MAGOON BERRIES IN MARKET.-The market is now being liberally supplied with strawberries of the Magoon variety, the largest and finest over seen in Portland, and the equal of which in size, appear-ance and rayor cannot be found elsewhere in the country—probably not in the world. The price is reasonable, and all can feast on this delicious fruit. These magnificent berries attract general attention, especially from strangers, and one of these remarked yesterday that it was a good thing that the probibition against making two bites of a cherry did not apply to straw-barries, as the Magoon berries were really too large for a comfortable bite. A vielt to any of the numerous plots devoted to the cultivation of these berries in the eastern suburbs of the city will be a pleasure and a surprise to most people. The large clusters of these berries weigh down the stems and the ripe, juscious fruit forms a charming contrast to the glossy green of the leaves which shelter them. One of the most pleasure things to a One of the most pleasant things to a person who visits a strawberry patch, and sees the long rows of vines loaded with fruit and the clean, well-culivated ground between them, is the thought of the most between them. the many backaches he has escaped by not being engaged in the cultivation of

JAMES HISLOP for a number of years stlesman with the old-established house of Corner-Machina Company, now retired, is purting up a first-class coffee roasting and spice grinding plant at No. S. Front street. He hopes to have it in operation inside of 30 days. Speaking of his enterprise, Mr. Hislop said: "The coffee roasting industry presents great possibilities to a man of coaseless energy and capability. The skillful blending of coffees is a fine art. To take three, four coffees is a fine art. To take three, four or five different coffees from as many different parts of the globe, each coffee possessing a pronounced characteristic of its own, to aktilifully blend them so that the delicate and aromatic properties of each shall be retained in their full excellence is an accomplishment to be obtained only by experience, patience, extreme delicacy of taste and precise idea of proportion. The prize is worthy of a of proportion. The prize is worthy of a man's most splendid efforts. While for the present I propose to devote my time and energy to the introduction of high class coffees at no higher prices than interior goods are said, I shall follow in due sca-son by importing lines of teas which in point of variety and skillful selection shall point of variety and skillful selection shall have no superior on the Pacific Coast."

SEWEE IN IRVINO'S ADDITION.—City En-gineer Chaise is at work on a plan for the extension of the Holladay-avenue sewer system out through John Irving's addi-tion. It is intended to furnish a plan for the sewerage of the entire district east of Holladay addition to the low ground. The general plan contemplates the construction of a main sewer as nearly in the center of the district to be served as possible, so that the internis served as possible, so that the laterals will all be small and inexpensive. The surveys necessary to determine the boun-daries of the district have not yet been completed, and there may be some delay in this work owing to the large demands made on the East Side surveying party by the great amount of improvement un-der way in that part of the city. Should public works continue to increase as they have lately the city's surveying force well have to be approprieted. will have to be augumented.

DELIGHTED WITH OREGON.-Among the passengers who arrived from San Fran-cisco by the sceamer State of California last evening were a number of persons from Southern California. They were greatly delighted with the green fields which met their gaze as soon as they entered the Columbia, which were refresh-ing to their eyes, wearied with the brown and parched appearing fields about Los Angeles, where rain has been practically unknown for a long time. They also admired the Magoon strawberries, which they said were larger and finer than any they had seen in California. It does rain in Oregon some times; if it did not Oregon would be as brown and bere as Southern California.

Mrs. Cole had given the girls the use of her parlors, and $5 guests helped in the affair by their presence. Diologues, plano soles and a violin duet by Philip Kamm and Mise Lucille Col-lette were among the features of the en-terta'nment. Baum & Brandes. Swetland & Son, George Bledgett, G. W. Jolis and the Sunset Creamery donated delicacies for the accession.

FOUNTAIN IS SHIPPED.-The D. P. FOUNTAIN IS SHIPPED.—The D. P. Thompson fountain has been shipped from Barre, Vt., and is expected to arrive in Portland about July 1. The bronze elk that he to adorn it is finished, and will be shipped as soon as inspected and received. This was made in New York, and will be inspected by C. E. S. Wood, who is now in the East. If he reports favorably on it, the shipment will be made at once. As soon as the fountain arrives it will be put in place on Plans source. put in place on Plane square. H. G. Wright, the contractor, will begin excavating for the foundation next week. He thinks the foundal should be in place by August 10.

REPAIRS TO MACADAM ROAD.—The County Commissioners say the Riverside road is now ready for the Driving Association to sprinkle, and that after it has been well wet down they will have it rolled again. There has been some fault found because the mercalum for a short found because the macadam for a short distance was covered with a light coat-ing of earth, from which dust rises when it is day. Rock screenings were used for dressing the surface as long as they held out, and as there would have been complaint if the remainder of the maca-dam had been left bare a dressing of earth was put on to make it more smooth for BIG WHEAT CROP IN UMATILIA.-Herresting has been commenced on Prospect farm, Umatilis County. The wheat all over that section is as nearly perfect as possible. The past year has been one of the most favorable for the farmers and stockraleers of that region ever known. BICTCLE TAX PAYERS UNITE.-The room of the County Commissioners was well filled last evening with representative bi-cyclists who were called together to con-sider the question of forming some acrt of an organization. J. G. Mack and Will G. Steel acted as temporary chalman and secretary respectively. T. Brooke White suggested a plan of an organization to consist of all bicyclists in Multnomah County, whose taxes are paid for the current year, and a plan of representation based on the legal subdivisions of the county into voting receipers. Suggest the county into voting precincts. Sugges-tions were offered along this line as well as others, and finally a motion pre-vailed for the appointment of a committee of five to report a plan of organiza-tion. Those who are proud of the record made by the Second Oregon boys in the Philippines should buy and wear a souvenir button. They cost only 25 cents, and there are few persons in the state who cannot afford to contribute that much to help build a monument to the memory of the brave ones who died because they loved the figs. In a few years these buttons will be souvenirs indeed, and each possessor of one will not regret having paried with the price of it, and all who help to erect the monument will be ground of the out they took in the work. monument will be proud of the part they took in the work.

