His FATHER'S CITIZENSHIP PAPERS.— Frank Hacheney resterday received from his brother in New Orleans the naturalization papers of his father, who was ad-zaitted to etitzenship in the District Court at New Orleans June II, 18ff. As Mr. Hacheney was only 18 years old at that time, the naturalization of his father, of course, made an American citizen of him.
When Mr. Hacheney went to get registered a while ago he, of course, had no naturalization papers, but he made oath that he was an American citizen, and was registered. Some of the natural-born prevaricators who spread foojich stories about a number of persons having been filegally registered, immediately started a report that Mr. Hacheney, who had been holding office for several years, had never been naturalized, and that he had to take out his citizenship papers before he could be registered; while another of those lying reports was to the effect that he was a citizen. Mr. Hacheney therefore wrote to his brother to send nim the citizenship papers of their father. that he was an American citizen, and was ilm the citizenship papers of their father, and this document, worn and yellow with age, arrived yesterday and is a sufficient answer to all the fainthers and the lying reports they started.

weller was both unfortunate and fortunate yesterday afternoon in an accident at Third and Washington atreets. His good luck consists of the light injuries sustained what would seem to have been a terrible blow from the shaft of an express wagon. He was crossing at this intersection when run down by the driver of a Northern Pacific wagon. The point of one shaft struck him half an inch back of the eye, knocking him violently to the ground and rolling him over on the street. Judge Bushweller is 72 years of age, and such a blow is a severe shock, from which he will recover slowly. He feels quite indig-nant at the careless driver, who seems to have been entirely to blame for the mis-

No Rattan in Manket.—A letter were received yesterday by E. S. Fergusson, of the street-cleaning department, from Kwong, Tick & Co., or San Francisco, etailing that they could not fill an order for rattan for street-sweeping machines. They sent some split hamboo to be tried to see how it would answer the purpose. The impossibility of getting rattan for the sweeping machines has greatly interfered with the efficiency of the work of the street-cleaning department for several months past, as it has been impracticable to operate the sweeping machines more than four nighte in the week. A lot of steel wire was brought from the East to fill the brooms, but it proved very costly and unsatisfactory, see a few days use seemed to crystallize the wire and it would break short off where it was inserted in the broom. The following statement of the comparative cost and durability of steel and rattan brooms forms a problem fill the brooms, but it proved very costly and unsatisfactory, ee a few days' use seemed to crystallize the wire and it would break short off where it was inserted in the broom. The following statement of the comparative cost and durability of streel and rattan brooms forms a problem which some mathematician can figure out: Steel wire costs it cents per pound, and it takes 45 pounds of it to make a broom which wears eight days. Rattan costs eight cents per pound, and it takes 45 pounds to make a broom which lasts say, 12 days. How much more does a steel broom cost than a rattan one?

IMPROVING SECOND STREET.—Interested property-owners are preparing to circu-late a petition asking the Common Councii to improve Second street, from Morri-son to Madison, by laying a wood-block pavement on the present macadam, dressed to grade, with gutters made of the stone blocks now in the gutters. The wood blocks are to be four inches in height scoreckers Colling—A serious bicycle accident occurred near the corner of Fourth and Salmon streets yesterday evening about 7 o'clock. Two young women were ecorching down Fourth street at a very rapid pace. A wagon was coming up the street at some distance from them, followed by a wheelman. One of the women, in turning out to avoid the wagon, came into violent collision with the wheelman, whom she had not previously observed. Both of them were thrown from their wheels by the force of the shock, the woman being rendered unconscious. She received a severe bruise acroes her forehead, and one of her eyes was bluckened. She was carried to a nearby store and a doctor summoned. Her was binckened. She was carried to a hearby store and a doctor summoned. Her face was so badly bruised that she would be almost unrecognizable. After recoverling consciousness she was taken to her home in a carriage. Her name or address could not be learned. The man was quite badly hurt, also, his arm being wrenched as a result of the accident.

Ranness I wow well played to the artistically careless and debonair character of the BARBERS' UNION WILL ATTEND,-It is sometimes said that the church is not in sympathy with efforts for bettering the dition of working men and women, but those who were present at the meeting on Tuesday night at the Marquam must have noticed that three of the speakers were pastors, and many other pastors were present who were not less in sympathy with the movement. The press and pulpit were liberal in announcements or so large an audience would not have gathered. Another effort that affects a large number of hard-working men is that of the bar-bers for Sunday closing. The ministers' meeting has given it full indorsement, and the president of the same, Dr. Blackburn, has sent an invitation to the Bar-bers' Union to attend the First Baptist Church on Sunday evening, at which time he will present the subject. The union accepted the invitation, and the members and their families are urged to attend.

