The prospect looks en-couraging, judging by favorable comments and the cagerness of many to see such an institution established in Portland, so that those desiring incineration will not be forced to patronize San Francisco.

Good Run of Shad -Shad in large num bers continue to be received from the Lower Columbia and Sacramento shad are no longer in the market. The Columbia fish are in very fine condition, and average well in size, but so far the heaviest has not exceeded eight pounds, and the 10-pound shad so often heard of, but never seen, is still being looked for. At the East four to six-pound shad are con-sidered a fair average, but a 9½-pound shad has been seen here, and reports of 12-pound shad have come from California, but no shad of that weight has ever come here. It is fair to presume that, as the Columbia River produces the largest and best salmon and sturgeon known, so it will produce the largest and finest shad known, and all stories of heavier shad than those caught in the Columbia must be taken with a handful of sait.

CERTIFICATES MUST BE STAMPED.-The attention of candidates who will soon be filing their certificates of nomination is to the fact that these certificates require an internal revenue stamp. It seems that all candidates have not kept this in mind. The Republican State Cen-tral Committee desires to impress upon all candidates on their ticket that the law must not be disregarded. What the re-sults would be has not been determined It is unlikely that a man's election would be impaired, but it is quite certain that a candidate failing to use the requisite stamp would be subjecting himself to the penalty for violating the law. The short-est way out of the difficulty is to stamp the certificate before filing it.

CLOVER-DESTROTING INSECT .- A citizen of Albina has a plot of very fine clover, which, to his intense disgust, is being killed by some kind of an insect, which attacks the stalks just above the ground. He at first imagined that snalls, which HELPED HIS FATHER TO ESCAPE-L. A Grayson, a 16-year-old boy, has been ar-rested in Portland, in response to a message from Sheriff Huff, of Montesano, Wash., who arrived last evening to take charge of him. The lad is accused of assisting his father and one Downing to escape from the jail at Montesano. Grayson, the elder, was incarcerated for larson, the cloer, was incarcerated for lar-ceny, and was recaptured here some three weeks ago, and Downing, who had been convicted of murder, was sherily after-ward found hidden in the woods near Montesano. The authorities of Chehalis County accuse the lad of passing tools into the jail, so as to enable the prisoners to cut their way out.

TAXES COMING IN SLOWLY .- Sheriff Frazier yesterday paid over $30,000 more of taxes collected to the County Treasurer, toaking $123,500 in all of taxes for 1856 paid to the Treasurer, and the Sheriff has still about $10,000 on hand. As the total collected amounts to only about oneeighth of the tax levy, although 46 of the 90 days allowed in which to collect the 50 days allowed in which to collect the taxes have passed, it may with truth be said that the taxes are coming in slowly. This, however, is the usual condition of things, as the small taxpayers are the first to pay their taxes, and so far none of the large taxpayers have paid their taxes, nor are they likely to till the 30 days are about

MYSTIC SHRINERS TO VISIT SPOKANE.-Tonight a party of Portland Mystic Sarin-ers will leave for Spokane, to attend a ceremonial session of El Katif Shrine, in that city. The party will include: L. B. Gorman, past potentate of the Salt Lake Shrine; I. W. Pratt. illustrious potentate of Al-Kader Shrine; Thomas McCuske chief riban; F. A. Spencer, assistant chief riban, and the following nobles: W. H. Beckwith, J. A. Haseltine, S. H. Cawston, Thomas Rourke, William F. D. Mercer, George Lang, Otto Guthman, Mr. Foster and several others. The visitors will return Monday morning. Their welcome and entertainment will be "warm."

NOT BROUGHT BACK,-H. C. Herren, whom Detective Cordano hoped to bring back to Portland from Tacoma, doesn't have to come. He was liberated yesterday by order of the authorities in the City of Destiny, and so Mr. Cordano will return without him. Herren was wanted here for drawing checks without having first provided funds for their redemption. He has notified his victims here that the paper will all be honored.

SLIGHT PARALYTIC STROKE.—George N. Fawcett, the very faithful and efficient Bailiff of the Board of County Commi-sioners, has been confined to his house for several days, on account of a slight stroke of paralysis. He was much better yester-day, and will probably be able to resume his duties in a few days. His place is filled temporarily by Joseph Meisner, BENEFIT CONCERT.-Tomorrow evening the papers of Herr Anton Schoolt will give a recital at Parsons Hall for the benefit of the Good Samaritan Hospital. Among those who will participate are: Miss May, Miss Shea, Mrs. Eleanor Ross, Mrs. El-frieda Cohen, Miss Rankin, Miss Velguth, the Misses Pittock, Mr. Shiel, Mr. Belcher, Mr. Vanned.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight.

CORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington Street)
Barlow's Minstrels.

THERE WAS NO FROST.—Many persons were surprised yesterday morning, when they ventured out, that there was no frost on the ground. The night had been cald, and about midnight many closed bedroom windows and put extra blankets in their beds, and as they jumped into bed again predicted that there would be a "frost—a killing frost" in the morning. There was quite a heavy coating of frost on roofs and sidewalks, about 3 A. M., and then the temperature moderated and a slight shower of rain fell, and when daylight came there were no signs of frost or of the most nocular members are about to the Chief's regret. Mr. since, and now transfers to the railroad business much to the Chief's regret. Mr. Noltner is one of the most popular mem-bers of the Police Department, and will be missed by all the force from Chief to patrolmen, but as a better opening is of-fered he goes with best wishes for suc-

STARTED ON ITS JOURNEY.—The old Milwain residence, which has stood so long at the southwest corner of Seventh and Washington streets, was yesterday fairly started on its journey southward. The house was built nearly 30 years ago by E. Milwain, dealer in stoves and tinware, and was used by him as a residence for a number, of years. It was, when built rather a pretentious mansion, and Mr. Milrather a pretentious mansion, and Mr. Mil-wain was a well-to-do and prosperous mer-chant. Reverses succeeded, and the prop-erty passed out of his hands, and he has been dead a number of years. With the removal of this house, and the tearing down of the Deady residence, one block south, both to be replaced with brick business blocks, there is but little left on Seventh street to remind one of early days, and it will before long cease to be a residence street as far as the central a residence street, as far as the central portion of it is concerned.

SOAP ARTIST AGAIN.-The old artist in Soap Artist Again.—The old artist in the misuse of soap, campaign card-writer and political prophet, who journeys here from San Francisco whenever an election is near, to help the gang in relieving can-didates of their loose change, has arrived, He professes to be able to tell who are to be the winning candidates for every office and to write cards only for them office, and to write cards only for them and as he tells every candidate that he is a winner, he is considered a sort of mas-cot, and is patronized by all the candi-dates. His faculty for prophesying win-ning candidates is only exceeded by his penchant for misusing soap by drawing impossible bouquets on mirrors and win-dows. The number of persons who look for little grafts at election times is great; but this old soap man is the only one known of who preys on all the candidates at all the elections on all the Coast, and

BOYS' AND GIRLS' AID SOCIETY.-The 15th annual meeting and exercises of the Boys and Girls' Aid Society will be held in the Congregational Church, corner of Park and Madison streets, next Tuesday even-ing, May 1. The chairman of the evening will be George H. Williams, and an address will be delivered by A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity Church. Besides the reports and addresses concerning the work of the society, a first-class musical programme has been arranged, among others who are to appear being Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, the Oregon quartet, Mrs. Gus Kuhn, and a number of other well-known singers. There will be no charge for admission, and no collection taken, the object of the meeting being solely to bring the work of the society before the public. SOLD THE STEEL .- The tons of cast-steel mentioned a few days ago as forming the only available assets of the Snow & Ice Transportation Company, which devised the wild and impracticable scheme of operating a railroad over snow and ice to Kiondike, have been sold. The steel has been in warehouse here for some time, with a freight bill hanging over it, and in order to get this bill paid as far as possible, the steel was sold at public auction, and brought from $1.50 to $3.50 per ton, which may be considered cheap for cast-steel, when the present prices for iron are considered. The steel will probably be shipped back to the East, where there are furnesses which can utilize it these below.

In this way it is thought 20 to 25 minutes' earlier delivery of business mail can be secured, and as the delivery is near the close of ousiness hours, every minute will count to business now.

DEBATE AT THE High School.—Saturday evening at 8 o'clock another interesting debate will be held in Assembly Hall, of the High School. The respective contestants are the Columbian Society of the Portland University and the High School Debating Society. The subject selected is, "Settlement of Labor Disputes," which possesses thought for many classes. which possesses thought for many classes. This debate promises even greater interest than that preceding in which Puget Sound competed for laurels. The High Sohool alumni are expected to co-operate with the present members of the school in making the attendance large and ap-preciative of the effort at instruction and ntertainment.

