CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

RECORD THE ABSENTEES. Oregonians Away From Home Should

Be in the Enumeration. Persons away from the state, who till retain their residence in Oregon, are entitled to be enumerated in the census for 1900, the work on which began resterday. For example, ex-Governor Lord, who is in South America, and J. F. Caples, and H. B. Miller, who are abroad on Government missions, are citizens of Oregon, and their pages should be supposed. Oregon, and their names should be on the rolls. Yet; unless some one on the rolls. Yet; unless some one reminds an enumerator of the fact, the names are likely to be omitted. Just so with hundreds who have gone to the Paris exposition, who are visiting California and Eastern States, who have gone to Alaska, who are attending schools and col-leges, who are out with surveying and prospecting parties, and yet re-tain their residence here. Neighbors and relatives of these absentees, in cases where it is cleathat they have not given up their residence, should take the trouble report the names to the enumera tors of the district in which the absentees reside when they are home

CORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington st.)

TO EXTEND HOLLADAY SEWER-Th Council sewer committee, at their meeting yesterday, had under consideration the matter of providing sewerage for the castern portion of Holladay Addition and John Irving Addition. A petition from the residents of those sections had been referred to the City Engineer, who re-ported that the most economical plan for furnishing the desired sewerage for the present would be to extend the Holladay averue sewer. This sewer, which was paid for by the residents of the Holladay-avenue sewer district, cost about $34,990, and ends for the present at East Thirteenth street. The plan proposed by the City Engineer is to build an extension to this sewer, from the end at East Thirteenth street north to Multnomah street thence to East Seventeenth street, along that street to Broadway, and along Broad-way and on Broadway to East Twentyfourth street. The committee decided to recommend that this scheme be carried out, but as so doing is likely to arouse opposition from the residents of the Holladay sewer district, who may object to the sewer they have paid for being util-ized for the benefit of an outside dis-trict, the committee made their recommendation on the understanding that the potitioners should satisfactorily overcome any remonstrance from the residents of the Holladay sewer district.

CHARGED WITH STEALING WATER PIPE William Smith, a junk dealer who re sides near Milwaukie, was placed unde 300 bonds yesterday, by Judge Hennessy, to secure his appearance before the Grand Jury on a charge of larceny. The testi-mony indicated that Smith hired an expressman and proceeded in broad daylight to steal a lot of iron pipe from a ware-house belonging to the City Water Works, pear the corner of Milwaukie avenue and Powell street. In order to secure the pipe, which is valued at $65, boards were torn off the east side of the building. Some of the stolen material was sold by Smith to an East Side junk dealer, and some to another on Davis street. Smith has been in the clutches of the police everal times within the past two years for irregularities in connection with his business of a gatherer of junk, as he has, it is asserted, a tendency to pick up stuff without having first conferred with the owner. In this case he has been using a 18-year-old brother, Harry, in trans-ferring the property of the City Water Works, and Harry, the Prosecuting Attorney said yesterday, has become quite an expert in purioining and selling "junk." Harry is also charged with larceny, and has to appear before the Grand Jury, but, owing to his youth, he was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

GIANT RYE .- A sample of rye from a 40acre field on the property of the Union Meat Company, at Troutdale, was placed in the exhibit of the Bureau of Information yesterday. It is 8 feet 2 inches in height from the first joint, and is said to be a fair sample of the whole field. Lads and lasses will be likely to experience difrye. A shock of "baid barley" has been added to the exhibit by M. A. Van Gilder, of Wasco, which is accounted very fine. People who have never harvested the old-fashloned bearded barley have no idea why any one should hanker for beardless but if they would build one load of the bearded article they would find out.

Inquest.-At the inquest held yesterday afternoon, to decide the cause of Mrs. Myra McNeill's death, "syncope, superifiduced by violent exercise," was named in the verdict. Deceased had been suffering from organic disease of the heart, though the symptoms were not so pronounced as to alarm her friends. She had been out to Riverview Cemetery on Thursday after-noon, and that portion of Macadam street near Curry, being covered with loose gravel, inordinate exertion was required wheeling. Mrs. McNeill's nativity was

GREAT ELE COMING.—A telegram received yesterday by District Deputy Ralph E. Moody, of the Eliks, announces that the Grand Exalted Ruier, Judge B.
M. Allen, from Burmingham, Ala, arrived in St. Paul on Tuesday last on his way to Portland. Thursday evening a committee of five was appointed by Portland Lodgs, No. 16t, to make arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the hend of the E.ks of the United States, while in this city. The citizens of Portland will well remember the notable ocand will well remember the notable ocfollowed by that of Mende Detweller. On the occasion of E. B. Hay's visit thousands of people came to the city, and the demonstration rivaled that of the first visit of Henry Villard, president, at the opening of the Northern Pacific Ratiroad. The Elks of the city will undoubtedly make great preparations for the reception of their present Grand Exaited Ruier. Judge Allen, who stands very high in the community where he resides, and is re-puted as a jurist of the highest character. It is probable that he will be accom-panied by other notable Elks and prominent citizens of the East. Senttle is al ready making preparations for the en-tertainment of the party, and will en-deavor to rival Portland in this line.

