Has Not Dischardon Hart.—Mayor Storey was at the City Hall a short time yesterday forenoon and appeared as cherril and full of life as hefore election, when he was confidently expecting to be received. He did not sign any of the ordinances paased by the Council Wednesday, as they were not ready for his inspection, but said he would call later and allied on signs of it, and he was not a little of the pround of the large vote he received, him. He great regret was that now he would no be able to, reciprocate as he would not be able to, reciprocate as he would not be been one of the shifting Department, and future report that he had but a short time longer to remain in effice, he did not surface and have anyone discharged for working scalar had but a short time longer to remain in effice, he did not surface and have anyone discharged for working save anyone discharged for the city.

Rap Guesess.—Charles Bircher, Swiss Consul, found a sum of money near the corner of Third and Washington streets a chart time ago. He duly advertised the fact in type that the loser might appear and have his money restored. A large number of persons called, but most of them had lost a $39 piece, and as Mr. Bircher had not found a $30 piece, they had no claim on what he had found. A woman called who had lost a purse, but did not know exactly how much money there was in it. The number of people who called and the plans they had laid to seize Mr. Bircher's find began to grow thresome, and he began to think no one would establish a title to the money found. Finally a laboring man called who said he had lost a $5 greenback, and as this was what had been found the man got the note and went on his way rejoicing.

SMALL First.—Fire caught in the moss-covered roof of the dwelling of Mrs. B. F. Seals, 305 Flanders etreet, yesterday, at 11:45 A. M., and the department was summoned by telephons. Hose 1, Chemical 1 and Truck 3 responded in time to prevent much damage being done. The firement say the precent is the most dangerous time for fire on moss-grown roofs, as the vegetation is dry and the westerly winds waft live sparks from contiguous chimneys. In the instance, the firemen chopped the burning shingles away and put out the flames with a few pails of water.

To RELOCATE A ROAD—A petition was presented to the Board of County Commissioners yesterday asking that the county road along the west boundary of the A. C. STOLE STLK .- G. W. Wilson is the name given by a man arrested in the act of purting bundles of slik from the store of Andrew Kan yesterday. He visited the store for the ostensible purpose of pur-chasing silk, but endeavored to confis-cate $16 worth without paying for it. He was caught in the act by Officer Isancson, and will appear in the Municipal Cour: today, to answer a charge of larceny.

HELD TO GRAND JURY .- Ed. Blum was bound over to the grand jury yesterday, on two charges of larceny in a dwelling. His bonds were fixed in the sum of $350 in one case and $200 in the other. He charged with unlawfully entering two dif-ferent houses and making off with various ferent houses and making off with various articles of value. Blum was recently ar-rested at Astoria in response to a request from the Chief of Police here.

THREE LICENSES ISSUED.-Three liquor censes have been issued since the beginning of this month, and three saloons have been added to the list. There are now 282 places in the city where liquors can be sold at retail or wholesale, including drug storce, restaurants and Chinese glumills. there is no need for any one to go to bed thirsty or get up without a headache. COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Sale of Seats for Nat Goodwin Opens Tomorrow.

The sale of seats for Nat C. Goodwin and Maxine Editott in "When We Were Twenty-one," will begin at the box office of the Marquain Theater Saturday morning. During this engagement, which is for Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, the free list will be entirely suspended and the performances will begin pended, and the performances will begin at 8 o'clock each night. Reservations will be entirely done away with, and no tickets will be taken by orders. Purthe road now in use along the west side of the Dunbar donation claim was not built where laid out, and for fear of any trouble in the future it is desired to have the road relocated and the old location vacated. The following viewers were appointed: Abs Turner, A. M. Osborn and George R. Shaw, who will meet at Fairview postoffice, June 18.

Judging by the demand for sents, the coming important engagement of the two popular stars, Mr. Clement and Mr. Stock-well, promises to be not only the artistic, but also the financial success of the sea son at Cordray's popular theater. With one of the prettiest romantic plays ever put upon the stage, an excellent supporting company, perfect stage settings, and perfection of detail, it will be strange if such an offering at popular prices does not appeal to every class of playgoers. The sale of seats is now progres Cordray's box-office.

MISS DEARBORNE'S RECITAL

The first appearance in public of Miss May Dearborne is to occur on Monday evening, at the Marquam Grand. The concert will be interesting from the fact that so few young singers make an appear-ance as positive novelities, which is so in the present case, as Miss Dearborne has never sung in concert, and now the pre-sentation is to be made under the aus-pices of W. H. Boyer, with whom she has pursued her entire vocal course,

Miss Dearborne will present a varied pro-gramme, including operatic selections and English ballada. Her colorature soprano is magnificently adapted to the florid work in Verdi's "Ab Forse Lui," and the bril-ilant polonaise from "Mignon." She will also give duets with Mrs. Bushong and Mr. Gilliland. The Taylor-Street choir will give its assistance in a couple of de-lightful selections, "Sans Sacos at Night" being one of them. A full house should encourage the artistic efforts of Miss

The people of Southern California are hopeful about next season, however, and the "oldest inhabitants" ere already pre-

I tell you, I feasted my eyes on the smiling meadows of the Williamette when I came through yesterday, and I looked beyond to the green hills and thought how little these people realize their lovely surroundings. APPROPRIATION RETAINED.

