THE TICKET FILLED

DEMOCRATS NAME ADLAI E. STEV-ENSON FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Result Reached on the First Ballot After a Wild Scramble to the Winning Candidate.

(Continued from First Page.)

the confusion had become so overpower ing that the call of the secretary was inaudible above the roar. The police ind sergeant-at-arms struggled vainly to disponsess the mob, which was now well-nigh in control of the floor. Men fought to retain their places, and there were many exciting encounters which at times threatened to precipitate a fight under the eyes of the multitude.

Williams Nominated Stevenson.

It took 15 minutes to restore some semblance of order, and then the spokesman for Illinois, Representative James Will-lams, presented the name of Stevenson. He sald:

"Gentlemen of the Convention: Illinois is grateful to Arkansas for this evidence of her regard. The united Democracy of Illinois desires to present to this conven-tion for the nomination of Vice-President of the United States a Democrat (cheers), one who drew his first breath from the pure Democratic atmosphere of old Ken-tucky (cheers); one baptized in the great 17. and glowing Democracy of Illinois; one who has stood squarely on every Demo-cratic platform since he became a voter; one who has twice represented in Con-gress a district overwhelmingly Repub-Bean; one who is not a rough rider, but a swift rider (cheers); not a warrior, but a statesman; a man who stands for civil nment against military rule; a man believes that a President of the United States who ignores the Constitu-tion, as the present Republican President has done, must be one who loves his own glory far more than he loves the Re-public; a man who believes American despotism is no better than any other despotism; a man who places human blood above human greed; a man who will not trade away the precious life of an Amer-ican soldier for a nugget of gold in the Philippine Islands (cheers); a man who would not give the 2000 or 2500 brave American soldiers whom McKinley has sacrificed in that hotbed of disease and destruction for all the islands in all the seas (applause); a man who, during four sears (appliance); a man who, during four mation of air. Lowne, not a word of mis years of faithful administration as First Assistant Postmaster of the United States, demonstrated to the country that he knows a Republican when he sees one in a office that belongs to Searce Whit states, other is a number of the second seco Nominate our man, and you will not have to explain any speeches made against the Democracy, for he has never made any kind, only Democratic. (Applause.) A man in the full strength of in this Union.

"Gentlemen of the Convention Illinois makes no exaggeration when she tells you that in that great state the conditions are far better, the prospects are much brighter for the Democracy than in 1892, when our candidate for Vice-President carried it by $30,000 majority. (Applause.) We have a state ticket stronger than we ever had before. We have but one Democracy in Illinois. We volce the sincere sentiment of the Democ-racy in Illinois, from one end of that state to the other, when we ask you to nominate the man whose name we shall present-a man who has been tried and present-a man who has been tried and found true to the contest, with no weak spots in his armor; a man whose charac-ter and ability recommended him to the people of every part of this Republic; a man who possesses all the noble attri-butes of a nobleman, great enough and good enough to be President of the United States with a statement that made like States with a platform that reads like a Bible; and with these two faithful Demo-present to you as the choice of the united Democracy of our state that distinguished statesman, that splendid, vigorous, relia-but every member of our State Senate nois was on its feet cheering wildly. Kansas was up, as was Alabama, Arkan-sas, Mississippi and a large number of delegates in different parts of the hall. idle sentiment. The applause, while vigorous, was short. When the roll call reached Connecticut, that state gave way to Minnesota, amid cheers and cries of "Towne."

Minnesota Democracy, a leader of the peo-ple, Charles A. Towne." Mr. Rossing is a tail, powerful man, with a voice belitting his staiwart frame. He could be heard in every direction. His first applause was gained when he spoke of Mr. Towne as a man who em-bodied the hear characteristics of a mark finally there was a chance of his voice being heard. He said: "Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention: (Great applause.) greatly appreciate the action of the dele-gation from New York, it is proper for me bodied the best characteristics of Ameri-can manhood. When he pronounced the name of Towne there was cheering from the Minnesota delegation, which rose to its feet, waving flags in frantic fashion. The galleries joined in the applause with fervor, but there was less enthusiasm among the men on the floor who had

A stout woman in the northwest corner of the first gallery climbed upon a chair, holding in her left hand a colored lithegraph of Bryan and Towne, while with her right she waved a handkerchief vigrously. Congressman Shafreth of Cold rado, a scalous supporter of the candi-dacy of Mr. Towne, climbed into the gallery in an effort to get the woman ward to the platform, but she declined to

By degroes the enthusiasm spread proughout the delegations, and in a short time men were up in the States of Wash-ington, Wyoming, Montana and South Dakota, but their number was much less than that which had risen to the name of Stevenson. me in this position without my consent.

