

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Amusements Tonight. ALBERT'S WINTER GARDEN (Third and Morrison streets)—Concert tonight. CONSIDERING APPOINTMENTS.—Mayor Howe was camped in the ante-room to his office yesterday, while the rooms were undergoing thorough and much-needed renovating and calculating. The carpets have not been up before since the building was occupied, and sadly needed a good beating. The Mayor will be dividing his time between examining the ordinances passed by the Council Thursday, preparatory to deciding whether to sign them or not, and in attending to numerous callers. He has not yet made any appointments to the offices of Superintendent of the Street-Cleaning and Sprinkling Department, Health Commissioner, Inspector of Plumbing, Harbor Master, or Poundmaster. He says he will give his attention to these matters as soon as practicable, but as there are pretty good men in these positions now there is no hurry. A member of the Board of Public Works will be appointed in a few days. It is more than probable that some of the present occupants of the positions named will be retained in their places. REACTION-DAY BILL.—The County Commissioners yesterday passed the bills of Judges and clerks who served at the June election. The bills of the County Clerk, delivered by the County Clerk probably on Monday. There are nearly 40 names, and it will take considerable time to write that number of warrants. The Commissioners allowed each judge and clerk one day's pay at the rate of $3 for the time from the opening to the closing of the polls, and compensation for the remainder of the day. The bills are $1 an hour, and allowing an hour for every 10 votes counted. By paying according to the number of votes counted the rate of compensation is uniform, those who counted votes rapidly receiving as much as those who counted slowly. The total of the bills of the judges and clerks will be about $600. The bills for meals and other items have not yet all been audited, and some have not yet been presented to the Auditor. DIED AT THE AGE OF 101.—Joseph Worth, who has been an inmate of the County Hospital for 20 years, died there yesterday at the ripe old age of 101 years. He was an American by birth, and his age was established by the records in his record into the hospital. County Physician McKay, who asked what was the immediate cause of the old man's death, said he could not tell definitely, but he had an idea that old age might have had something to do with it. He says that up to within the past two or three weeks Worth appeared to be in tolerably good health, and certainly had the best appetite of any one in the hospital. It speaks well for the climate and the treatment of patients at the County Hospital that a man who was received without its walls as aged, decrepit and unable to provide for himself should linger so long on the stage there for 20 years. SLOW ABOUT PAYING WATER RATES.—The fact that there has been one Sunday and three days of the Fourth of July celebration since July 1st, has apparently caused many to forget that their water rates are due. The clerks at the water-works office state that receipts for this month have so far been much lower than usual. As there are only two business days more before the 10th, the last day of grace for paying water rates, there is likely to be a tremendous crowd of water consumers at the office on that date, and persons who neglect to pay on Monday will be saved the trouble and annoyance of standing in line for hours to get a chance to pay. The excitement connected with celebrating the Fourth has doubtless distracted the attention of many from this matter, whose intention was to pay before the 10th, and they still have time to do so. GUY IN TRAP HOOK.—George Bell, a logging man living in the North End, was arrested yesterday by Officers Meit and Carpenter on a charge of burglary, brought by F. H. Wells. The previous evening, according to Bell's story, he was going to his room on North First street, and entered what he supposed was his lodging-house and room, when he was suddenly set upon by half a dozen of the lodgers and beaten almost to insensibility, before he was able to escape. Yesterday he was arrested on the charge of Wells for committing burglary at 50 1/2 North First street. Wells found Bell in his room, grappled with him, and though Bell escaped, he was severely beaten in the affray, receiving two black eyes and numerous bruises. Today he will explain the case in the Municipal Court. NEW FIRE COMMISSIONERS.—The new Board of Fire Commissioners held its first regular meeting yesterday. The newly-appointed member, T. R. Davey, appeared and took his seat. William Fiedler was elected president of the board. Some business of a routine nature was transacted. Mayor Howe dropped in during the meeting and had an informal talk with the board concerning the affairs of the department. No action was taken in regard to any change in the department for the present, but it is understood that some slight reduction of the force may be made in the future. FOUNDATION FOR FOUNTAIN.—The work of clearing the site for the foundation of the D. P. Thompson fountain on Main street in the center of the city has been commenced. As the widening of the street at this point will be necessary, several trees have been cut down and converted into a pile of lumber which will be used in the furnaces of the County Courthouse. The granite for the fountain was shipped from the East some time ago, and the structure will probably be completed and the bronze elk in position early in August. SUDDEN DEATH.—Captain James Marston, formerly of Oakland, Cal., but who has been in the grocery business here for the past two years, died suddenly at his home on the evening of July 5, just after returning from a band concert. When he complained of feeling ill a doctor was at once sent for, but he expired just as the doctor arrived. He had expressed a wish to be cremated. Mrs. Marston and her son, E. H. Joy, left on the steamer for San Francisco last night, with the remains, to carry out his wishes. NOTE HERE.—Gentlemen's road race to buggies, free-for-all pace and 2 1/2 trotting and pacing race, at Portland Driving Company's track, Irvington, 2 o'clock, sharp, today. Great sport is assured. ALL ABOARD for Camp Geer, at Salem. Only opportunity friends of the soldier boys will have of visiting the encampment for the low fare of 25 cents round trip, Sunday July 8. "TREASURES OF THE SEA."—Don't fail to see "Treasures of the Sea" at Cordey's Theater Wednesday, July 11, by the Adme Dramatic Club, for the benefit of Portland Street Fair fund. THE NEXT Sunday evening concert at the Winter Garden Cafe will be given by an augmented orchestra for this occasion. Every one should look for a most enjoyable programme. THE SEASIDE HOTEL, Clatsop beach, opens Saturday, July 7, with Mrs. E. A. Percy in charge. The house is in perfect order, with a good table and fresh, soft beds. "TREASURES OF THE SEA."—Cordey's Theater, July 11, 1900. A powerful modern drama, abounding in plot, pathos and humor. ALBERT'S Winter Garden Cafe, commencing today will resume the 15-cent business lunch. Quick service guaranteed. ALBERT'S Winter Garden now open. Remember the Sunday dinner and grand musical concert from 5 P. M. to 12. FABRIK BUREAU, nice and cool, only on draught at the Winter Garden, Third and Morrison streets. TURKISH and Russian bands, Oregonian building, take dinner at Third and Morrison streets. DRINK Fabrik beer. Enjoy the music at the Winter Garden.

