Committee Appointed to Scoure Clackamas County Exhibit.

OREGON CITY, July 2-President W. H. Wehrung, of Hillsboro, and Secretary D. M. Wisdom, of Portland, officers of the State Agricultural Society, were here today in the interest of a county exhibit at the coming session of the State Fair. A consultation was held with County Judge Ryan, ex-County Commissioner Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, and promi-Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, and prove-nent business men in reference to the proposed exhibit. It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Oregon City Board of Trade, President H. E. Cross calling a special meeting for the purpose tonight. At this meeting, a uni-versal sentiment was enthusiastically ex-present in force of an exhibit that mentipressed in favor of an exhibit that would carry off the first prize offered by the State Fair management. It was con-caded during the discubsion of the matter that Clackamas County could provide the best exhibit of diversified products of county in the state, including farm and horticultural productions, hops, gold and copper ore, coal, manufactured iton, foundry machine products, manufactured paper, cloths, shoes, fancy leathers, etc. A determination was expressed to prepare an exhibit that would be a credit to the state, one that could be kept on perma-nent display here as an advertisement of the county's resources. President Cross appointed the following committee to pre-pare such an exhibit: Thomas F. Byan, O. W. Eastham, E. E. Charman, Richard ott, of Milwaukie, and J. M. Tracy, of