BELGIAN HARES EXTRAORDINARY .- Professor Washburn, of Eugene, owns two hares which are among the very best in the state, if not the best. SILVERWARE IDENTIFIED. - Some silverware spoken of in yesterday's Oregonian as having been found upon the person of Harry Marlon, has been identified by Mrs. Robb, of the Occidental Hotel, as having been stolen from her. Mrs. Robb having been stolen from her. Mrs. Robh was not aware of her loss until she read of the articles in the paper, when she made an investigation. At the police station she was permitted to peop at the prisoners, and quickly identified Marion as a former roomer in her house. This settled his case, and a charge of larceny in a dwelling has been placed against him.

COMMENDATORY DEED - Vesterday a room.

COMMENDATORY DEED.—Yesterday a very good example was set by a Front-street saloonman when a man came into his place and presented a check in payment for a drink. The check was for $90. The proprietor, knowing the circumstances of the man's family, promptly paid the man $5, and, walking home with the man, handed his wife the balance, with the admonition not to give her husband any of it. If this example was followed or adopt-ed by more of the saloon-keepers of Port-land, there would be fewer destitute fami-les in the city. Historical Society Rooms, Inc. of the Oregon Historical Society, top floor City Hall, northwest corner, will be open from 1 to 5 o'clock, for the this afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock, for the benefit of the public generally. GAVE A FINE SHOW.

Judge Payne Compliments Portland Kennel Club.

The following letter from H. T. Payne, editor of Pastime, San Francisco, who was judge at the Portland bench show, is highly prized by the local members of the Portland Kennel Club: Portland, April 24.—Mr. J. A. Taylor, Secretary Portland Kennel Club, Dear

Before leaving your city I wish to thank pou, and through you the officers and members of the Portland Kennel Club, and its employes, for the many courtestes shown while officiating as judge at its recent show. It has seidom been my pleasure to witness a more successful exhibition of our canine friends, or a show conducted upon a broader plain of exhibition of our canine friends, or a show conducted upon a broader plain of true sportsmanship than that which has characterized the first effort of your young club. While the work of the judge must always be attended with a knowl-edge that, whatever his awards may be, they must of necessity carry with them disappointment to some, it is gratifying to me, and should be to the managers of your show to realize that however keen your show, to realize that however keer that disappointment the awards were accepted with the true spirit of the sports-man, and the owner of the successful dog was heartly congratulated by his ess fortunate opponent.

A first show is generally attended with many errors and considerable friction; but your inaugural effort, I am pleased to note, was singularly free from these an-noyances, and I do not hesitate to say, that, taken as a whole, in the number of entries, the generous yet business-like management and the almost universal in-terest it succeeded in creating in the hearts of your citizens, it stands without hearts of your citizens, it stands without an equal in my experience.

The quality of your dogs in many classes was of the highest—especially so with your English and Irish setters, and your pointers. These, by the enthusiasm of your sportsmen, have been kept up to a high standard, while the lack of that incentive which bench shows furnish has left the admirers of the non-sporting section without a definitely fixed purpose in breeding or purchasing. This your annual shows will soon correct, and the nual shows will soon correct, and the high quality found upon the sporting benches will be equaled by that of the benches will be equaled by that of the others. Future shows will also bring to your benches a larger number of better conditioned dogs-less gross in flesh and better cared for in coats—which will tend to a more perfect judgment, and more justice to all exhibits.

Again thanking you for the many kind-nesses shown, and congratulating the club, its officers and the City of Portland on the splendid success of your inaugu-ral show, I am, very respectfully, H. T. PAYNE.

HARRINGTON CAMP.

Captain H. L. Wells Elected Commander-Auxiliary to Be Formed.

At a meeting of Harrington Camp, Spanish and Filipino War Veterans, heid at the Armory Wednesday evening, the resignation of Captain Sandford Whiting as commander of the camp was accepted. Captain Whiting has been appointed Bri-gade Surgeon in the Guard, and thought best to resign from his position as camp officer. Captain H. L. Wells, formerly commanding Company L. Second Oregon, was elected Captain Whiting's successor, and entered upon his duties at once as presiding officer. W. A. Pratt, formerly First Sergeant of Company M. Second Ore-gon, was elected secretary of the camp, to succeed George A. Carr, who resigned.

Wednesday evening, May 9, the camp will hold a meeting in Alisky Hall to organize a ladies' auxiliary. Two such auxiliary organizations have been com-pleted by veteran camps, and their flatter-

Good Ground for Believing It Was Handled by King Solomon-It Has Priceless Value.

H. Gottschalk, a traveling man of Chicago, who is now at The Portland, is the possessor of what he claims to be the oldest coin on earth. He has excellent grounds for his claim, and tells a story in connection therewith which is both interesting and confined in the continuous and confined in the continuous and constitutions.
