ING-STOCK EXCHANGE.

The Board of Directors of the Portland The Board of Directors of the Portland Mining-Stock Exchange, organized by the backers and principal business men of the city, held a meeting at the office of its secretary and adopted by-laws for the government of the exchange. As soon as some other necessary preliminaries are completed, the exchange will open its rooms for business.

The officers of the exchange are: Tyler
Woodward, president: L. B. Cox, vicepresident: P. L. Willis, secretary, and J.

Frank Watson, treasurer.

The by-laws, after prescribing the duties of the officers, provide for the appointment of an executive committee of three, to which is confided the general management and control of the business of the exchange, subject to the super-vision of the Board of Directors.

Application for the listing of stocks and properties are to be made to the execu-tive committee in writing, and it is provided that the applicant, if called upon, shall appear before the committee and give a full and truthful statement of all matters pertaining to the application.

No stocks or properties are to be listed or dealt in on the floor of the exchange until the property has been examined by the exchange expert and a written report thereof returned, showing that the property has substantial merit, and propertie sought to be listed as prospects only, and not as mines, must be shown by the expert's report to exhibit such promise as to afford reasonable assurance of ultimate No stocks are to be listed unless the mine or property they represent has been patented to the company or its predeces-sor in interest, and the title to the property reported upon favorably by the at-torney of the exchange.

The corporate organization of the company issuing stock proposed to be listed must also be reported upon by the ex-change attorney, and measures are provided to prevent overissues, duplicating or other irregular or unfair manipulation of the stock.

Properties may be listed either as mines or as prospects. If listed as a mine, due proof must be made that it has produced the examinations to be made. The writ-ten reports of the exchange's experts and attorneys upon listed stocks and properties are to be kept on file, subject inspection by all interested parties.

Provision is made for arbitration by the executive committee of disputes arising between the brokers doing business on the of the exchange and between the brokers and their clients.

All acts of the executive committee are subject to revision by the Board of Di-subject to revision by the Board of Directors, and provision is made for appeals from the acts of the executive commilitee to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors is to appoint a manager, who, under the supervision of the executive committee, is to superintend the business done on the floor of the exchange, to keep a record of the stocks, securities or properties listed and of the ceuritles or properties listed, and of the dely transactions and in such stocks and properties: to see that every day's transactions are closed by actual payments, except where brokers are dealing for clients who are at a distance from the city, in which case 48 hours is allowed for the conclusion of the transactions. conclusion of the transactions and pay-ments, if the amount involved exceeds 500. The manager is also to act as caller in the operations conducted on the ex-change, is to impose fines for violations under his notice, and is to preserve order

Brokers, on being admitted to seats on the floor, are to agree in writing to obof the exchange, and all amendments thereto or changes therein. The broker is to pay for his seat such sum as may be prescribed, and in addition is to pay dues of $100 per year, payable quarterly. Ap-plicants for seats are to be examined and passed upon by the executive committee. Persons applying for sents are to ac-company their applications with a bond in the penal sum of $5000, with sureties to be approved by the executive committee or the Board of Directors, the bond to be for the use and benefit of all persons with whom the broker may deal through the agency of the exchange, the Board to have power to require bonds in increased sun whenever it shall deem it expedient to Seats on the floor are to be transferable, subject to the control of the executive committee or the Board of Directors, a transferee to present an application and bond, file the agreement and be passed upon as though he were an original applicant, after his name has been posted for 10 days. No transfer of a seat is to be permitted until all dues owing the ex change and all debts to persons with whom the seller has transacted business through the exchange and arising out of the transactions have been paid.

Upon the death of a seatholder, or upon eing expelled for any reason, his seat is to be disposed of by the Board, and the proceeds turned over to him or his per-sonal representatives. Upon transfers of scats being made, a transfer fee of $25 is to be paid to the exchange.

Penalties of fines, suspension or expulsion for violations of the rules and by-laws by the brokers are provided for.

