

BRIDGE TENDERS LET OUT

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS REMOVE

They Will Be Relieved by New Men
August 1—No Reason Given

Eight gatemen on Portland's four bridges spanning the Willamette were put yesterday by order of the County commissioners to the edit to take effect August 1. The unlucky ones are: Joe Weber and Z. T. Clark, of the Madison-street bridge; R. A. Foster and August W. Schler, of the Morrison-street bridge; J. Frank White and F. W. Goodwin, of the Washington-street bridge; P. Tomlinson and J. B. Truman, of the Peel bridge. Their successors will be: Medford-Andrew Bradford and Austin Maloney; Burnside-street-James Noonan and Ed Walsh; Madison-street-J. H. Fry and W. G. Orth. Steel bridge-James Shanessy and James Blanchet. The discharged men were thanked for the new, which were made known.

men yesterday by the foreman of the respective bridges. No charges had been preferred as the men have all been known as sober, careful and attentive. They had all been employed for a long period, and the County Commissioners are inclined to believe that they would desire to give other men a chance. The salary of the gatekeepers is $55 a month, except at the Morrison-street bridge where it is $60.

The removals caused considerable perturbation among the rest of the bridge officials, as they rather fear a clean sweep will be made. It is expected that several weeks to break in new hands, and the changes would therefore have to be gradual.

 has been allowed to rust. Children prefer regular employment, providing it is interesting. However glad they are when the last day of school comes
 and they are to have a receptive condition for their work in the Fall, even if its interest is not great. A boy—or more frequently a girl—will sometimes overwork, not because he is pushed, but because he is allowed to. The school will either let a girl choose to do nothing. One may choose to do things other than those we require, and so be called idle or lazy; but

That children do rust out during the long Summer vacation is unquestionably a fact," writes Edward B. Rawson, in the Young Ladies' Home Journal. "That several weeks of the already too short school year must be spent in rubbing of the rust is a fact which is not only common to all teachers know. But that is not the worst of it. When the rust is removed the former luster is not restored. The child's brain is not in a receptive condition; it has been allowed to rust. Children are, therefore, very inefficient when they return to school in the fall. It is a very interesting. However glad they are when the last day of school comes they are quite as glad to resume their work in the Fall, even if its interest is not great. A boy—or more frequently a selection of Food One of the Most Important Acts in Life.

Old Dr. Hanaford, of Reading, Mass., says in the Messenger: "Our health and physical and mental happiness are so largely under our personal control that the proper selection of food should be, and is, one of the most important acts in life."

On this subject, I may say that I have found that the selection of food is of so great actual and dissatisfac-

"I am more powerful in point of nutrition than the modern Grape-Nuts, four shaping teaspoons of which is sufficient to feed a child. The use of Grape-Nuts in infant feeding is a fact. My experience demonstrates that the user is not merely nourished from one meal to another."

"I am convinced that the extensive and judicious use of high-calcium foods of this character would increase the term of human life, add to the sum total of happiness, and very considerably improve the food in general. I am free to mention this food, for I personally know its value."

"Grape-Nuts food can be used by babies, infants, or adults. It is ready cooked, and is served instantly, either cold with milk, or hot with water. It is not prepared over. All sorts of puddings and custards can be made with Grape-Nuts. The food is concentrated and very economical, for four heaping teaspoons is sufficient for the cereal part of a meal."

Steel bridge—James Shannessy and James Blanchet. The discharged men were thunderstruck by the news, which was made known to them yesterday by the foremen of the respective bridges. No charges had been preferred, as the men have all been working under careful and attentive supervision. They had all been employed for a long period, and the County Commissioners simply made the changes because the men desired to give other men a chance. The salary of the McKeesport is $55 a month, and the McKeesport is $55 a month. The McKeesport is $55 a month, where $50 is paid.

The removals caused considerable perturbation among the rest of the bridge men, as they rather fear a take-over by the county in course of time. It takes several weeks to build a new haulage bridge, and the changes would therefore have to be gradual.

A boy—or more frequently a girl—will sometimes overwork, not because he is pushed, but because he is permitted. Very young will do a boy's work. One child will do a man's work. He will do things other than those we require, and so be called idle or lazy; but he is doing something in the natural consequence of his own nature. The overwork strong is the instinct to be active in both mind and body that when applied to themselves our children will find something to do in spite of us, and to get something that might be better not be done."
