NEW YORK, June 18.-Speaking of the gold exports to Germany, the repersenta-flue of a large banking house with in-fluential connection throughout Germany, said today that in his ophion the amount of gold sent to Germany from this coun-try within the past few weeks is much larger than is generally known. Much of this gold was shipped privately to meet larger than is generally to meet of this gold was shipped privately to meet the demands of the German bankers who have to make their semi-annual state-have to make their semi-annual statements July I, and are anxious to make as good a showing as possible. Not only have the German bankers been paying a liberal rate of interest according to the banker, but they have been paying interest "en transit" and in all probabil-ity made other concessions, besides. "The simple facts are these," continued the banker. "Germany needs gold and we are the only people who can supply her needs. She must perforce meet our terms, and that is what she appears to be doing. I do not believe that much of the gold recently exported to Germany will stay there very long; in fact, no longer than it will take the bankers there to ad-just accounts for the semi-atnual exam-ination by the department officer."