Offered to Hil.

While the galleries were enthusing over Towne there was an excited little group about the chair of ex-Senator Hill. In it was Croker.

"You must take the nomination and save the day," said Edward Murphy, excited-

"I cannot, I cannot," replied Hill, his face firm and set, "I do not want it."

In greater volume than before, but they had not the slightest effect. He left the platform cheered to the echo and sur-"You must take it," said Croker, lean-ing over him, while Norman E. Mack and Frank Campbell held Hill, one on each side, and urged him to accept. An ex-cited man from New Jersey, shaking his fingers under Mr. Hill's note, shot "You can't refuse, you can't. The p must have you to save the East." The party Illinois.

"I don't want it. You can name Stevenson. He's as good as I am," said James Kennedy, of Connecticut, had yielded to Illinois in the roll-call and re-ceived a like favor from that state when Hill, and, then, turning to Murphy and Croker, and gripping his hands, he said: "Please don't force this: please don't." its name was called and Kennedy made a hort seconding speech for Stevenson of Mr. Murphy then gave an indication of a pressranged scheme to nominate Hill by Illinois. J. Ham Lewis' Name Presented.

saying to the excited Jerseyman: "You keep quiet and it will be all right. We have it fixed." Meanwhile the confusion continued to be so great in the hall that even after Chairman Richardson had recognized Governor Thomas, of Colorsdo, to second the nomination of Mr. Towne, not a word of his Grady Named the New Yorker, When the State of Delaware was called the announcement was made that the state would yield to New York. Then the result of the Hill conference was ap-parent. A tremendous shout of applause swept through the hall. Delegate Grady, one of the leaders of Tanmany Hall, had already ascended the platform, and as he stepped to the front to address the convention, the applause and cheering in-

His first sentence rang through the great building in trumpet tones: "On behalf of the Democracy of New York I present to this convention for the nomination for Vice-President the name of David Bennett Hill."

After the uproar partial quiet was stored, and Mr. Grady continued: " "The representatives of the Democratic party of New York State recognize their respon-mbility to the Democracy of the Nation and believe they appreciate the expecta-tion of the Democracy of the Union in the presentation of this honored name. There is no state in the Union with se much to gain through Democratic success and so much to lose through Republican crats standing together, shoulder to absulder, we can sweep criminal aggres-sion and McKinley hypocrisy off the face off the earth. "Gentlemen of the Convention, we now our party and believe that his nomina tion for second place upon the ticket will Statesman, that splendid, vigorous, relina-ble Democrat, ex-Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinots." (Great and con-tinued applause.) Mr. Williams spoke rapidly and briefly, and at his mention of Adlai E. Stevenson, illinots was on the feet of the electoral vote of the State of New York if Devid Benet Trans. Idaho, Call-fornia, Nevada, Oregon, the treasure had of the Republic, to ratify your en-fidence and the people will bless your judgment on election day. Nominate of New York if Devid Benet State in the sectoral vote of the State to the interests of the party. There has been presented the name of a man who is the intellectual and moral peer of the candidate for the first place and that man is the Hon. Charles A. Towne. (Great cheering.) "I know that there are many among the delegates who are under a misappre-While I man is the Hon. Charles A. Additional and the second structure of the section and second structure of the section and second structure of the section structure structu to may that it is without my approval. (Cross of "No, no.") I appreciate also the manifestations of friendliness on the the manifestations of friendilness on the part of the delegates from other states, but I feel that it is my duly to rise here and now and say to you that for personal rea-sons, and good and valid rensons, I can-not accept this nomination. (Great ap-piause and ories of "No, no," and "You have got to take it.") I have not been a candidate. I do not desire to be a can-didate, and I must not be nominated by this convention. (Recewed applause and obserting, and crites of "You must, you must.") There are gentlemen here whose names have been or will be presented to this convention, any one of which name is stronger than my own. (Cries ef "No, no.") There is no difficulty whatever in making a satisfactory choice, and I ought not, in justice to them, permit my name not, in justice to them, permit my name to be used a single moment further, and this convention should proceed to nomi-nate a candidate from some one of those who have been named. In justice to me, in justice to them, in justice to the party. "Fellow Democrats, it is time that the Populist party and the Silver Republican party ceased to exist, and we have the opportunity here today of doing the work that will create one solid phalanx to in justice to the ordinary procedure of this convention, it is unfair to me to place (Great applause.) He was frequently interrupted by promarch to victory for Bryan. (Applause.) We all know that Mr. Towne has not his superior as a public debater in the United tests as he insisted he could not accept, From New York came cries of "Yes you can," when he said clearly and firmly: States. The Republican party has put up for the second place a grandstand per-former (Laughter) and we need a man for our second place who can attend to the case of Mr. Theodors Rooseyeit. can," when he said clearly and firmly: "I did not come into this convention as a candidate. I did not expect to be a candi-date, and I cannot accept the honor." Again came the cries of "Yes you can" There is no man more equal to the task than Hon. Charles A. Towne. (Great applause.) Cordial applause was given to Mr Williams, but it was tempered by the re-mark from one of the delegates: "We want a Democrat; this is not a Populla convention," and other expressions that raised in question Mr. Towne's Democracy. In response to these remarks, Mr. Williams insisted that Mr. Towne was as much a Democrat as any man in the conventior convention. Senator Money, of Mississippi, rose when his name was called and made his way to the speaker's platform. He de-clared the ticket should be composed of men, both of whom had been Democrats in every political affiliation. He therefore seconded the nomination of Adlal E. Stevenson.