WILL PLAY BALL TODAY.

Palo Alto Tenm Will Meet Multnomah on the Dinmond.

The California baseball boys arrived in town yesterday evening at 5 o'clock, on the San Francisco steemer, and, as is the ule with college boys, they look bright, uddy and happy, and are ready for their ruddy and huppy, and are ready for their game with the Mulliomah Amateur Athietic Club today. The team is a picked one, known on this trip as the "Palo Alto" baseball team, being composed of players from Stanford University, University of California, Palo Alto High, Oakland High, and two from the Reliance Club, of Oakland. Judging from the appearance of the boys and from the records that precede them, the home players will have their work cut out for them. However, the Multaomahs have practiced most earnestly for these games, and are most earnestly for these games, and are most carnestly for these games, and are putting up good ball.

Captain and Manager Loughead, of the Palo Altos, in an interview last night, reported a most enjoyable sea trip, none of the boys suffering from "mai de mer," and upon their arrival are very anxious to be upon the diamond and test their strength with Portland's players. Loughead was catcher on Stanford's "varsity team during the season inst closed Ches. team during the season just closed. Chester Murphy, well known in Portland for his prowess on the baseball and football fields, will play center field for the collegians. Edwards, another Stanford Variety bold.

one of the best of the inter-scholastic players. Hanifin, right fielder, is from the players. Hamin, right fielder, is from the Palo Alto High team, and is roported to be a heavy batsman and a crack-a-jack on files. McEwan is a Berkeley Univer-sity player, and will play on first base. The Berkeleys are the college champions. and their representative is a strong man.
Croil, at shortstop, and Kane, in left field, are Reliance Club men. Freeman, change pitcher, is an old Oakland High School player, though recently he has been play-ing with Fresso. In today's game Ketly and Loughead will probably be in the points. Kelly was the Santa Ciara College star pitcher last season, and in a recent game with Visalla held his opponents down to one hit, so from appearances Multnomah's batters will need their eyes Multnomah's batters will need their eyes very much today. Kaarsburg, the Berkeley pitcher, will follow the team in a few days, piaying with Palo Alto against Multnomah in the return games in July.

Multnomah's team will be practically the same as lined up against the Indians a couple of weeks ago. Whitehouse will pitch, and reports his arm in fine trim. Ainsile will be at the receiving end of the battery, and is lining the ball down to battery, and is lining the ball down to second swifter than ever. Dalgleish at first base has regained his old form, which is saying much. Wickersham covers an acre of ground around second base. Jordan Zan will play third base, and is batting heavier than ever, and has overcome his over-anxiety in throwing across the diamond to first base. Dobte, the High School shortstop, who put up such an excellent game against the Indians, will be in his old position. The outfield will he looked after by Watkins at right, Doscher in center, and Whitehead at left. This trio of lively fleiders has improved wonderfully in team play during the past battery, and is lining the ball down to wonderfully in team play during the past week. Today's game will be called at 3:30. The line-up of the teams will be as foi-

Official Count Still Pegging Slowly

The official count of the West Side ele tion precincts has been finished, and today the convassing board will begin with precinct 20, on the East Side. Small errors in the addition of the tally marks con tinue to be found. The tally sheets are also closely examined to see each five tally marks have been correctly made. Now and free only four tally marks have been made where there should be five, and occasionally there are six instead of five. According to an arrangement made at the beginning of the count, these are counted four or six, as the case may be. The changes thus far do not change the result as previously announced. On the Legislative ticket the vote is close as to E. E. Mallory, George L. Story, L. H. Targhey and A. J. Knott, but the errors discovered have not lessened the chances of the Citizens candi-dates. They have, if anything, gained more than they have lost.

In precinct 27, some voter who was not milished with either George Chamberlain or Russell E. Sewall for the office of District Attorney, cast his beliet for Ed Mendenhall for that piace. The charges yesterday were: Precinct No. 26, J. Van Zante, 78 to 63; Professor Robinson, 182 to 181; R. C. #### DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

End of the School Year Is Nearly at Hand.

The school year is drawing to a close, and the 10,000 or more pupils in the schools are looking forward to the freedom from studies and restraint which vacation will bring, with almost as much pleasure as they will be to getting back to their desks, about the middle of September, when wearied of rest and recreation, the seaside, mountains and things generally. Examinations will begin in all the grammar schools next Monday. Superintend-ent Rigler will have the lists of ques-tions placed in the hands of teachers before school hours Monday morning, and if all goes well the pupils will be through with this ordeal by Friday, and from that time to Tuesday.
