

WE MUST HOLD THEM

Philippines in the Pathway of the World's Commerce.

TELLER'S SPEECH IN THE SENATE

A Republic May Hold Colonies, He Says, But They Should Participate in the Government.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Senate convened at 10 o'clock today. The Senate then passed a resolution to hold the Philippines until such time as they shall be able to govern themselves.

At great length Pettigrew argued that the Philippines were allies of the United States. He said he had no desire to impede the veracity of Admiral Dewey, but that the Admiral had deceived his false bias (Pettigrew's) statement that the Admiral had recognized the Philippines as allies, and had saluted their flag, he (Pettigrew) felt it incumbent upon him to present the facts and let the American people judge as to the Admiral's veracity. He presented a mass of matter in support of his contention, but nothing new except a letter from the ex-governor of the Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship, who wrote that, while no naval salute was made to the Philippine flag, the Philippine flag was hoisted upon the Olympia. This, Pettigrew contended, was a salute to the Philippine flag. Among other documents quoted by the Senator was the report of the United States District Judge at Manila, which declared that the Philippine flag was hoisted upon the Olympia.

The reason they had not heard of it, Pettigrew added, was that the Administration had been so busy with the Philippine question that it had not had time to get to it. He said that the Administration had been so busy with the Philippine question that it had not had time to get to it.

The Senate at 10:35 o'clock adjourned until 1 o'clock tomorrow.

COEUR D'ALENE INVESTIGATION.

Minority Report Censures McKinley, Merriam and Steunberger.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The minority report on the Coeur d'Alene investigation was issued today by Representative Lentz of Ohio, and Hay of Virginia, who drafted it. The following is a summary of its main features:

The minority report points out that the evidence taken during the investigation shows that there was absolutely no rioting in Shoshone County, Idaho, after April 29, 1898, when the United States troops were sent to the country. It says that the rioting which had been reported, and no resistance was being made to the state authorities, who were arresting as rapidly as possible those who were guilty of participating in the crime of April 29, 1898.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

The report also points out that the troops sent to Idaho by the President of the United States had no right to be in the country, and that the military commander in charge could only use the troops in aid of the civil authorities of the state to preserve peace and order, and to prevent resistance being made by lawless persons to the process of the courts and the proper civil authorities of the state.

FOR THE ST. LOUIS FAIR

HOUSE AGREES TO THE $5,000,000 APPROPRIATION.

Only Four Bills Remain in Dispute—Everything Indicates a Final Adjournment Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The House today agreed to the Senate amendment to the sundry civil bill, appropriating $5,000,000 for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis. There was not a word of debate on concurrence in the amendment. It was after 6 o'clock when the matter came up, owing to the lateness of the hour and the overwhelming majority in its favor, the opponents of the fair appropriation did not make a show of opposition. They contended themselves with demanding that the bill be read 127 times to 75 times in favor of the proposition. Only four appropriation bills remain in dispute between the two houses. They are the bill for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, the bill for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, the bill for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and the bill for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

All scenes about the House presaged the near approach of final adjournment. Leaders in charge of the appropriations were all in attendance. The galleries were thronged with advocates of belated bills, and the Speaker was constantly besieged by members with private bills, which they desired to get through. Three members were elected to the House, and a question on a question of personal privilege after the Journal had been approved.

Alexander (Rep. N. Y.) was the first to recognize the question of the bill. He said that the House had not yet acted upon the bill, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The bill was a very important one, and it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The bill was a very important one, and it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The bill was a very important one, and it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The bill was a very important one, and it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The bill was a very important one, and it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

CLAYTON-BULWER TREATY.

Senate Committee Reports Favorably on Its Abrogation.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee on inter-oceanic canal, today favorably reported a resolution for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. As reported the resolution reads:

"That the treaty known as the Clayton-Bulwer treaty between Great Britain and the United States which was concluded on the 19th day of April, 1850, is abrogated."

Morgan made a written report traversing the grounds for abrogation of the treaty in considerable detail. The report is practically a plea for the House to abrogate the treaty. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Morgan said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the treaty was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

DIPLOMA MILL RAIDED

ISSUED ROGUS CERTIFICATES TO DOCTORS AND LAWYERS.

Complaint Was Made by a Baker City Man Formerly Connected With the Institution.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Government officers today raided the Metropolitan Medical College, an alleged "diploma mill" at 88 West Van Buren street, and arrested the officers, President James Armstrong, Vice-President J. H. Randall, Secretary Thomas Armstrong, and ex-Secretary Charles M. Hovey. The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

The men are charged with having used the mails to defraud, and it is said their receipts amount to many thousands of dollars. Failing to give suitable bonds, all four went to jail. The institution is also known as the International Medical College.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Pittsburg Beat Philadelphia in a Ten-Inning Game.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Ten innings were required to decide today's game between Pittsburg and Philadelphia. In the last inning, after two men had struck out, Wagner singled and Cooper doubled, sending Wagner across the plate with the winning run. Attendance, 4200. The score: R H E. Philadelphia 10, Pittsburg 4.

Chicago Beat Brooklyn. BROOKLYN, June 4.—After being touched up for 14 hits and five runs, Kitson was relieved in the sixth. Kennedy took his place, and Chicago's batting practice with Griffith and Cooper. Attendance, 14,000. The score: R H E. Chicago 10, Brooklyn 4.

Boston Beat St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, June 4.—By hard and consistent hitting, Boston took the lead in the first inning of today's game. Attendance, 4500. The score: R H E. Boston 10, St. Louis 4.