ton Lewis, of Washington. The name of Lewis was received with a few cheers Stevenson's Nomination Seconded. The audience then received Governor Stone, of Missouri, with great enthusiasm, rising to its feet and cheëring and wav-'ng flags, while the band played "Dixie." When he spoke it was with deliberation, that lasted but a few moments. Mr. Dun-"Mr. Chairman, Gentlemen of the Con vention: The Democrats of the State of Washington do me the honor on this oc-casion to voice their greetings to the and he was given strict attention. His eulogy of Teller and Towne called for a personnel of this convention, and authorize me to say that in the coming contest our electoral vote will be placed for the burst of applause and his statement that even if they had been Republicans their support of sliver and Mr. Bryan entitled second time to the credit of the matchthem to seats in this convention, was the less nominee of this convention and his running mate, whoever he may be. Born into sisterhood of states in 1889, signal for more enthusiasm. His closing remarks, seconding Mr. Stevenson and saying that all who differed in 1996 should the sponsors at the enrollment were of Republican faith, and having full and complete control of the machinery of be welcomed to the party of 1900 if they would come, was applauded.

Nebraska passed in the call for nomithe government, they cast us down be-fore them in the struggle of '92 like the growing grain in a heavy storm. nees, saying they had nobody to present as a candidate. Nevada had Newlands to present their views. He named Towne as "Flushed with the pride of victory and the big majority, the conquerors ignored their choice, and when he mentioned the name there were calls for a vote. The su-dience was displaying its impatience with Constitutional amendments, interposed mandates and interpreted the laws to their own aggrandizement. We challenged their integrity and competency the delay

When New Hampshire was called, Col-onel Henry O. Kent made a very short speech in favor of Stevenson. Delegate Daly, of New Jersey, rose to in governmental affairs, and in the cam-paign of '96, under the leadership of a favored and honored son who never flirtsecond the nomination of Hill. He spoke vigorously and his terse speech called forth loud cheers. Patrick McCarren rose in his seat whe ates, and who always acknowledged the Constitution to be the supreme law of the land, we gained possession of the agencies of government and elected to the National Congress our gallant chiefthe roll-call reached New York and an nounced that the Empire State would yield its time to Delaware. L. Irving Handy, of that state, took the platform and, like Mr. Daly, spoke for Hill. He de clarad that the the the definition of the state of the state state of the state of t His voice is ever heard defending the rights of the plain and common people, and his ability and sincerity of purpose are commended by those who fear his power and differ with his senti-ment. He is an able and erudite jur-ist and an orator of National distinction.

and, like Mr. Daly, spoke for Hill. He de-clared that although the Senator had de-clined, a better soldier had never walked beneath the Democratic flag and when he was nominated he would take it. The convention was very impatient over the long list of seconding speeches and there were frequent calls of "Time" before he consolided. In the cities, in the mines, on the ag-ricultural and forest fields of the state be is a tower of strength. "We are here in the best interests of oncluded.

North Dakota, from the floor, seconded the nomination of D. B. Hill. S. M. Gates, a tall, powerful son of North Car-olina, presented the name of Colonel Julian Carr from his state. He spoke briefly and escaped the usual reminder conveyed in the call of "time."