FOR AN ELECTION BOOTS.—The removal of a panel of the wire-netting fence from the Alder-street front of the premises of the Portland General Electric Company at the corper of Seventh, and the construc-tion of a platform on the grass plot, at-tracted the attention of passers and caused much discussion as to the object of the improvement. It was finally de-cided that there was going to be a picnic on the grounds, and the platform was for dancing floor. Yesterday, when a ten was pitched over the platform, the dis-cussion was renewed. Some were of opin-ion that a merry-go-round was to be located there, others that there was to be a mass meeting on the corner, and the tent and platform were for the orators. Others were certain that there was to be a camp meeting in the tent, but the sight of a barrel with a spigot on it, at the rear of the tent dispelled the idea. It was finally ascertained that the barrel con-tained nothing but tax, and that the tent is to be a polling place during the election on Monday. There may be a picnic and a dance there after election, but this will depend on who is elected.

TO ARRANGE FOR PIONEER'S BANQUET. An enthusiastic meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Oregon Pioneer Associa den was held at the Hotel Portland yes terday afternoon, and the following ener-getic central committee was unanimously selected: Mrs. I. W. Pratt. Mrs. E. E. Mc-Clure and Mrs. O. P. S. Plummer. They will take charge of the banquet to be given to the pioneers June 15. They now call for the usual generous contributions from the public, and, as the time is lim ited, most earnestly ask that the re-sponse may be prompt, in order that all details may be arranged at the next meeting, which will be held Friday, June 8, at the Hotel Portland.

EAST SIDE RAILWAY IMPROVEMENTS.

Superintendent Maxwell, of the East Side Rallway Company, states that the eight cars of the company running between Portland and Oregon City are all to be thoroughly overhauled. Three have al-ready been made over at the shops at Milwaukle, and the remainder will be eplaced in service as rapidly as circum stances permit. These already refitted present a very handsome appearance. The company will equip each car with an electric are headlight. The company is replacing old ties with new ones and re newing the bridges and tresties of its CHINATOWN IS CLEAN,-Health Commis chinarows is CLEAN.—Health Commis-sioner Menefee, who has lately made a thorough inspection of the sanitary condi-tion of the Chinese quarter, reports that if has been pretty thoroughly cleaned up-and that there is very little to complain of there now. The quarter is not crowded how as the greater number of the Chithere now. The quarter is not crowded now, as the greater number of the Chinese are absent in the fisheries or on rail road work, etc.; but every house will be filled to its full capacity next Winter. The apanese are crowding into the city, and their quarters are filled to overflo and will need to be carefully looked after YACHT RACE TONIGHT.—The opening annual regatta of the Oregon Yacht Club, which was to have come off on Decoration day, but was postponed on account of lack of wind, will take place this evening. About 18 boats have been entered for the race. The start will be made at 6 P. M., from a stake-boat just above the Madison-Street Bridge, and the race is three times around the club's course, the upper end of which is marked by a stake-where the lower end of Ross Island.

HAS LIVED A CENTURY .- William Foley. mas laved a Century.—William Foley, who has just returned from a trip through the French Prairie country, reports having met, about two miles from St. Paul, a pioneer named Henry Cosgrove, who is over 100 years of age. He is a native of Lanark County, Ontario. The old man a quite active and at himself, and Mr. Foley had a very plannyt chart with him the had a very pleasant chat with him. As Mr. Coagrove was on earth when the 18th century came to an end, and is likely to see the end of the present century, he ought to be an authority on the question as to when a century ends.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.-The report of Health Commissioner Menefee, for the month of May, shows that the number of births registered during the month was 6; males 20, females 33. The number of deaths reported during the month was 78; males 25, females 25. The number of cases of contagious and infectious diseases reported during the month was 23, as follows: Diphtheria 8, typhoid fever 5, scar-let fever 11, measies 5, smallpox 1, whoop-ing cough 2. The number of deaths from ontagious diseases was 2.

WHEAT KING HERE.

Gregory Jones, of Liverpoo Visits the Northwest.