Congress Grants $250,000 for the Co-that the Senate and House conferees have nerce for this result. In the early days of the session of Congress they brought pressure to bear for an appropriation to make a 40-foot channel at the mouth of the Columbia, as recommended by the Chief of Engineers. Hope of this improve-ment was defeated when it was announced that Congress would not pass a river and harbor bill. Then the trustees set to work to get as much money as they could to keep the jetty in repair and the channel open, pending the passage of a river and harbor bill this Winter. By hard work they got an allowance of $50,000 for this purpose, and more hard work was required to hold the ground gained. Commercial bodies in the Willamette Valley and east of Portland as far as Lewiston joined in the demand that the Columbia River be recognized, and the appropriation was retained. All the members of the Oregon delegation in Congress gave strong support to the efforts of the Chamber of Com-merce in behalf of the Columbia River.

BY CIRCUIT JUDGES.

Men Suggested as Members-Maclesy Park Will Be Improved-New Locations.

It is now a settled fact that Portland is to have park improvement. The vote of Monday, whereby the people declared in favor of a Park Commission for the city, has not only made park improve-ment possible, but sure.

The next thing in order is the appointment of five suitable citizens, who, with the Mayor and City Engineer, will constitute the commission.

The act which the people have just ratified provides that in such cities of Oregon as many desire a park commis-sion, the Circuit Judge or Judges, shall, after the people have so expressed themselves at any regular election, appoint ive citizens, not more than three of whom shall be of the same political party, who with the Mayor and City Engineer, shall make up the park commission. such appointments have been made, the such appointments have been made, the Mayor, who is by virtue of his office chairman, shall call the members together within 60 days, but not before 30 days, after the appointments, when organization shall be effected. A scretary shall be appointed by the board, and the City Treasurer shall be designated as treasurer of the board.

the City Treasurer shall be designated as treasurer of the board.

The act further provides that meetings shall be held the first Tuesday in each month, with as many called meetings between as the chairman may deem necessary. The board will have the power to levy each year a tax, not to exceed one-half mill which shall be collected as other half mill, which shall be collected as other city taxes are, and turned over to the Park Commission. This fund is for the maintenance of the parks. The board may siso levy an additional one-half mill tax for the purpose of purchasing lands needed for park purposes. The latter levy can only be made, however, after the people have voted in favor of such a levy.

All moneys are to be spent by the commission. No money can be paid out by the treasurer except upon an order from he secretary, countersigned by the chairman of the board. No member of the commission shall in any way be personally interested in any contract the board may make. In such an event any such commissioner shall be tried for a crime according to the laws of Oregon.

If the board and the owner of any place of property desired for parks fail to agree upon a price, the board may appropriate the same by the usual proceedings in the Circuit Court.

Suggesting Commissioners.

It will probably be some time before the five commissioners are named. In the meantime those most interested in park improvements will be suggesting names to the Circuit Judges of suitable men for the pince.
Several names have already been men-are those of Charles E. Ladd, Henry Hawett Dr. Josephi, H. E. Dosch and Hewett, Dr. Josephi, H. E. Dosch and Zera Snow, It is suggested that all of these men are inter-ested in Portland's park system. ested in Portland's park system. Some of them have had considerable ex-perience in beautifying private grounds and yards about their own homes The judges will no doubt consider each name carefully before making any appointments, as it is very important to get just the right kind of men on the board. No term of office has been fixed by the law, and it is understood that all good and efficient members of the board will serve until they resign of their own accord.

The judges say they have not given the mafter consideration yet, and will not do so until officially notified that the measure has become a law.

Work to Be Done.

The first work that will receive the ttention of the commissioners, after the board is organized, will be the improve-ment of the parks already in existence. After this is done, it is probable that they will get to work converting the tract donated to the city by Donald Ma-cleay into a park. This tract contains some 15 or 20 acres. It is out on the Cornell road, and, while not very inviting now, can easily be converted into a charming park.

The members of the Portland Park Association have a number of sites in view, which they will be glad to suggest to the board when once it gets in working order. One of these is a spot down on the Peninsula, and another is a flat above Ross Island, which, they say, could be made into an ideal spot. Both of these places are accessible by boat, and would, the members of the Park Association think, be very popular resorts.

Of course, they favor beautifying all of the park spots inside the city first, but expect the time to come when the city will be surrounded by charming breathing places. It is thought that several such places as those suggested could be had at a nominal price, and that some of them would be donated to the city if only the owners had the assurance that they would be converted into parks,

"You folks in Oregon don't know how well you're off with the biessed rain falling frm above, making the face of Nature look bright, clean and cheerful," said A. H. Young, a fruitgrower of Pasadena. Cal., yesterday. He was in the Portland, on his way to his old home, at Augusta. Me., after having spent if years in the land of monotonous sunshine. He is the owner of a five-acre tract of oranges and lemons within three miles of Pasadeana, but the past three miles of Pasadena, but the past three years of showerless days has about dis-couraged him with trying to raise any-thing down there but dust. Water for irrigation has become so scarce that fruit-growers have piped their lands in many instances in order to string the precious fluid out as much as possible.