WALL AND ONE STORY.—The one-story brick building, northeast corner of Third and Taylor streets, opposite the Taylor Street Methodist Church, will be turned into a two-story office within the next six weeks, the work of tearing the cornice and roof off having been begun yesterday. The property belongs to L. Thies, who, realizing the demand for more room at that important thoroughfare, and the upper story will be devoted to offices, the main entrance being in the center of the Third-street side. There are five retail stores fronting on Third street and one on Taylor, and all of these will have to get along somehow without a roof while the second-story walls are being built. Temporary coverings of canvas have been provided by some of the tenants, and these will be spread over the goods in case of rain.

ORDINATION.—The Presbytery of Portland met at Westminster Church at 2 P. M. Friday, July 6. The Rev. W. T. Wardie was dismissed to the Presbytery of Spokane. Licentiate George H. Roach and H. Templeton were examined for ordination and ordained to the gospel ministry at a popular evening service. The moderator, A. A. Hurd, propounded the constitutional questions. Dr. Boyer made the ordination prayer, in connection with the services Mr. Templeton was installed as pastor of the Westminster Church, which had previously

CHILD'S PRESENCE OF MIND

HOW LITTLE CLARA MACEWAN SAVED TWO LIVES

Clara McEwan, the 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. William R. MacEwan, of Portland, is a presence of mind and courage her little sister and Ernest Stryte, a boy of about her own age, owe their lives. The children were bathing Tuesday in La Cima Lake, near the shores of which Mrs. MacEwan and her family are spending the summer. Other children were with them, and all were splashing about in high glee in the shallow water when the little Stryte boy suddenly got beyond his depth, and commenced to sink, shouting lustily for help while, without a moment's hesitation, little Helen MacEwan swam after him, and seized his arm, but the lad's struggles proved too much for her slender strength, and to the horror of the other children, all but one of whom were paralyzed with fear, she sank from sight.

Clara's courage had not deserted her, she no sooner saw her sister disappear than she dived after her, but was unable to bring the two children, now locked in a despairing embrace, to the surface. There was no time to be lost, and she didn't lose any. Coming to the surface she made the other children understand that they must form a line by taking hold of hands. Then seizing the hand of the largest she pulled the astonished children out up to their necks in water, and, still keeping her grasp on the tallest child, dived again, laid hold of her sister with her free hand, and the children waded ashore, dragging their half-drowned companions to safety. It was all done in the space of time that a man usually allows to thinking what to do in a case of that kind, and as an instance of courage and coolness it has probably never been surpassed.

