

MICALA IN CHARGE Captain of Newark Commands Marines at Tien-Tsin.

DISPATCHES FROM ADMIRAL KEMPF

Report the Battle Between Chinese Troops and Boxers—Movements of the Rebels.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The following cablegram was received at the Navy Department this morning from Admiral Kempff, on board the Newark, off the Taku forts:

"Tong Ku, June 8.—A battle has taken place between the Chinese troops and Boxers near Tien-Tsin. A large number of Boxers are expected to reach Tien-Tsin tomorrow. KEMPF."

The following cablegram was received at the Navy Department this afternoon:

"Tong Ku, June 8.—On June 3 I landed forces to protect American interests, with the consent of China. Fifty-six of the men went to Peking to assist in the Tien-Tsin. No injury thus far. British, Russian, Chinese Admirals and 20 warships here. Creeps are coming from all directions. Probably more trouble in the near future. Our landing force is under McCalla."

"June 5 the situation was most critical. The Russian force had been driven from the Helena to be sent immediately to protect our interests, or a vessel like her. I consider a battalion of Marines necessary to land, the gunboat to be used as a base inside."

"June 6 the Tien-Tsin-Peking Railway was cut. I will act in concert with the forces of other nations to protect American interests, if necessary. A meeting of the foreign naval officers will be held. There were present the English, French, German, American, Russian, Japanese and American Admirals, and they arranged for combined action to protect life and property if required. Nine hundred men are ashore, and are here. KEMPF."

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

In a message to the State Department today, Secretary of State Hoover, in improvement in the situation, and asked for instructions. Secretary Hay took the message to the cabinet meeting.

The State Department is apparently pursuing the line of policy laid down at the beginning of the Boxer troubles, of avoiding any interference with Chinese interests, and of maintaining the status quo.

It is believed that telegraphic communication is interrupted between Peking and Taku, a fact which will prove embarrassing to the United States. It is necessary to call upon Admiral Kempff for reinforcements.

ONE ROUND WAS ENOUGH SHARKEY POUND YANK KENNY AN EASY VICTIM.

Young Peter Jackson Given the Decision Over Kid Parker—Moffatt Knocked Out Nell.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Tom Sharkey easily defeated Yank Kenny in the first round when he was sent to the hospital round before the Broadway Athletic Club tonight. Sharkey took the lead at the start and drove his antagonist all over the ring and over the ropes. He landed a right-hand smash on the jaw which put the big fellow down and out. Before the men entered the ring, even money was offered that Kenny would stay five rounds, but as they came out to their corners Tom let go a hard left to the ribs. Kenny tried to return his right and missed, but as Tom came in he drove his right to the corner, where he landed Sharkey angry, and he went at Kenny with a rush and let go a wild swing that went over the big fellow's shoulders, and Tom fell into a clinch. When they broke, Tom hooked his left twice to the chin and had Kenny going, but he saved himself for the time being by holding on to Sharkey. They broke, and Kenny jabbed his left to the face, but could not shake the sailor off, and he went to the ropes from Tom's rush, where he took a left and a right on the head. He broke to the center, with Sharkey after him. Tom went to his corner, where he stretched Kenny on the floor. Kenny tried to get up, but was unable, and was on his face when the count ended. Kenny was carried to his corner, where he quickly revived and was soon able to leave the ring.

AL NEILL KNOCKED OUT. Defeated in Eleventh Round by Jack Moffatt at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Al Neill, San Francisco's favorite middle-weight, was knocked out in the eleventh round of a fight with Jack Moffatt at the Columbia Athletic Club. Neill was 2 to 1 favorite in the betting. The fight was a very close one, and Neill showed both men showing much cleverness in blocking and side-stepping.

In the third, Moffatt assumed a crouching position, landing a straight left on the nose, followed by a right on the neck. In a mix-up Nell landed a right and a left on the head, receiving a left on the body in return. Moffatt staggered Neill with a straight left to the chest, and a right back with a right and a left on the face. The succeeding rounds up to the 10th were where the fight was a very close one, and Neill showed both men showing much cleverness in blocking and side-stepping.