New York Beat Cincinnati. NEW YORK, June 4.—The New Yorks won from Cincinnati today through sharp hitting. Boston took the lead in the first inning by Hawley's effective pitching. Attendance, 3000. The score: R H E. New York 10, Cincinnati 4.

At Kansas City—Kansas City, 2; Indianapolis, 1. At Chicago—Buffalo, 3; Chicago, 2; 15 Innings. At Minneapolis—Minneapolis, 6; Detroit, 1. At Milwaukee—Milwaukee, 9; Cleveland, 4.

National League Standing. Philadelphia 10, Boston 9, Pittsburgh 9, St. Louis 8, Cincinnati 7, New York 7, Chicago 6, Detroit 6, Milwaukee 5, Cleveland 4.

THE DAY'S RACES. Yesterday's winners at Gravesend and other eastern tracks.

Races at Hawthorne. CHICAGO, June 4.—The weather was clear and the track slow at Hawthorne today. The results were: Five furlongs—Quits II won, Beau Galbreath second, Glenelle third; time, 1:02. Mile and 1/16—Orionis won, Scale second, Long Isle third; time, 1:47. Critteron stakes, 4 1/2 furlongs—Cap Isabel won, Lucarna second, Ashes third; time, 0:55.24. Mile and a sixteenth—Maximo Gomez won, Firearm second, Chareetus third; time, 1:48. About six furlongs, selling—Pearly won, Her Ladyship second, Gaze third; time, 1:30.25.

Races at Newport. CINCINNATI, June 4.—The second six days' meeting of the Queen City Jockey Club opened today with delightful weather and a large crowd. The results were: Six furlongs—Crankle won, Winder second, Irish third; time, 1:14.4. Mile and a sixteenth, selling—Hitch won, second, third; time, 1:41.4.

Forecast for November 4. —St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

admits, however, that it is a question whether it is an obstruction. The effect of the Hay-Pauncefote negotiation is discussed in detail, and the effect of the treaty is discussed in detail. The effect of the treaty is discussed in detail. The effect of the treaty is discussed in detail.

Ray (Rep. N. Y.) criticized the resolution as being indefinite and unintelligible. He said that the resolution was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the resolution was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

Lacey (Rep. Ia.) said he did not presume to speak for the resolution. He said that the resolution was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the resolution was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

The only item still in dispute between the two houses was the appropriation of $100,000 for the Municipal Hospital in this city. The bill now goes to the President. Cannon (Rep. Ill.), chairman of the appropriations committee, then presented the report on the bill. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House. He said that the bill was a very important one, and that it was his duty to bring it before the House.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The conferees of the two houses of Congress has agreed upon two-thirds of the 15 items of disagreement in the sundry civil appropriation bill. The items of disagreement include those making appropriation for the St. Louis exposition, and all those relating to rivers and harbors, lighthouses and public buildings. Among the many other items agreed to are those for a quarantine station near the mouth of the St. Lawrence river, and for the Hawaiian quarantine service, $75,000; appropriating salaries for Hawaii; classification of Montana and Idaho mineral lands, $5,000; placing Yellowstone National Park in the hands of the Chief Engineer of the Army; appropriating $50,000 as proposed by the House for the heads Mississippi jetties; salaries for judicial officers of Hawaii; the disagreement, besides those first given, include the provisions giving the Secretary of the Treasury control of the Chinese exclusion and immigration laws; plans for the enlargement of the White House; settling Spanish War claims for property taken by military; branch Soldier's Home in Idaho; women representatives to unveiling of La Fayette statue of Paris; statue of Rochambeau.

Promotion of Otis. WASHINGTON, June 4.—The Senate committee on military affairs today reported favorably on the nomination of General Otis to be a Major-General. When reported to the Senate in executive session, there was a request for immediate action, but objection was made and the nomination went over.

Agreement on Alaska Bill. WASHINGTON, June 4.—The conferees on the Alaska code bill have reached a complete agreement. The agreement drops out the house provision for a delegate in Congress from Alaska, as it was found that it would be impossible to hold an election this Fall. The mining provisions are adjusted so that miners may continue to mine between high and low water under the bed of the coast ocean, according to rules to be provided by the Secretary of War, and on condition that they are citizens or have declared their intention of becoming citizens. These were the main points in controversy.

GERIS' WHAT MASTER RACED AN UNHEALTHY HAIR CAUSING DANDRUFF

FALLING HAIR FINALLY BALDNESS Destroy the cause, you remove the effect. Kill the Dandruff Germ WITH NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE The only preparation that will destroy these parasites. EXCELLENT HAIR DRESSING. For Sale by All Druggists. PRICE $1.00.

CARTERS' LITTLE LIVER PILLS

SICK HEADACHE Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Heartily Eating. A perfect remedy for Headache, Nausea, Dizziness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable. Regular Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

Is the Best Medicine Money Can Buy. Hood's Pills cure liver, bile, non-irritating; only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Grey Enamel Ware.

Prices Cut Away Down. Come Just to Look. Great Eastern Importing Tea Co. 223 First Street, Portland. 326 Washington Street, Portland. 115 Grand Avenue, E. Portland.

REYNOLD'S GOUT Specific

REYNOLD'S GOUT Specific Few persons need be confined by Gout or Rheumatism, if on the first approach of the paroxysm they resort to Reynold's Gout Specific. A single dose is often sufficient. S. REYNOLD & CO., 90-92, William St., N. Y.

The Night Session.

Pettigrew inquiring the floor on the Philippines question. He criticized the Administration for not giving Congress and the people full information concerning affairs.

Matt's Nektine

should not be confounded with other so-called malt products some breweries put out. It is not beer and "burnt sugar." See that the name Anheuser-Busch Brewery is on each bottle. Sold by all druggists.