Brokers are prohibited from being mem-bers of partnerships holding membership in any other association dealing in simi-lar properties, and no broker is permitted to deal in any stocks, securities, bonds or properties similar to those to be dealt in on the floor of the exchange, exenting on the floor of the exchange, excepting on the floor of the exchange.

Brokers are not permitted to take in or have as partners any person or persons who have been expelled from the exchange, and no director or officer of the exchange is permitted to transact business as a dealer or bearing the second of the exchange is permitted to transact business as a dealer or bearing the second of the exchange is permitted to transact business as a dealer or bearing the second of the exchange is permitted to transact business as a dealer or bearing the exchange is permitted to take in or have a second or the exchange in or have a second or the exchange in or the exchange in or the exchange is permitted to take in or have as partners any person or p ness as a dealer or broker on the floor of the exchange, either directly or in con-nection with any other dealer or broker. Strict penalties are prescribed for fall-ures of brokers in paying dues and fines. Provisions are made for preventing fictitious sales, and no dealing in futures is allowed, and there are many provisions ecuring promptness of delivery of stocks bought and sold, and to secure

The commissions of brokers are fixed on a graded scale, and brokers are not permitted to take any greater or less com missions than those fixed by the by-laws, under heavy penalties. The by-laws adopted are in all substantial particulars identical with those under which the Colorado Springs Mining Stock Association is and has been operating. The last-named association is generally conceded to be the most successful min ing-stock association ever organized in the United States, and it has been of incal-culable benefit in assisting the develop-ment of the mining industry in Colorado.

Sellwood Republican Club.

The Sellwood Republican Club opened the campaign in that part of the city Wednesday evening. During the business meeting a committee consisting of W. Ad-ams, E. Bauer and J. Hite was appointed to call upon the City Council and induce that body to grant wheelmen the privi-lege of riding on the west sidewalk on Milwaukle street, from the Brooklyr school south to Holgate street. The opening address was made by E. A. Austin, followed by songs by the Sellwood Quartet. D. Solis Cohen was billed as the speaker for the evening, but falled to appear, which was a great disappointment to those present. Professor Lance and Major Bell made a few remarks, after which the meeting adjourned. The club will meet every Wednesday evening, and the executive committee promises to have the executive committee promises to have a good supply of speakers on hand.

New Trial Wanted.

In the suit of Carl O. Johnson against Portland Granite & Stone Company, a mo-tion for a new trial was submitted in Judge Sears' court yesterday. The verdict in favor of Johnson was for $8100. He lost one of his eyes, and was otherwise badly injured by a blast in a stone quarry. The motion for a new trial was based on insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict, errors in the ruling of the court at the trial, prejudice of the jury, etc. At the trial only a legal defense was inter-posed, no evidence being submitted.

Senator Hoar's list of "great martyra" starting with Emilio Aguinaldo, is curious "He (Aguinaldo)," says the Worcester statesman, "deserves to be remembered with that small band who have given life, and everything dearer than life, to their country in a losing cause. He shall live with Kossuth, with Oom Paul, with Joubert, with Emmet, with Egmont and Horn, with Nathan Hale, with Warren, with all the great martyrs of history." This is a remarkable enumeration of heroes. Some of them died for a lost cause and others for a winning one. Some of them did not die for any "cause." Nathan Hale was a fine type of patriot, but he suffered for what proved a triumphant struggle, and if he had possessed one-half the clusive ability of the Filipino lender he might have lived to a green old age. Major Andre was a martyr to what Mr. Hoar calls a "losing cause"; and there are those who think the name of the Worcester publicist might be added to the list.

RAISED TO A PRELATE.

RIGHT REVEREND F. X. BLANCHET.

Right Rev. F. X. Bianchet, of this city, has been elevated to the rank of prelate by the Pope. This elevation makes Father Blanchet an honorary member of the College of Fre-lates, in Rome. There are only 12 active members of this college. Their duties are to gather documentary evidence concerning candidates for canonization. The title conferred by the Pope is Monsignor, and is one of great honor.