In the 10th, after light sparring, Neill led to the face with a left, and Moffatt tried to knock him out with a right. Moffatt then rushed and landed a right and a left twice on the jaw, slightly dazing Neill.

Grayson came up fresh for the 11th. Neill landed a right on the neck, and received a right on the head in return. Moffatt rushed and put a stiff left to the face, staggering Neill. He followed up his advantage with a right and a left on the jaw, twice putting Neill to his knees. Another right and left to the jaw sent Neill down and almost through the ropes. He staggered to his feet, but was out in nine seconds, but a hard right on the jaw put him down and out.

FAST FIGHT AT DENVER. Young Peter Jackson Given the Decision Over Kid Parker.

DENVER, June 8.—At the Colorado Athletic Association tonight, Young Peter Jackson, Nick Burley, was given a well-earned decision over Kid Parker, of Denver, at the end of a 10-round go at 140 pounds. Jackson was full weight, while the Kid tipped the beam at 137 pounds. The fighting was the fastest and the best ever witnessed in this city. Science was thrown to the winds, and both men indulged in their favorite form of fighting, the punch.

Parker began with a rush, and continued to close in on Jackson for several rounds. At his fifth punches and upper-cuts and jabs that he slipped the beam at 137 pounds. The fighting was the fastest and the best ever witnessed in this city. Science was thrown to the winds, and both men indulged in their favorite form of fighting, the punch.

Partell Defeated Burley. TACOMA, June 8.—Saddy Partell triumphed over Nick Burley in the 14th round of what was to have been a 25-round fight. Burley had all the heat of the first six rounds, but Partell hung on like a bulldog and grew stronger as the fight progressed. Burley's second knock was the sponge after he had been knocked down three times in the 14th round.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE. Boston Beat Chicago.

BOSTON, June 8.—Rain interrupted today's game in the third inning. After play was resumed, three hits and some poor work by the Chicago infield gave Boston five runs and the game. Attendance 1500. The score:

Boston.....R H E Chicago.....3 10 3 Batteries—Dineen and Sullivan; Callahan and Donahue. Umpire—Hurt.

Games Postponed. NEW YORK, June 8.—The St. Louis-New York game was called at the end of the third inning on account of rain.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The Cincinnati-Philadelphia game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Brooklyn-Pittsburgh game was postponed on account of rain.

National League Standing.

Philadelphia.....Wm. Lost. Per cent. Philadelphia.....20 14 59.2

The American League. At Kansas City—Kansas City II, Buffalo I.

At Chicago—Chicago 3, Cleveland 4. At Minneapolis—Minneapolis 10, Indianapolis 4.

At Milwaukee—Milwaukee 3, Detroit 2.

New Bowling Record. DUBUQUE, Ia., June 8.—George Schrein

LAST VIRGINIA DUELIST. Tragic Tale of the Life of the Late Page McCarty.

Wholesale Business is of a Most-EST CHARACTER. Cereals Are Higher, But the Cause is Not Altogether Favorable for General Business—Clearings.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The wholesale is of a between-stations character, but warmer weather has offered a stimulus to retail business in some sections. Chief activities and movements, however, still concentrated on the price situation, and efforts to readjust quotations to meet current demand and supply conditions go forward steadily. The exception to the general downward trend of prices is that furnished by leading farm products, notably cereals, but here the moving cause is hardly so favorable. The result of less satisfactory crop reports, particularly from the Northwest, and it is to be noted that advances from the Northwest, where the winter wheat yield promises to be very short, are also less favorable. The Northwest has had some rains, but it is claimed not enough to render the situation more private and became a Captain of Artillery.

