

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight. CORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington st.)—"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

TOTAL REGISTRATION, 18,956.—Yesterday's registration of 466 was a record-breaker by over 35. Fourteen of these came from the county precincts, which is a large number, but the clerks in the Courthouse had all they could attend to receiving the statements of the 322 that came there. The total registration is now up to 18,956, and there is yet left only three days for the several thousand people unregistered in which to enroll their names. It is thought that the registration will reach nearly 19,000, which is above the highest first estimate. The large enrollment and the great number of changes have caused the clerks to fall away behind their work in entering the registrations in the books. During the last two days they have been making a strenuous effort to catch up, going to work at 1 P. M. and getting off at 4 A. M. following. It is the desire of the County Clerk that the work be completed by Tuesday evening, when the registration office closes, so that the revision can be started at that time and be completed before election.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Multnomah County Sunday School Convention opened last evening at the First Presbyterian Church with a good attendance and a very interesting session. Miss James McMurree, Sunday school missionary of the Baptist Church, occupied the principal time of the session in a "conference" meeting which was participated in by many of the members, and was both profitable and enjoyable. The Primary Teachers' Union will hold their regular session at the county convention at 9 o'clock today, under the leadership of Mrs. J. E. Edmunds and Mrs. C. M. Kliggins. After a brief business session, the convention adjourned until 9:30 today, to meet at the same place.

BACK FROM LOS ANGELES.—Edward Holman and wife have returned from a visit to Los Angeles, after a month's absence from Portland. Mr. Holman expresses himself as glad to get back among the fresh green trees which shade Portland's residence streets, after his surfeit of heat and dust in Southern California. They had one good rain in Los Angeles, which was the only one during the storm visited Portland, and it served to freshen things up somewhat, but still the country is suffering from long-continued dry weather. The wreck of crops is particularly noticeable in the interior valleys of California, between San Francisco and the southern portion of the state.

TO PREACH AT St. PATRICK'S.—The "forty hours" devotion at St. Patrick's Church will begin with high mass at 9 o'clock tomorrow. The pastor, Father Desmarria, will celebrate mass, and Archbishop Christie will preach the morning sermon. The Sunday evening sermon will be delivered by Rev. P. J. Beutgen, pastor of the Catholic Church at Roseburg. Rev. J. C. Hughes, of the Cathedral, will preach at the Monday evening service. Special music will be rendered by a select choir, under the leadership of Mrs. J. E. Owens. Miss Mary O'Dea will preside at the organ. The mats will be free for everybody at all these services.

GOOD BASEBALL GAME TODAY.—The fifth game of baseball in the Feltsheimer trophy series is scheduled for this afternoon between the High School and Bishop Scott Academy. It will be played on the field of the latter at 2:30. The last time these teams faced each other the High School won out by a close score, but their opponents have promised a victory for themselves this afternoon and talk as if they mean to win. At all events, the game will be interesting. There is no consolation game to be played at 7:30.

PUMPING PLANT FOR NOME.—Five centrifugal pumps, with a 10-horse-power engine and a boiler of 12-horse-power capacity for each, were put aboard the schooner yesterday to go to Cape Nome. The five plants are to be used to pump water from the ocean back up the beach to operate sluice boxes, and 75 feet of six-inch suction pipe with 100 feet of sluice boxes were provided for each plant.

KILLED A RATTLESNAKE.—The workmen engaged in tearing down the former office building of the Oregon Short Line and the one adjoining had an unusual experience yesterday morning. The vacant office building was occupied by a snake show last week. One of the reptiles escaped and was not recovered. The laborers found the creature and quickly despatched him. He measured nearly four feet in length.

ENTERTAINMENT POSTPONED.—On account of the late spring rains and the postponement of the Native Daughters of Oregon announced for tonight will not be given until next Tuesday evening at 8:30, after the meeting of the Native Sons. It will be held in the same place, Elks' Hall.

FUNERAL OF MISS AGNES BURKE.—The funeral of Miss Agnes J. Burke will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence, 214 Salmon street. Services will be held at St. Mary's Cathedral, and the interment will take place in Mount Calvary cemetery, on the East Side.

THE First Presbyterian Church, Alder and Twelfth streets. Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., pastor, will preach Sunday morning on "That Hidden Doctrine of Election"; "Jesus and Buddha"; and "The Morning Offering." "Nocturne" (Mendelssohn), Edgar E. Courson.

THE PORTLAND CLUB has moved to its new quarters, corner Fifth and Alder streets, formerly occupied by the Commercial Club, and will give an opening reception for members and friends Saturday evening, May 12, 1900.

MIRINO.—William J. Sovern; when last heard of (10 years ago) resided in Portland; parents anxious. Address: Mrs. T. Kedy, supervisor.

TO CAPE NOME.—Life insurance without extra cost in the Mutual Reserve of New York, 605 Oregon building. M. T. Kedy, supervisor.

JOHN G. WOOLLEY, Metropolitan Theater, this evening, 9 P. M. Reserved seats free with Voice subscriptions. Evening book store.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—Meeting tonight of class in "Data of Ethics" at 8 o'clock, Hirsch-Selling building.

CARROLL'S special Saturday sale Japanese caramels, 15 cents per pound. 223 Washington street.

