ALISKT'S WINTER GARDEN CAFE.

THIRD AND MORRISON.

There is no abatement of the tremendous parronage Fourth of July is over and still it condinues. Tonight there will be a popular Sunday 50-cent dinner, never before equaled in this city. The demand for reserved seats was so great the management had to decide that first come, first served. The dinner still open promotile at 5 P. M., continue until 5 P. M. The orchestra has been suprented for fundays, and a select musical programme will be given until midnight. The 2 electric fans are keeping things cool and confortable, to which next week, on the arrival of the big motor and fan, there will be added ventilation through and direct to the reof. Manager Harvey says things must be right and up to date. Portland asys we want the Winter flarden, and they must have it. To please them no expense will be apered to perfect everything as fast, as busing and labor can accomplish it.

Tonight prompt courteous and efficient service will be riven by the new corps of walters. The dinner will be up to the highest expectations, and with the fine musical programme no one can fail to onjoy themselves.
