THE OREGONIAN

S.S. Took in Oregon before adjournment.

WASHINGTON, June 8.-The Senate in Oregon adjourned in answer to a motion by Senator H. D. Ayres to organize a new committee of five members to investigate the existence of the so-called "S" bond, and the reasons and motives which may have operated to cause the present condition.

The Senate then took up the bill for the organization of the new committee, and after some discussion, the bill was passed. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.

The bill for the organization of the new committee was passed by a vote of 18 to 1. The bill provides that the committee shall consist of five members, and that it shall have the power to examine witnesses and take testimony in the matter.

The Senate then adjourned until Monday, at 10 o'clock, at which time the new committee will be organized and will proceed to the investigation of the "S" bond question.

THEORETICAL DEUCE.