Archbishop Christie received the apostolic brief naming Father Blanchet Apostolic Pro-notary last Monday, through Monsignor Martinelli. Father Blanchet, however, has not yet been apprised of the honor conferred upon him.

At present he is traveling in Europe, and when last heard from by his friends here, he was in Southern France. He went abroad last Soptember, going direct to Rome, where he spent two months. He was there at the opening of the Holy Door in December. Since leaving Rome he has been vigiting various points of interest in Europe, and is not expected home until the latter part of June. Upon his arrival here he will be presented with the papal brief, notifying him of the

The first 20 years of his ministry on the Coast were in Southern Oregon. His headquarters were nville, where he has many friends.

Prior to leaving here last Fall, Father Blanchet was chaplain at St. Vincent's Hospital. He is now about 62 years old, and is one of the most falthful and beloved workers of the unanimity of attack and phrasing. The "Unfinished Symphony" of Schubert was much more enjoyable than on the first occasion when it was given by the orchestra several months ago. There is, perhaps, no more beautiful melody in all music than the theme which plays hide and seek through the two movements, the allegro and andante, of this symphony. It is a melody that haunts one and returns unbidden at odd moments for many days after it has been heard. The many charming surprises in the way of shifting key and enchanting modulations that consti-tute the special characteristic of this symphony, were effectively handled by the

The latter was given with much piquant grace and fine appreciation of delicate touches of light and shade. It was, indeed, the best work of the evening; the crescendos were worked up with charming effect, and the pause for the trilling meiody of the feute, with its last, long-drawn note taken up by the entire orchestra plannissimo, was an artistic bit of worl that would do credit to a much older and more experienced orchestra. NEWBERG'S SUGAR FACTORY Solicitors Being Put to Work to Get Contracts With Farmers.

Jesse Edwards, of Newberg, arrived here yesterday. He came here on a busi-ness matter, in which farmers are par-ticularly interested. Mr. Edwards is the president of the Newberg Development Company, of which F. A. Morris, of New-berg, is the secretary. Mr. Edwards stat-ed yesterday that his object in visiting Portland at this time was to obtain certain contracts to secure acreage for sugar-beet growing. "The Newberg Development Company," said he, "is one intended to foster various enterprises. We are now furthering the interests of the Willam-ette Beet Sugar Company, of which D. Solls Cohen, of your city, is the attorney. This latter company is made up, to some extent, of capitalists from Dayton, O., and other Eastern cities. There will also be $50,000 of Portland capital invested in the enterprise. The company proposes to locate at Newberg, provided the people there will donate a site of 50 acres for the erection of a sugar factory. We expect to secure contracts for 5000 acres, to be devoted to sugar-beet raising. We have obtained contracts for more than 1000 acres already. Most of the parties subscribed at Minstrelsy was born under the fold of our starry banner, and since its earliest days has held a steady place of affection in the public estimation. Minstrelsy is in-tensely American, because it is honest and absolutely clean. "Billy" West has always stood at the head of his class. He has been ready to understand the pro-gressive spirit of the times; he has been quick to appreciate the changes in taste. He is called the progressive minstrel, yet it is only the progressive that survive. He has enrolled under the banner bearing his name many famous burnt-cork comedians, a lot of noted singers and some ex-ceptional specialty performers. Of the long list of celebrities, the names that stand out most prominently are: Carroll Johnson, Richard J. Jose, Fred Warren, the Luken brothers, the Waterbury brothers and Tenny, the three Marvelles, Tom-my Hayes and David Meier. A special feature new to minetrelay is the brilliant spectacular representation of the storming of San Juan Hill, with the sensational charge of the famous Rough Riders.

Next Attraction at Cordray's.

Beautiful and homely, true to the "Knobs o' Tennessee," is the interesting story told by Robert Germaine, and a carefully selected company, to be seen at Cordray's next week. It tells of the conflict between moonshiners and secret service men, of the unrelepting love of a rich man's daughter for a reconstruction. man's daughter for a mountaineer and of the villainy of one of these secret service men, together with two or three other undercurrents neatly woven and warped into the story. Love and freedom and the mountains are strongly displayed. The correct dialect of these Southern children of nature adds interest to the produc tion. There are numerous strong scenes in the play, and the pleadings of old man Lige Preston for his wife and son, who have been con-icted of moonshining, touches the hearts of all when he is pictured before President McKinley m inusual request.