After the war Captain McCarty turned his attention to newspaper and to literary work in the year 1873 and his old friends corresponded with him. He was in work with Miss Mary Triplett, who was at that time the most celebrated beauty in Virginia, if not in the whole South. A short time later he married her. He was mentioned, and all the fashionable people of Richmond were there. On this occasion Miss Triplett wounded the feelings of Captain McCarty, who had a decided preference to dance with some one else. Shortly after the ball the following verse was printed in a local newspaper, but no name was signed:

When Miss McCarty's eyes I press, Those lips I too, would fain caress, Those lips those lips are false.

John Mordecai was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's. He was in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEWS

WHOLESALE BUSINESS IS OF A MOST-EST CHARACTER. Cereals Are Higher, But the Cause is Not Altogether Favorable for General Business—Clearings.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The wholesale is of a between-stations character, but warmer weather has offered a stimulus to retail business in some sections. Chief activities and movements, however, still concentrated on the price situation, and efforts to readjust quotations to meet current demand and supply conditions go forward steadily. The exception to the general downward trend of prices is that furnished by leading farm products, notably cereals, but here the moving cause is hardly so favorable. The result of less satisfactory crop reports, particularly from the Northwest, and it is to be noted that advances from the Northwest, where the winter wheat yield promises to be very short, are also less favorable. The Northwest has had some rains, but it is claimed not enough to render the situation more private and became a Captain of Artillery.

After the war Captain McCarty turned his attention to newspaper and to literary work in the year 1873 and his old friends corresponded with him. He was in work with Miss Mary Triplett, who was at that time the most celebrated beauty in Virginia, if not in the whole South. A short time later he married her. He was mentioned, and all the fashionable people of Richmond were there. On this occasion Miss Triplett wounded the feelings of Captain McCarty, who had a decided preference to dance with some one else. Shortly after the ball the following verse was printed in a local newspaper, but no name was signed:

When Miss McCarty's eyes I press, Those lips I too, would fain caress, Those lips those lips are false.

John Mordecai was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

McCarty was sitting at a restaurant in the city of Richmond, Va., for breakfast to be filled when he read these lines. His friend, William L. Royall, one of the leading lawyers here, was a very close friend of McCarty's.

MONSIEUR BOERS. In this important material has been over 20 per cent, while in leather it has not advanced 8 per cent. The boot and shoe manufacturers maintain that they cannot accept lower prices than they have asked until leather yields much more, and the closing of many works indicates that the embargo against them is not yet enough to indicate a sense of scarcity in interior supplies.

Affairs of Price, McCormick & Co. NEW YORK, June 8.—Assignee Curtis of the firm of Price, McCormick & Co. will not be prepared to accept a preliminary showing, now that many of the claimants said to have been liquidated, indicated that the firm will be able to pay all obligations in full and in advance, plus of about $250,000 after the cost of the assigneeship has been deducted. A conference will probably be held next Sunday, at which the assignee will be present, or the special partner, now on his way back from Europe, will be present.

According to a friend of Theodore H. Price, it is not probable that the firm will be organized along the same lines with new special capital. One alternative to this plan is said to be the formation of a new firm, consisting of Crocker, Price, McCormick and W. Rutherford, Mr. Crocker's stepson, who recently bought a seat on the Stock Exchange, and who, if formed, would only operate on the Stock Exchange, and Theodore H. Price would then resume business under a separate arrangement.

Modest Tribute to Alfred Austin. Lincoln (Neb.) Journal. England had a right to feel jubilant over the relief of Mafeking. The boys had been hemmed up in close and precarious quarters, with no certain knowledge that they would be able to hold out till help was at hand. They were getting tired of making men and animals, and wanted to lay down their arms and receive the benediction of a change of diet. But the officers were obdurate, and the defense was continued until relief came. It was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and frowns and dashed upon them. The occasion was one for smiles and tears and cheers, and something to eat. But when the news reached the general office at London, the British flag was not on the streets and yell till they were black in the face. Amidst the general gladness, it was not until the scene when the beleaguered garrison peeped over the ramparts and beheld the royal ensign floating from the kopjes where so recently the British flag had been felled and f