UMBRELLAS.—Repairing and recovering. Meredith's, Washington, bet. 6th and 6th.

DOG SHOW NEXT WEEK.

Norris & Rowe Big Exhibition With New Attractions.

years of hard work and worry for any animal with the show. Archie will be seen in the new, big, free spectacular street carnival, and children's fairyland parade, which will be given on the morning of the exhibition, at 11 o'clock. Among this season's special features are Major Milla, the smallest comedian in the world, $9.00 troupe of performing seals, Master Geo. Suttler's wonderful menagerie act, Jim Robinson, the wonderful balancing monkey, and the grand military drill, executed by 12 beautiful shetland ponies.

AT THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Open This Afternoon to the Public—Several Helms Added.

The rooms of the Oregon Historical Society, top floor of City Hall, corner of Fourth and Madison streets, will be open today from 1 to 5 P. M. Teachers and the public in general will find much of interest to examine. The acquisitions for the past two weeks have been numerous, and among them the following may be noted: United States 1-cent piece (copy) of 1862.

United States 1-cent piece (copy) of 1862.

MATINEE TODAY.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" the Attraction at Cordray's.

It will be hard to find today in all Portland a boy or girl who does not want to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and it is safe to say that hundreds of them will be at Cordray's this afternoon when the famous play will be seen there. Many teachers whose pupils are interested in Mrs. Stowe's works will take a special interest, and hundreds of children will go to see the darlings, to hear the music, to become excited over the dogs, and to laugh at Lawyer Marks and mother and father want their children to see, and which every child wants to see as often as he is allowed to. The last performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by Mr. Stockwell's fine company, will be given tonight.

WANT TO GRADE SERVANTS

WOMAN'S CLUB TAKES UP A NEW MOVEMENT.

They Plan a Sort of Civil Service, With the Best Pay for the Best Work.

Establishing a system for grading servants and fixing a schedule of wages to be paid according to merit, is the ambitious project now under consideration by the home department of the Woman's Club. A sort of civil service plan seems to be contemplated, whereby those who make effort to qualify themselves for housework will be rewarded for their skill and application. And under the general scope of this latter feature, several provisions are vaguely suggested for educating servants to make themselves valuable householders. In fact, the limits called attention to the fact that cooking schools or other institutions inaugurated in Portland for the improvement of domestic labor were attended only by the mistresses of houses, who were employing servants, rather than by those seeking employment. Girls do not care to learn how to cook, or if they feel themselves constrained to follow that occupation, seem not to avail themselves of opportunities for improvement. It is to stimulate them more that Dr. Cardwell and her co-workers desire to establish this bureau. By making three or more grades, with like salaries paid throughout the city for each grade, and making it possible for servants to advance to higher grades as they qualify themselves for their work, the women hope to place before domestic workers the simplest and plainest possible incentive for improvement.

No radical change of wages is anticipated by the home department members. Whatever wages are decided upon are supposed to be based fundamentally upon prevailing prices, and it is said to be the purpose to make the scale established justifiable by saying that those in a certain grade shall receive a given percent more than those of another, instead of so many dollars more. Of course, the support of educational institutions would be one of the principal features. This would be an important way of encouraging domestics to improve themselves.

MAGNIFICENT TRAINS.

The six solidly vestibuled trains that arrive and depart over the lines of the O. R. & N. daily are magnificent specimens of the car-builder's art, combining, as they do, all the latest improvements, including first and second-class sleepers, chair cars, diners and library-observation cars.

The O. R. & N. offers the choice of eight trans-continental routes to all the important cities of the East, Midwest and Southwest. Through cars are run by way of Spokane and the Great Northern, and via Huntington and the Oregon Short Line and connections. Ticket office, 26 Third street, corner Oak.

SIX DAILY TRAINS.

The O. R. & N. operates six magnificent trains every day between Portland and Chicago and gives you the choice of routes through Salt Lake, Denver, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Louis or Chicago. These are standard trains, equipped with new cars, containing all the latest improvements.

HARRY SCHOOF,

Well known for the past 12 years as city agent for Henry Weinhard, has purchased the popular St. Paul House across the street at Third street, between Burnside and Couch, and will formally open same to the public tonight. As a caterer Harry has no superior, and it is safe to say that the inner man will not be overlooked.

WHERE TO DINE.

Delicious coffee, tender, juicy steaks, with tempting side dishes. The Portland restaurant, 265 Washington st., near Fifth.

Right Arm Crushed.

Denny Farrell, a fireman on the steamer Columbia, was run over by a switch engine at the Terminal grounds this morning at 12:30, and his right arm was smashed near the shoulder. Farrell was the accident victim of a switch engine, who was under the influence of liquor, attempted to jump on the footboard of the engine, as it was backing up, and fell with his right arm across the rail. He was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital in the patrol-wagon. City Physician Wheeler attended to his injuries. The accident occurred near where North Front street passes under the Steel bridge.

Resuming Operations.

The new chess factory recently built at Fairview by John Thomas, upon the site of the one which was burned about three months ago, is about ready to begin operations. Mr. Thomas has 150 cows of his own, and will produce from his own stock, thus being enabled to turn the factory to its fullest capacity, and, as his reputation for chessmaking is well known, he will again make the business a success.