Ohio put in nomination the name of A.

it was upon the request of the leaders of the Democratic party that he was dis-suaded from taking that course, and had it not been for that, Mr. Towne would nave been standing here with as much right to the name of Democrat as I have to that name, or as any man in this audience. There are seven states in this Union in which the balance of power is held by a party or by parties that do not denominate themselves Democratic, but they are for our nominee and for our pintform; they are our friends, they are platform; they are our friends, they are present in this city to extend the right hand of fellowship to us. became so loud that it was almost impos-sible to catch the changes as the teller called them out. After Washington came North Carolina and then John L. Shea, of New York, managed to make his voice heard as he called out, "New York changes her entire vote from Hill to

> This simply pulled out the plug, broke in both ends and all the staves at one time, and the roar than went up was deafening. The Stevenson men danced around in delight. Then in rapid succession, the following

North Dakota, Nebraska, Hawaii, Flori-da, South Dakota, Nebraska, Hawaii, Flori-da, South Dakota, Montana, Connecticut, After that they all made a rush for the coming candidate. The cheering while the first changes were being made was enthusiastic in the extreme. A procession was formed to march around the hall, but the long ses-sion that had preceded the nomination of Stevenson and the exciting scenes of yes-terday had worn the delegates out and the parade was abort in length, and still shorter as to its line of march, and the delegates confined themselves for the chief part to cheering. Result of the Vote.

The result of the vote follows:

2	Stevenson.
1	Alabama 3 New Hampshire.
	ATRANSAS
1	California 15 Pennsvivania
1	Colorado
d	Connecticut 9 South Carolina 1
	Delaware
3	Georgia 16Utah
	linnois 48 Vermont
0	Iowa 25 Virginia
6	Indiana
2	Kansas
9	Kentucky 26 Wyoming Maine
3	Massachusetts SArizona
0	Michigan
2	Mississippi 18 New Mexico
9	Missouri
9	Montana 6 Dia of Columbia.
1	Nebraska
1	CARGING THE REPORT OF THE R
	The test Treat

galleries people were standing and cheer-ing. Practically the entire delegation from New York, headed by Mr. Croker, left the hall. Women and children and other spectators who had been standing in the alales during the proceedings, and a lot of superfluous special officers and pages swarmed user the delegate me.

left the hall. Women and children and other spectators who had been standing in the alales during the proceedings, and a lot of superfluous special officers and pages swarmed over the delegate sec-tion. When order had been partially restored the floor section of the hall bore the ap-pearance of a miscellaneous gathering rather than of a political convention. Sergeant-at-Arms John I. Martin, his as-sistants and the police had the utmost difficulty in clearing the alsies, but the people were finally forced to their places or out of the building. people were finally forced to their places or out of the building. As soon as quiet was restored J. Mil-dance of water, straw and wood, a seve-restaurant, and all kinds of refresh-ments, and horse feed. The grove has been put in fine condition and a gen-real invitation has been extended to the ton Turner, a prominent negro from Missouri, the chairman of the convention of Afro-Americans which only recently nominated Mr. Bryan for President, was invited to the platform and briefly ad-dressed the convention. as to make their stay pleasant and agree Judge Gray, of Texas, chairman of the

Louis Dinger, who was killed in the street-car wreck at Tacoma yesterday, was a son-in-law of J. F. Roberts, of committee on credentials, announced that the contesting delegations from the District of Columbia, Indian Territory and Okiahoma had been given half a vote from the districts they represent-ed. However, as the delegations had been unable to effect proper organiza-tion on account of internal differences, Judge Gray moved that the matter of the election of a National committeemen. The bar commission of J. F. Roberts, or injured, was a daughter. Mr. Dinger and family and Miss Roberts, one of the injured, was a daughter. Mr. Dinger and family and Miss Roberts were expected here tomorrow on a visit. Mr. Roberts has gone to Tacoma to be with his able.

The election of a National committeeman from those districts be referred back to the Democracy of the district. The motion prevailed, but subsequently on motion of Chairman Jones, of the Na-tional committee, it was reconsidered and laid on the table. The usual format resolutions of the stateman and pring them home. The bay crop is being seriously injured by the rains. Nearly all that was cot has spolled on the field and that which is and proting just above the ground. This applies to the clover crop only, as timo-thy hay is not yet ready for cutting. thy hay is not yet ready for cutti

The usual formal resolutions of thanks to Kansas City and to the officers of the convention were adopted amid the great-cat confusion, and then, at 3:21, on motion of Chairman Jones, the National Demo-cratic convention of 1900 adjourned sine dis.

