DECADENCE OF THE COWBOY Northern Montanians.

rthern Montana is bewailing the dedence of the nowboy. Justly, it would many a tenderfoot to dance by. Has the westward course of empire relegated "shoting iron" to the scrap plie? Has gone the way of the brown buffalo and e preserved indian? Will it no longer he report has it that the Diamond R.

etfit was unarmed.
All the world will join in the Northern dontana wall. The leonociast, Time, has hattered the idol of the "wild and woolly The long locks of the cowb have been shorn; his goutee is preserved only as a memory on the aging face of Buffalo Bill Cody; his buckskin habili sents have given way to overalls and suppers and his bravery is bound beween the yellow covers of a nickel

They will not believe it in the East, where the popular idea of the cowboy is still what awesome and picturesque, Here in Montana, swallowing our pride, we will henceforth look upon him as a perder of cattle and brander of calves-