The fashioned shoes were in evidence. The women had chosen less variegated costumes; most of them wore plain white sweaters, plain walking skirts and hats or caps to suit the weather.

The weather started off more favorably in the morning, but by noon the wind from the river was very cold. There was no rain, however, until the afternoon. When it did begin to fall, few of the players paid any attention to it. Some raised umbrellas, but the majority

EIGHTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY Odd Fellows Celebrate the Birthday of the Order.

The Sist anniversary of Odd Fellowship was celebrated by the local lodges of the order at Odd Fellows' Temple, last evening. Fred H. Holm, of Hassalo Lodge, No. 15, presided. The hall was artistically decorated with flags and bunting, the banners of the order being appropriately and ners of the order being prominently and tastefully displayed. Miss Estelle Henkel opened the programme with a finely rendered piano solo, after which all joined in the opening ode. The prayer was offered by Fred Cozens. S. W. Stryker delivered the address of welcome, and he was followed by Miss Ethel McKernan and Miss Lillie Holmes, who gave "The Witches' Dream," on the plano, in a charming fashion. Professor F. C. Streyffler and Mrs. May Streyffler sang "A Night in Venice" so accentably that the west applied to the control of th Mrs. May Streyfler sang "A Night in Venice" so acceptably that they were recalled and gave "Summer Now Is Here."

Judge M. C. George delivered an address on his 30 years of Odd Fellowship, speaking of the objects of the order, and alluding pleasantly to the work of the Rebekahs. Miss T. Kelly sang "Don't Forget Your Promise" in a sweet voice, and Miss Pearl White recited "Mother's Prayer" in a beautiful style. An address

Sagebrash State. General Freight and Fassenger Agent Markham, of the Southern Pacific, was forcibly reminded Wednesday that E. N. Baker, alias "Holy Moses" Baker, is still at work. It will be remembered that March 21, The Oregonian exposed Baker's swindling operations. He pretends to maintain headquarters in Portland. He has heretofore secured subscriptions from "The Pacific Northwest," which he repre sented that the Southern Pacific peop are financially backing. Since the com-pany has so vigorously denied this, he has changed his tactics. He now and that all the "principal transportation companies" are abetting his swindling enterprises. ' D. Wisdom, of the Rural Wednesday M. D. Wisdom, of the Rural Spirit, of Portland, called upon Mr. Mark-ham, with a letter from Joseph Marzen, of the Humboldt Stock Farm, at Lovelock, Nev. From this letter it was learned that Baker had obtained from Mr. Marzen $65. The receipt enclosed is printed on yellow.tinged paper with a red der. It reads as follows:

$55.60. Lovelock, April 14, 1900. Received from Jos. Marzen Sixty-five Dollars, being a contribution for defraying the expense of Engraving Portrait & Stock scene to Include copy of work To appear in 'The Pacific West and Northwest," when completed to be placed in the leading Hotels and Steamships of the world with the compliments of the principal Transportation Companies.

The rush to obtain first citizenship papers still continues. The applicants are universally a good class of men, of whatever nationality, sober, industrious looking, well-dressed mechanics, most of them, and their witnesses of the same description. They appear to think it an honor to become citizens of this glorious Union secome citizens of this glorious Union, and receive the big certificate (which, by the way, is gotten up quite elegantly) with looks of pride. The fee charged by the County for final citizen papers is $1.50, and a 10-cent revenue stamp has to be affixed. When a man comes here up der 18 years of age, he may take out his final papers after he has reached his majority, without any first papers. He must bring two witnesses, who each make an affifidavit that the man came here when he was under 18. This costs 50 cents additional. The judges invariably in-quire if the applicant is a man of good noral character and will make a worthy