EASTERN MULTNOMAH. Will Saw Logs of Any Size, Backs

Gresham Postoffice Prosperous-Another County Road Petition.

die.

GRESHAM, Or., July & --Postmistress McColl is now making up her annual re-port of the condition of the Gresham Postoffice, which will show a considerable increase in the receipts and disburse-ments of the office as well as of the amount of mail handled during the past incorporated in this county in April, 1998, to operate a sawmill by electricity, and since that time the incorporators have been constructing their novel mill. The mill commenced cutting himber this week, and proved beyond a doubt that the pian of operating a sawmill by elecyear. She has issued 732 money orders during that time, amounting to $5575.11, During the same period she has paid Burning the same period sne has paid 30 money orders, amounting to $1946 11. The cancellation of stamps for the past year, ending June 30, was $640 25, which was an increase of $51 43 over the year previous. Mrs. McColl has received a letter from H. J. Ormaby, special agent for free rural delivery stations that he for free rural delivery, stating that he will be here about August 1, to inves-tigate the petition for free delivery in this section. At that time she will be pro-vided with the necessary data and maps for his information and is of the opinion that the free delivery system will be adopted here when he makes his re-port to the Department.

Road Matters.

The proposed county road from Fairview to the Columbia River so as to connect with the Washington side by means of a ferry, is receiving attention again. a ferry, is receiving attention again. The former petition was considered faul-ty because it was not specific enough and a new one is being circulated. Recent awakened great interest and the p moters of the scheme think it will proeasy to secure 250 names now instead of 90, which were on the other petition. The County Surveyors, who have been surveying the extension of the Section Line road, completed their work today, and will go to work tomorrow on the new ..... 16 road to be built from No. 28 schoolhouse s... 22 to the Columbia Slough, the line of which is now being cleared of trees and 1 ..... brush. Supervisor Cleveland has just finisbed a mile of work and one bridge on the Palmquist road, southeast of Gresh-am, and will discontinue road work until after haying is done.

G. A. H. Programme.

of money in the registry of the court.

Posters are up for the 12th annual re-union of M. A. Ross Post, G. A. R., at tricity is feasible. The company gener-ates its electricity by water power. The water is flumed from a small stream, and runs a 30-horsepower water wheel, in connection with which is a dynamo to generate the electricity to operate the mIIL Wires are strung from the powerhouse to the sawmill, and attached to the saws and other machinery of the mill. The peculiarity of the electric sawmill is that the carriage is above the log, and carries two saws. They are so fixed as to cut both ways, making two cuts at the same time, and, instead of having to bring the carriage back and commence cutting at the same end each time, the saws cut as well coming back, and they cut a log of any size. Mr. Brower, who eral invitation has been extended to the public to attend. All campers in the grove will be given extra attention so

Brief Notes.

AN ELECTRIC SAWMILL.

ward and Forward.

TILLAMOOK, July 6 -A company was planned the mill, is perfectly satisfied with the result, and says his mill will cut lumber at one-half the cost of other sawmills. The incorporators have expended about $5000 in this enterprise

Court Notes.

The trial of the damage suit of I. Olsen vs. North Pacific Lumber Company was continued in the United States Court yesterday. It will take a day or two more to conclude the case.

Judge Bellinger made an order in the United States Circuit Court yesterday in the case of Charles M. Reed vs. the Northwest Copper Company, allowing Wallace McCamant $800 for his services as Special Master Commissioner, with $27 as traveling expenses, to be paid out

Samuel T. Paisley Dead.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 6.-Samuel T. Paisley, ox-Superintendent of the Bureau of Highways and Sewers of this city, against whom there was a charge of embezzlement of over 150,000, in dead at Newport News, Va. He was in the service of the city for 5 years. Last May he suddenly left the city, since which time no definite information concerning him was made public, until the ouncement of his death last night.

Towne. .. SiNebraska ... Nevada Idaho 3 Oregon 3 South Dakota ndiana ... 2)Washington 2|Wisconsin

Maine Massachusetts Michigan 11 Arizona 5 New Mexico 18 Oklahoma Minnesota Missouri iota ... Total ... $514 Patrick. Ohio .....