F. Gregory Jones, of Liverpool, England, a member of the great wheat broking firm of Montgomery, Jones & Co., one of the largest of the kind in the world, who has been spending a few days in the city, left for Duluth yesterday on his way home. He left London last Christman and having travaled through the mae, and having traveled through the great wheat-growing belts of Australia. Taemania and New Zealand, next turned his course toward Portland, which he recognizes as one of the great wheat-shipping ports of the world. He made a brief stay at Samoa on the way, and visited the last resting place of the famous writer, Robert Louis Stevenson, there. He spent his time here in thoroughly investigat-ing the wheat situation in the Northwest, and derived a very accurate idea in regard

Mr. Jones is no new hand in the wheat years ago and again six years ago for the same purpose which brought him here this time. Speaking of Williamette Valley wheat, which used to command 3 to 4 cents per bushel more than "Walla Walla" wheat, on account of its making a white flour, Mr. Jones saye millers are no lo ger anxious to obtain it at an advanced price. The substitution of steel rollers for stones in grinding wheat has made a change in this matter, and harder when change in this matter, and harder wheat is most in demand. Enough wheat producing the whiteet flour is raised in England to supply the demand for pastry and for mixing, and the day of high prices for Valley wheat is past. Walla Walla wheat ranks high among the wheats of the world, Mr. Jones says.

Mr. Jones is a wheat statistician, and prepares yearly the well-known Moutgomery & Jones' Wheat Chart, which is a standard authority on the subject of wheat standard authority on the subject of wheat crops and prices all over the world. He, however, disclaims any relationship to "Wheat-Chart Jones," of Spokane, who is not a standard authority on anything but 16 to 1. Mr. Jones will make a short stay at Duluth to investigate the wheat situation in the Middle Northwest, and will then call from New York for home

Mr. Thomas McNamee is the nomin for Constable, West Side, on the regular Republican ticket. Mr. McNamee has been ngaged in business in Portland during the past II years, and during all of that time has been a consistent and energetic Re-publican, supporting the regular party nominees. If it had pleased the late Reublican convention to nominate some ther person for the office of Constable, it is safe to assert that Mr. McNames would give the ticket the same hearty support that he is at present entitled to a candidate. Such men deserve the ral support of every member of the Re-blican party, and Mr. McNamee will unubtedly be elected by a handsome ma man will be easily understood when it is known that he has successfully fough the battle of life unnided since he was years of age. He then sold papers it Pittsburg, and later entered the employ has been actively engaged in business ever since. Mr. McNamee pays taxes on a large amount of property, and if elected will administer the office in an economical and business-like manner, that will re-flect credit alike upon himself and the party he represents. Mr. McNamee wishes It to be distinctly and positively under-stood that he has not promised to ap-point any man to be his deputy. Street reports to the contrary are merely campaign falsehoods.

MATINEE TODAY.

"The Real Widow Brown" the Attraction at Cordray's.

That lively farce comedy, "The Real Widow Brown," which has been crowding Cordray's all this week, will be the matinee attraction there this afternoon. and the advance sale has been so large that a crowded house is assured. The play is one abounding in the clever specialties which are the delight of a matines audience, and it is furthermore funny all the way through, which can be said of few plays which are now passing as farce comedies. It is presented by an excellent company, and the manner in which it has been received in Portland shows that it is appreciated here. The last performance will be given tonight.

Mr. Malone has been a familiar figure on the East Side for the past & years. He was a man of integrity, and was highly respected. Before coming to Portland he lived in California. He leaves a family. The funeral will take place this morning at 3 o'clock from St. Francis' Church.

TRIP THROUGH BIG BEND.

W. W. Harts Makes a Tour

Captain W. W. Harts, United States Engineers, arrived home yesterday from a trip through the Big Bend country and up the Clearwater, the object of his journey being to see as much as possible of the territory tributary to the Columbia and Snake Rivers. He went from Pasco to Spokane and thence through the Palouss country, and by way of Moscow to Lewiston. From Lewiston be praceeded up the Clearwater to Kooskie, the present end of the Northern Pacific line, and the head of navigation. of navigation.

At Kamiah, some 10 miles below Kooskie, the Northern Pacific has a bridge across the Clearwater, which Captain Harts inspected and measured to see that the draw span compiled with the specifications of the War Department. Here the valley of the Clearwater begins to open out, and Kamiah Flat, the Winter home of the Indians, is a most beautiful trace; of the Indians, is a most beautiful tract of country. The Indians have 10 acres each on this flat, and 70 acres more on the higher ground, for farms. This section is well watered, and needs no irrigation, which is a necessity in the Big Bend re-

Captain Harts says it would be a shame to drive the Indians out of this lovely, fer-tile region, and yet it seems a pity to leave it in a wild and uncultivated con dition, as it would support a dense popu-lation. The Palouse country very favor-ably impressed Captain Harts, as it must any one who sees it. At Judson, on the Snake River, a vast quantity of wheat is stored, waiting the completion of Paul Mohr's portage road at Cellio.
