As the car approached the intersection nemed. Motorman R, H. Stilson, a man imported from Cleveland, O., and Emergency Policeman Lofton, who were on the front platform, saw that some ob-siructions had been piled high, and that the tracks were impassable. A big crowd of people were gathered to witness the removal of the obstructions. They began to hoot and jeer and to apply epithets to the crew of the car to remove the obstructions from the track. As Stilson started to step from the car his action was the signal for firing to begin from the crowd. Stilson threw up his hands and fell to the front platform, with a bultet through his body. In the fusilinde that followed, John T. Rice, a rond agent who was on the car, was shot down as he goot from his seat horde, receiving a ball through the chest. The police bodyguard on the car opened fire on the mob, at least 200 shots in all being exchanged. The mob scattored and ran down side streats to get away. Officer Lofton said that when the shooting began it seemed to him that be men had pistols pointed at the car, and that each one of them was blazing out fire. Round 1-Both sparred tautotaily for a moment, when the Kild swung to Ryan's wind. Ryan countering to the face. Mc-Coy put a straight left to the nose and a abort swing to the nose without a return. A ferce rally ensued. Both fell to the floor. Both were up smiling. McCoy im-mediately dashed his left three times to Tommy's nose. Ryan, rushing, landed a hard right on the ribs, but was countered heavily on the cheek. Tommy came in with his head down, swinging his right, but was met with a right uppercut in the chest. The next attempt was more suc-cessful, his right reaching McCoy's ear with force, but an instant later McCoy dashed his left to Ryan's mouth. Round 2-The mon came to a clinch in-stantly, with no damage. Ryan, with his head down, rushed, but received an upper-CASTORIA For Infants and Children. No one can make a better cigar than the GEO. W CHILDS and retail it for 5c. If it was not for the fact that we have the greatest tobacco-buying and manufacturing facilities in the world, we could not do it ourselves.

There are none better: there are no others so good. The GEO. W CHILDS stands at the head.

Every genuine "CHILDS" has the name stamped on it.