A ()	Carr.
	Montana 1 North Carolin
2	Smith.
i.	Maryland
e i	Hogg.
2	Missouri
9.	Danforth.
:	Missouri
	Hill.
	Alabama 19 Nevada
0	Pelaware 2New Jersey Florida

3 North Dakota ....

 Idaho
 16 Oregon
 1

 Louislana
 16 Oregon
 1

 Massachuzettz
 13 Tennessee
 2

 Missouri
 6 Hawali
 6

 Montana
 3
 7

 Total 200 will be devoted to religious exercises.

While the changes of the various states were being made, pandemonium reigned in the hall, delegates and alternates stood on their chairs and throughout all of the

Towne's Name Presented.

vention. We come to y of the high hon-name of a man worthy of the high hon-or of being placed upon the same ticket with the splendid champion of equal rights whom you have nominated for Themocrats of Minnesota, The Minnesota of the M with the splendid champion of equal rights whom you have nominated for President. We, Democrats of Minnesota, feel that we have earned the right to neutroinate actively and effectively in the sector was electrical. His words set the National councils of the party. "For 40 years prior to 1886 the party had wandered in the wilderness, but as a result of the great, contest of '96, and because of the spiendid accessions to our ranks in that campaign, we entered the battle of '98 more aggressively than ever before, and at last realized in our own state that for which we had striven so long and elected a Democratic Governor. The veterans of those campaigns now stand shoulder to shoulder, determined that this year the electoral vote of Min-nesota shall be cast for the nominees of this convention. This condition was made possible because of the brilliancy, courage and fidelity to principle of the men who in that memorable campaign patriotically put country above party and severed their relations with the Republican party, casting saide personal ambition, prejudices and self-interest. "The man of this type who, perhaps, sacrificed more than any one else, who more than any other was called upon to lay upon the sacrificial altar a brilliant future, filled with promise enough to satisfy the vaulting ambition, who had the courage to sever the ties of political and personal friendship that he might be true to hisleas of Americanism, is the man whom ideas of Americanism, is the man whom Minnesota today proposes to this con-vention as its candidate for Vice-Presi-dent. We could to you asking for your support for out candidate, not because he is from Minnesota, but because he is of the people; not because he is a product of the Northwest, but because he is an American, not because he stands for any one issue, but for all the issues that mean the preservation of American instimean the preservation of American Insti-

We ask your support of him because he is a Democrat of Jeffersonian princi-ple; a Democrat of the stern school of Andrew Jackson, a Democrat of the broad philosophy and humanity of Abraham Isincoin, a Democrat in defending the flag of the Union, and in believing that to whatever land that fing be carried, there the people over whom it floats are under the protecting acgis of the Constitution. whatever land that fing be carried, there the people over whom it floats are under the protecting aegis of the Constitution. We present him to you not because he is rich in this world's goods, not because his nomination would mean contributions, but because a bench-cent God has endowed him with an eloquent tongue, with a brilliant mind, a of New York if David Bennett Hill shall the Hon. James Hamilton Lewis, of the be the nominee of this convention for Vice-President, (Applause.) This is no

"We believe that David B. Hill, by the side of William J. Bryan, and standing upon the platform framed by this conven-tion, is by thousands upon thousands of votes the strongest man that can be nay

Towne's Name Presented. A. A. Roesing, of Minnesota, then took the platform to present the name of Charles A. Towne, of his state. He said: "Mr. Chafrman and Gentlemen of the Coversition. It is a construction of the the state of the s "Mr. Chaffman and Gontlemen of the Convention: It is a great honor to be privilege to answer "Here' to the roll-call of Minnesota. The Democracy of the North Star State has a candidate for the nomination of Vice-President to sub-mit to the right judgment of this con-vention. We come to you to present the name of a man worthy of the high hon-or of being placed upon the same ticket in Googanow is convention. (Cries of "No, no.") We may to you, decline or not de-oline, from the first to the last ballot in effect was electrical. His words set the convention in a frenzy of enthusiasm. convention in a fremay of enthusiasm. The scene which followed was by far the most tempestuous of the session, and the name of Hill echoed and re-echoed through the hall. State standards were selzed and held aloft, and the convention was canopled with fluttering flags and handkerchiefs. Delegates and spectators cheered, and the great structure fairly shook with the noise, when the galleries became infected with enthusiasm became infected with enthuisiasm. Governor Hill meantime had worked his way through the surging multitude to the platform. As he ascended it, his hands were greedly grasped and he was escorted to the seat of the permanent chairman. He asked Mr. Grady to yield that he might make a statement, but Mr. Grady declined. Mayor Van Wyck, of the New York del-egation, hurried to Governor Hill, and anayor van wyes, of the New York del-egation, hurried to Governor Hill, and began an earnest conversation with him, urging him not to decline the nomination, which evidently seemed to be within his grasp. Hill only shook his head.

grasp. Hill only shock his head. It was a pretty, even a dramatic, scene play. All the while the convention was puisating with enthusiang and cheers. When finally Mr. Grady was permitted to proceed, he said that Governor Hill might decline, but "decline or not," he shoured. "New York's united, and the solid 7 votes will be cast to the end for David Bennett Hill."