Entrance free, and all interested cordially invited. CATHOLIC CHAPEL AT SEASIDE.—A Catholic chapel will be opened at Seaside tomorrow with appropriate ceremonies. Right Rev. Archbishop Christie is expected to be present and take part in the exercises on the occasion. The opportunity to attend religious services which the new chapel will afford Catholics summering at the beach will be highly appreciated by them.

BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Negotiations are on foot to amalgamate the Bank of British Columbia with the Canadian Bank of Commerce. This proposed amalgamation is to take place at an early date, and when perfected the total capital and reserve of the new concern will be $20,000,000. The business at the Portland branch will be carried on without interruption.

THE PRINCE PRESBYTERIAN Church, Alder and Twelfth streets, The Rev. William Steel will occupy the pulpit morning and evening on Sunday. Evening sermons solo, "Prayer," Mrs. A. C. Shepley.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP CRANSTON.—Last evening at the Taylor-Street Methodist Church a reception was tendered to Bishop Earl Cranston, who has returned from his duties as bishop of the Episcopal Church for the Northwest. Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, delivered the address of welcome, and was followed by a response by Bishop Cranston. Both touched upon the Chinese question, and the problem of restoring order in the Orient was handled in a masterly manner. A special musical programme was rendered, and after the informal reception light refreshments were served by the women of the church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE.—The Church Sunday School Institute will hold its usual monthly meeting at the First Church, Oregon City, Tuesday, the 10th inst., on arrival of the steamer which is chartered by the institute to leave Taylor-street dock at 7:30 P. M. All persons interested in Sunday-school work are invited by the institute to its meetings, where interesting and instructive topics are discussed. Tuesday evening J. W. Whelan will read a historical paper on "The Origins of the Church."

All the crack riders will be there. Baseball games between Torpedoes and Foresters, of Salem. Early cars on lines Train leaves 8 o'clock. Round trip $1.

FEW MORE DAYS. Unattested praise has been bestowed upon the splendid wild animal exhibition now being presented by Adgie, at the corner of Eleventh and Clay streets. Her engagement, closes Sunday night. The nerve and bravery displayed by Adgie in entering the cage unarmed and unaided has never been equaled. The lions are magnificent specimens, and are alone worth more than the price of admission. Miller's famous diorama calls forth loud applause at each evening performance. The scenes exhibited in this diorama are genuine works of art, and the descriptive lecture delivered by Clyde Miller adds greatly to the effectiveness of the display. These views are all original subjects, illustrating a trip from London to South Africa; also marine scenes off the coast of China and the Philippines. But two more days remain in this visit to this highly instructive and awe-inspiring entertainment. Admission, 5 cents; children, 10 cents.

How Baden-Powell Cared Her. New York Herald. Baden-Powell has always been a favorite with the ladies, and he has received a great deal of the sort of attention that is lavished on models. It is said that when he was quartered at Malta he was greatly bothered by the persistent attentions of an admiring person of the kind designated in England as a "garrison." For these days in the discipline to young women who devote themselves to officers on station. This particular garrison hank persisted in accompanying the gallant Baden-Powell, then a Captain, on a daily trip to the beach to see a young woman who was waiting for him. Emboldened by this success on the fourth day, the "navvy" approached the stern and said: "Beg pardon, miss, could you tell me where Captain Baden-Powell is to be found? These days he has sent out along the road to see if it is clear enough of lanes to like a tramp, but I haven't seen so much as a waylaid on the road, and I want to report to him."

REDEMPTION OF BANK NOTES. (The Editor) Will you kindly tell me if the Government of the United States redeems the bank notes of a failed National bank in coin upon demand? G. W. D. The Treasury holds bonds of the United States as security for redemption of the notes of National banks. Government maintains all forms of its currency at par with gold, but usually redeems notes of broken banks with Treasury notes or greenbacks, which, however, may be converted into gold on demand.

POLICEMEN WILL NOT SUE. Discharged Men Take a Philosophical View of the Situation. The threatened suit against the City of Portland at the hands of the policemen recently removed by the Board of Police Commissioners to compel the board to reinstate them, has failed to materialize. The men were discharged because of the low condition of the police fund. The city charter provides that no member of the police force shall be removed for any reason except inefficiency, misconduct, insubordination, or violation of any law, and after a fair and impartial trial. The question is whether the Police Commissioners can discharge policemen because of lack of money to pay them. It is stated that the men, while they are of the opinion that they were legally removed, are backward about appealing to the courts for the reason that they have hopes that the Commissioners will decide to put them on again; and that to commence suit will antagonize the Commissioners.