LEGAL ACTION AGAINST STOCKYARDS.— The City Attorney was instructed by the Council a short time ago to comm Council a short time ago to commence a recent war are to be decorated, the source the removal of the stockyards in the northern part of the city, and he is about ready to commence the proceedings. The people in that vicinity and the Councilman from that ward, as well as Mayor Storey, who resides in that vicinity, have been anxious for a long time to have the stockyards, which have been declared a nuisance, removed, but have been induced to extend the time for their removal so as not to put the owners.

There will be a great parade of the National Guard, Naval Reserve, Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish War Vethave been induced to extend the time for their removal so as not to put the owners of the property to inconvenience. IN AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

William G. Ellot Praternity Gives a Delightful Entertainment.

The William G. Ellot Fraternity of the Unitarian Church gave a charming enter-tainment last night at Arion Hail. It was double in nature, the first part of the evening consisting of amateur theatricals. wood blocks are to be four inches in height and the space between the rails of the street railway on the etreet will probably be planked, as it is considered useless to lay any other kind of pavement between the rails on that street. Engineers are constitutionally opposed to pavements without a foundation, but in the interests of economy it is sometimes necessary to lay them, and if the piece of street in question is to be improved in this way, pains will be taken to see that the job is done in a thorough manner. It is generally considered that a pavement of brick laid on macadam would make a fairly durable street, but every kind of an improvement must have a chance to be tested.

Flags and Souvenir Buttons to Be Worn on Memorial Day.

The latest idea in reference to the so enir buttons is the wearing of one in ajunction with a little silk flag on Memorial day. It is peculiarly appropriate that all should wear the miniature Stars and Stripes on the day set apart for hon-oring the brave men who sacrificed their lives to uphold the flag and preserve the country, and it is equally appropriate that on this occasion, the first upon which are graves of Oregon's soldier dead of the recent war are to be decorated, the sou-venir button should be worn with the

TAKEN FROM THEIR PARENTS Three Children in Charge of Boys' and Girls' Ald Society.

Officer Hawley, of the Boys' and Girls' Officer Hawley, of the Boys and Offis Aid Society, yesterday took into custody three young girls of the McIrvine family, who live on a scow at the foot of East Burnside extrect. Their names and ages are: Oille, 13; Maud, 15, and Gerd, 9. The mother is blind, is said to use intoxicants to excess and makes her home a icants to excess and makes her home a reveiling place for ruffians. The father has not shown a disposition to care for the children any better than the mother. Officer Hawley and Superintendent Gardher have been watching these children for some time, owing to their being sent upon the streets to sell papers. About a year ago the elder was entired into saloon by a man, who gave her beer, for which he was arrested and sentenced to jail. Persons residing near the family scow assert that the children are accustomed to going to saloons for beer for their parents, and that drunken carousals leasting far into the night are usual at the home. The blind mother has been discovered in other vices that, in the opinion of the humane officers, should deprive her of the privilege of caring for the children, Some time ago Officer Hawley ordered the children to desist from seiling papers and running wild over the streets, where they were thrown in contact with elements too vicious for even mature women. It seems they have already been guilty of crimes, as Gille confessed to Superintendent Gardner that she stole two watches lately, one last Sunday evening from a little steamer on the river, and the other from the back room of a caudy store on Morrison street. In each case the property was recovered by the owners the following day. Olile tried to trade the last watch in at a bicycle store for a ride, which caused the discovery of her illegal phasession by the police. With such vicious proclivities developing and the absolute lack of good influence at home, the society hopes to secure permanent control of the children that they may be removed from the drunken revels of parents. They were taken in custody on a ents. They were taken in custody on a warrant issued from the County Court and the case will be heard before Judge Cake May 28

A matinee of "The Magistrate," which has been delighting playgoers all this week, will be given by the Stockwell company at Cordray's Theater today, and, judging by the advance sale, there will be a crowded house. Tonight "The Mag-istrate" for last time this week. To-morrow evening the attraction will be that furiously funny adaptation from the French, with Mr. Stockwell as Pontichot, "In Paradise." The cast will be of a very gtrong nature, and the comedy is brimful of amusing complications, witty lines and an interesting plot. Seats are now selling at Cordray's.

POLITICAL CANDIDATES AT-TENTION.

At the request of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Union, all the brewerks of Port-iand have given their promises not to sell beer to political candidates for the purpose of sending the same to clubs and factories, thereby depriving the saloon men of business which rightly belongs to them. The browers feel Justified in takto them. The brewers feel justified in tak. Ing this step, because the saloon men have to pay their $400 for license, and should be protected in their legitimate business. The saloon men are satisfied that the honorable candidates will thank them for their action, because it prevents a certain class of unscrupulous people from holding the candidates up for many kegs of beer, which they ask, by promising him the support of so-and-so many worklingmen, while, in fact, the beer is stored away and drunk after election by a chosen few, who have made it their practice to bleed every candidate they meet.