Bennett Hill." While Senator Hill, on the platform, waited for quiet and for Senator Grady to white his speech, he kept repeating, "I finish his speech, he kept repeating, "I will not take it." To Senator Grady be said: "This is absolutely unfair. You should not do it."

Judge Van Wyck kept urging him to accept and not make a declination. Hill was obdurate. His face was like marble, his hand trembled, and he wiped the perapiration from his brow. While Grady was speaking, Hill asked to see Senator Jones, and when the chairman of the National Committee appeared, the ex-Sen.

cent God has endowed him with an eloquent tongue, with a brilliant mind, a splendid courage, a big heart and all the qualities of American manhood. "We ask your support for Minnesota's able statesman, orator and patriot, whom. I have the honor to place in formal nomi-mation as the unanimous choice of the State of Washington, as your Vice-Presi-dential candidate, and on the eve of November 6 the wires from the silver-golder Wess will be freighted with tidings an-nouncing a triumphant result. The State of Washington presents for your consideration the name of her honored son, James Hamilton Lewis." Indiana gave way to Virginia, and Con-

ed with the tariff barons or trust mag ounded by his friends, who pressed forward to grasp his hand. Then Georgia was called and Hutchin on of that state, who spoke briefly and learly, delivered a short speech in sec-mding the nomination of Stevenson from

When Idaho was called she gave way to Washington and W. H. Dunphy placed in nomination the name of James Hamil-phy said:

tain.

gressman William A. Jones, of the latter state, seconded the nomination of Steven-son. Iowa seconded the nomination of Stevenson from the floor, Chairman Sells of that delegation contenting himself with the simple announcement.

Kansas did not respond, and at the call of Kentucky there were cries of Blackburn, who did not respond, and ex-Gov-ernor McCreary, of Kentucky, came forward and seconded the nomination of Stevenson, of Illinois, whom he claimed as a son of Kentucky, he having been born in that state. Delegate E. E. McCaleb, of Louisiana, when that state, was called announced from his seat that the delegation from Louisiana unanimously seconded the nomination of that gifted leader and statesman, David Bennett Hill, of New York, Again the name of Hill aroused the convention to cheering and applause. Delegate A. Leo Knott, of Maryland, formerly Assistant Posimister-Gen-eral, presented in a brief speech the name of Governor John Walter Smith, of Mary-

Innd. George Fred Williams for Towne. When Massachusetts was called, Hon, George Fred Williams ascended the piatform amid applause. In his address, delivered in clarion tones, carrying to the uttermost parts of the hall, he pald a handsome compliment to the State of New York which, he declared, was unitedly in favor of the platform and ticket of this convention. For this reason no state in the Union was entitled to greater consideration than New York. This was received with a shout of approval, the belief becoming in some manner prevalent that Mr. Williams was about to second Hill's nomination. He said: "Mr. Chairman and Members of the Convention: You are performing a sacred duty here today and as God's benediction deliberations yesterday, so I believe that his blessings will be upon our delibera-tions now. I speak for the State of Mas-sachusetts, but I wish to point a moral for this convention from the State of New York to guide us in our delibera-tions. There is no state in the whole Union that is entitled to more considera-tion at the hands of the Democracy of tion at the hands of the Democracy of this Union that the state of New York (Cheers.) The New York Democrats have their internal differences, but they have their internal differences, but they have just come to us with one faction of the party presenting the representative of the other, both of them grasping hands in the great union that is necessary for the success of our campaign. (Cheers.) And had the gentleman from New York (Hill) not insisted upon declining and been named by this convention, every Democrat who is worthy of the name would have gone home to work most enthusiastically for him. "We owe a great debt to New York for

