SCRAMBLE FOR PLACES

CONTEST FOR DEPUTYSHIPS UNDER NEW OFFICERS.

There Will Be Numerous Changes at the Courthouse and at the City Hall.

When the newly elected city and county officials take their places, July 2, numerous changes will be made in the force of deputies, although in some cases old hands will be retained. The appointments are said to rest with the Republican City and County Committees, and the scramble for positions is considerable, as it always is after the close of an election. Promises are long ago said to have been given for everything in sight, but the knowledge of this does not deter place-hunters from setting themselves to secure office. No definite information can be obtained in official circles just now, regarding the favored ones, but various rumors are in circulation as to a few of the new deputies.

Report is that Harry Meyer will be promoted to the position of chief deputy in the Sheriff's office, and that Horace W. Thielens will be assigned to the tax collection department. Two new men not yet decided upon are said to be coming into the office.

For the position of County Jailor, in place of E. J. Dougherty, the names of George Mitchell, at present doing the work of Constable in Justice Kramer's Court, is mentioned, also N. Krummiller and Mr. Lowmeyer. The latter is now Clerk of the County Court. H. H. Holmes will probably retain his present force, with L. Q. Swetland as chief deputy.

In the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court J. E. Kinnear, the position of chief deputy is expected to be filled by Frank D. Honnessy, now Municipal Judge; T. B. McDewitt, Jr., Daniel McGill and Joseph A. Boyce.

Some of the present help will remain in the County Recorder's office.

It is reported that County Assessor-elect Charles McDonald, whose term does not begin until January, 1901, will in the meantime be given a place in the Sheriff's office, and also L. H. Maxwell, who is to be Assessor McDonald's chief deputy.

City Auditor A. N. Garbelli, it is stated, would like to be County Auditor in place of W. H. Pope, the present incumbent, and rumor says Recorder E. S. Malcolm would not refuse the place if it came his way; but Mr. Pope who has made a good record, may remain where he is.

Samuel R. Mason, present clerk of the Police Court, will retain his position with Judge Cameron.

In the office of the City Attorney, it is said, an additional deputy is to be added, making three instead of two deputies, and that the force will consist of R. R. Dunaway, John D. Mann and Gustaf Anderson.

The city charter provides that the City Attorney may have one or more deputies to be appointed by him; the number and compensation of such deputies to be fixed by the Common Council.

W. M. Davis, present Deputy City Attorney, was a most industrious worker during the recent campaign, and the rumor that he is to be dropped may not be well founded.

The new County Commissioners have the appointment of road supervisors, bridgekeepers, and various other places, but as yet there are no reports of any contemplated changes, and may not be any. It is too early to predict in most instances.

Some officials fear that when the Legislature meets the Citizens crowd may abolish commissions, and by changing many laws play havoc generally with present incumbents.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"A Southern Gentleman" at Corcoran's.

The Clement-Stockwell company will change its bill on Friday evening next, when it will present at Corcoran's Theater Mr. Clement's powerful drama, "A Southern Gentleman." Mr. Clement and Mr. Stockwell will have characters especially suited to their line of work, and the cast will also include Mrs. Clay Clement, Miss Heffron and the full strength of the company. TWO GOOD BALL GAMES

MULTNOMAH TO PLAY STANFORD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Both Teams Are in Splendid Condition and Close and Exciting Contests Are Looked For.

Friday and Saturday afternoon on Multnomah field will take place the best baseball game of the season, and probably the best that have ever been played in Portland. The Stanford University team, which has won many friends in Portland before by its clever work, will meet the team set up by Stanford which will attract fans from all over the country.

Negotiations have been some time pending between Manager Louis J. Goldsmith, of the Multnomah, and Manager Hansbacher, of Stanford, and as the latter team was anxious against to cross bats with their old antagonists, no difficulty was met with in arranging the match.

