Too Much Lacense .- A great deal of lia and latitude in the matter of exd during the celebration of the rth, and some people are inclined to too much advantage of this. The the too much advantage of this. The ope and half-grown hoodlums who send Dewey chasers' rolling along the side-alks under the skirts of women, and nose who wantonly throw lighted fire-rackers into crowds of people to the plangering of their eyes, are of this ass. It has been alleged that these Dewey chasers' will not set fire to anything, but this is doubtful, and they certainly give many people a serious fright. ly give many people a serious fright. one should be allowed to roll them ig sidewalks at least, and the escorts women who are terrified by them ald be perfectly justified in administer condign punishment to any one rolling se nuisances around. They do not ke any noise, which is the great deratum on the Fourth, but are merely ed to scare people, which is thought to a smart thing by ill-bred boys and odlums. It would be a good thing if e Chief of Police and Fire Chief would ohibit the use or sale of these chasers, this might save some persons a merited drubbing.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE THIS .- A magnifiestrion imported direct rmany is the latest acquisition to Fred 's Concert Hall, southwest corner of ad and Burnside streets. There are three instruments of the kind on Pacific Coast, one of which is owned John D. Spreckels, of San Francisco, six altogether in the United States. run by electricity, and contains 164 s with a blending of 16 instruments. to music is more perfectly rendered an it is possible to secure from any mber of individuals, as discord or rehness is impossible. DATE PROVISIONS.—
re was a great rush of business on nt street yesterday morning. As all es will be closed today, hotels and iders had to lay in two days' supresterday. This is no great hard-to individuals, but to dealers it ns a great increase of business. Coop chickens, boxes of butter, carcasses of gr and calves were being dumped by men all over the sidewalks and ntic clerks and porters were getting of them as rapidly as possible. Boats re whistling at the wharves and rds of country people were pouring ore from some, while larger crowds of ens were pouring on board of others, lous to get away from the noise and de of the Fourth. The weather looked oning during the forenoon, and soops of rain fell, but an old and confident citizen rushed into the ch and bet a box of cigars that there

Making Old Glost.—The attraction in a Washington-street window yesterday was a young woman dressed in ancient style, wearing a wig of long white curia. A liberal touch of cosmetics was upon her face, and she was busy hemming away at a United States flag. A great crowd gathered in front of the window, and many were the guesses as to what she was intended to represent. One Young American said that she was Uncle Young American said that she was Uncle Sam's sister, another guessed that she was his widow, while a third ventured was his widow, while a third ventured the guess that she was an advertisement for some paint house. The young woman was wonderfully self-possessed, and worked away as if there was no gazing crowd within a mile. One young fellow of the class that has more brass than silver came along and could not resist the temptation to prove to the crowd that almost any young woman would waste almost any young woman would waste smiles on him. Stopping he raised his hat and began to smile. The girl bowed and returned the smile most gracefully. The young man siapped his companion on the shoulder and said that he knew she would. He then looked at her again to see that she was bestowing the same sweet smile and bow on each one in the weet smite and low on each one in the crowd. He said he guessed that she was wound up. He then went away looking disgusted. Pretty soon a sign was put in the window, reading this way: "Betsy Ross, making the first American Flag." Almost every one in the crowd said they knew that was it. LIQUOR LICENSES NOT LESSENED .- LIcense Officer Phil Bogaway has sent out notices to a large number of persons who pay licenses, reminding them that a new quarter commenced with the first of July.

Liquor dealers who have to pay a license fee of El® per quarter are not likely to let this matter slip their minds, but many business men who pay smaller sums are liable to forget when a new quarter arrives. The grocers and restaurant men who took out licenses when the new law who took out licenses when the new law was passed, obliging them to pay $100 per quarter for handling liquors, expressed an intention of giving up dealing in liquors as soon as they get rid of the stock they then had on hand, but so far they have kept on taking out licenses every quarter. It is figured that there will be 340 wholesale and retail liquor dealers to take out licenses this quarter, as well as 18 grocers, including Chinese, and 8 restaurants, which will make a total of 261 liquor licenses issued, for which the city will receive $26,100. city will receive $26,100.

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorpora-tion of the Pacific Coast Co-operative As-sociation were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. The objects announced are to disseminate information in relation to industrial affairs, and to consider all subjects of internal improvements that may be for the welfare of the members of the association, to own and operate factories, etc. The incorporators are Henry Jacques, William Young, J. G. Nash, D. G. Nash, J. J. Johnson and E. J. Russell; capital stock, $50, which may be increased from time to time. It is provided that the profits and earnings shall be divided equally, and no person not a member of the association may own stock, and women shall be admitted to membership upon the same terms as

CROWDS COME TO TOWN .- The railroads report local travel good for the past day or two. All incoming trains yesterday were well loaded. Even the sleepers were crowded, and some of the roads had on an extra. The Northern Pacific brought down three sleepers yesterday morning, and all of them were full. The travel out of town has been good, but the big crowd has been coming this way and the hotels are all about full now The crowd was attracted here principally by the Fourth of July celebration, and if the programme arranged by the committee is carried out they will be giad that PORTLAND