"We owe a great debt to New York, for "We owe a great debt to New York, for when we were in a crisis yesterday mora-ing with the rising of the sun. New York sent out word from its delegation that there must be no minority report to this convention. (Applause.) I do not speak here in behalf of the Massachusetts dele-ration upon a poll Massachusetts delegation upon a poll. Massachusetts has come here for the best man and 1 stand for the best man, but I'am permitted to the approved of Towne, gave him but five

W. Patrick, of the Buckeye state, His name was presented by M. A. Dougherty, who was one of the few speakers whose seconding speeches could be heard at any distance from the platform. Oregon, from the floor, seconded the nomination of J. Hamilton Lewis, et

Washington

J. H. Sowden, of Pennsylvania, read a. In Bowen, of Pennsylvania, read his speech seconding Stevenson from a yellow slip of paper. Although he spoke clearly and distinctly, the crowd in its impatience repeatedly interrupted him by calls of "Louder." "Time," and "Vote." The tumult increased to such an extent that Chairman Richardson was compelled to use his gavel freely. South Carolina, from the floor, second-ed the nomination of Stevenson.

Tennessee, also from the floor, second-ed the nomination of that "matchless leader of the New York Democracy, David B. Hill." This was greeted with a howil of amiawas

David B. Hill," This was greeted with, a howl of applause. Jonathan Lane, of Texas, promised to be brief when he took the platform, and he kept his word, seconding the nomination of Stevenso

Utah from the floor, seconded the nom ination

Washington, when called, yielded back to Idaho the time it had received from it, and the Idaho delegation seconded the nomination of Lewis. J. W. St. Clair, of West Virginia, appealed to the delegates to vote for the man who would bring the greater number of votes, and that man, he declared, was

Stevenson, of Hilnois. G. C. Cooper, of Wisconsin, spoke for Towne. His short speech was ably de-livered, and called forth much applause. Mayor Rose, of Milwaukee, sprang up-on a seat, and announced that despite the address of Mr. Cooper, Wisconsin would cast its vote for Stevenson. John H. Wise, of Pennsylvania, from the floor seconded the nomination of Hill. Wyoming from the floor seconded Ster-

New Mexico from the floor seconded the

J. Hamilton of Stevenson. J. Hamilton Lewis, of Washington, whose name had already been presented, was next recognized by Chairman Rich-ardson. He expressed his thanks to the states of Washington and Idaho, which had charming and his canonical had championed his cause, and announced his withdrawal from the race.

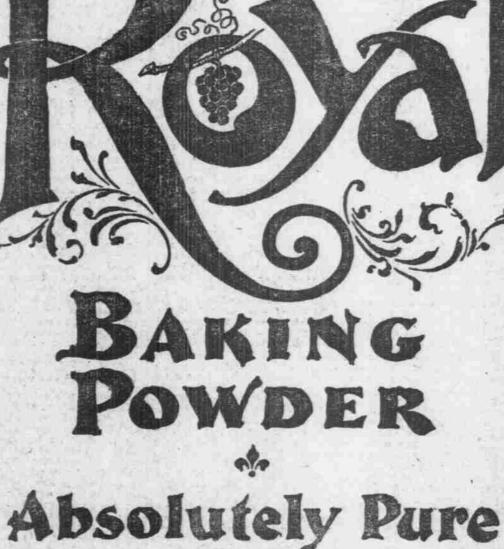

"I rise for the purpose of making an announcement," he said. "I desire to say to my home State of Washington, to her generous neighbors, the State of Ore-gon and the State of Idnho, to the South, the home of my nativity, and to the other states which have so cordially volunteered a tribute to the part of the country from which I came, by paying it to me, I desire to withdraw from consideration at this time, feeling that there should be no votes lost upon a compli-mentary ballot, as I feel the importance of this most crucial moment. I desire to thank you for the kind compliment." The Voting Begins.

The roll-call for the first ballot then The announcement of Alabama began. that it had 19 votes for Hill was, seceived with a roar of applause. "Four for Hill" came from Florida amid a yell of applause. "Illinois," shouted the clerk, and back came the cry "15 for Stavenson," and then the Stevenson enthusiasm was unbottled in earnest, and it rose higher still when Iowa and Kansas cast their full votes fo him

Louisiana was the next for Hill. Her speak for Massachusetts to second the votes, the remaining going to Stevenson. nomination which seems to me desirable The shout from Missouri: "One for

Makes light, flaky, delicious hot biscuits, rolls, muffins and crusts. Makes hot bread wholesome. These are qualities peculiar to it alone.

> I have found the Royal Baking Powder superior to all others. C. Gozju, late Chef, Delmonico's,