The team set up by Stanford will be of unusual strength, as it will number several of the crack players of the University of California at Berkeley. Lanagan, Stanford's smiling pitcher, and Pete Kaarsburg, the famous "kangaroo" ball-back and twirler, will be in the box for the college men, and Longhead, the well-known catcher of Stanford, will be in the box. These men can play ball, and will give the critics of the bleachers all the opportunity to give tongue to rooting which they may require. The Stanford team will arrive tomorrow evening. Stanford's full line-up will be given tomorrow.

The Multnomah men have practiced hard the last 10 days, and are in splendid condition. The infielders are particularly strong on team work, and fumbling has been unknown for a week. The outfield has had a good opportunity in practice to show the kind of stuff that is in it, and the way the men go after long flies, the certainty of their catching and the accuracy of their judgment leave no room for doubt that their part of the game will be well looked after. The warm weather has put everyone's arms in splendid condition, and there is no "glass" left.

Whitehouse is doing his usual fine work in the practice games, and the Stanford men who find him will do better than any of Multnomah's opponents have since he began pitching his best game. Whitehouse is now without doubt the strongest pitcher in the Northwest, uniting a cool head with a speedy delivery and a bewildering style that never fails to perplex a batter.

Captain Ainslie is always on the alert behind the bat, and knows just what he is doing when he throws to bases. He has his team well in hand, and makes a splendid diamond general.

Wickersham's work at second base has been especially brilliant, and Doble as short stop is improving every day.

The supporters of the scarlet and white are eager to see their team win out in these two games, as did their football team last season, and judging from their present work, there is reason to believe that they will not be disappointed.

Professor Handley Returns to Ohio. Professor B. J. Handley, A. M., D. RENTERS BUYING HOMES

BUILDING ACTIVITY IS ON THE STEADY INCREASE.

Offer to Sell and Erect Houses on the Installation Plan Brings Too Many Applicants.

It is a fact that a great many Portlanders who a year or so ago were renters are today living in their own homes. This is due to a number of causes. In the first place, every man likes to have his own home. Then times have been better for the past few years, and men have not been afraid to take some risk in order to get homes. Many property-owners have opened up residential sections and offered lots on reasonable terms. These, with many other things, have combined to change renters into property-owners.

To show how anxious men are to have their own homes if a reasonable offer is made them, and is made in a way that they will know of it, it is only necessary to cite the experience of C. H. Prescott, who has been selling homes to settlers at Irvington for the past few months.

Some time ago Mr. Prescott inserted an advertisement in The Oregonian offering to build homes and sell them to renters on easy terms. A few days ago he ordered his advertisement discontinued, declaring that he had received all the applications he cared for, and would have to shut down for a few months. The homes he had at Irvington would have been taken.

"The offer was a very liberal one," said he, "and many were anxious to buy homes. It was simply building homes for them and letting them pay for them as they would pay rent. I made the fact known through The Oregonian, and it was only a short time before all the houses I cared to sell for the time being had been taken.

"A man was around today who a few days ago had been over and looked over the ground. He had selected a site and came to arrange for me to build the house for him. When told that he had withdrawn the proposition for the time being, he was greatly disappointed. He declared his wife would be worse disappointed than he was, as she had set her heart on living at Irvington and in her own home.

"During our building boom a few years ago Portland built ahead of herself, and as she now catches up with the boom which has been started on living at Irvington and in her own home, she will continue. We shall build no more homes on the installment plan at present. When we decide that we want to do so again, all that will be necessary is to advertise the fact, and the homeowners will come around."

Mr. Prescott thinks that there is a great deal of real estate on the market now, and that it is a very good time to secure homes.

CHARMING COMEDY.

Success of Clay Clement in 'The New Dominion.'

Clay Clement's charming play, "The New Dominion," as presented by his excellent company at Corday's, is proving the force of the dramatic treats of the season. The comedy, which runs through the play gives Mr. Clement an opportunity for a delicious bit of character work which leaves the spectator in a pleasant mood and whets his appetite for more of the comedian's work. This appetite may be gratified later in the week, when "A Southern Gentleman," a play in which the company is equally strong, will be presented. So many inquiries for seats have come to the box office that Manager Corday is prepared for crowded houses every night.

"I was weak and weary, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has made me strong and happy."
